GUSHING FOR HOT PHOTOS

"Miki: Perfect Parts" (September '88)—now, that's reading! Clive McLean has poked his lucky lens up some tender young snatches, but he has truly outdone himself this time. Perfect nipples, perfect clit, perfect asshole! The centerfold was more than I could bear. Toes, toes. Praise the Lord! I wish every HUSTLER Honey had her toes in the centerfold. Miki's mouth? Perfect. As I stroke my cock, I think, Give it to Miki; she'll eat anything. I've spunked off over Angela Baron's films many times, but Matti Klatt's excellent photos of Angela's mouth-watering asshole and prick-hardening tongue had me bleary-eyed. Clever Klatt's close-up clits were clearly classy too. First time through the September issue I held my load, stroking, releasing, stroking, releasing for 80 pages. Page 81 did it! Pearl, umm-good. I adjusted the light, re-fluffed the pillow, held my nuts in one hand and tickled my aching bone, wishing it were Pearl's telephone. It hit me. Then I got some plastic wrap, covered Pearl's picture, and thar she blowed. Goo-city. How do I spell relief? P-E-A-R-L. —J. R. Queens, New York

FAITH IN OUR FACTS

I have read HUSTLER off and on for many years, and agreed with some of the condemnation Flynt gets for making fun of prestigious people. But after some personal experiences in the matter, I found that some are truly not trying to do a good job, but only just making it look good to cover their own real actions. I enjoyed the "Corporate Evangelism" article in the August issue. —D. L. Marion, Illinois

SHAFTED BY ASSHOLES

I noticed you named Curtis "Sleasewad" Sliwa Asshole of the Month (August '88). I too have been affected by street crime.

More often, however, I have been affected by government dick slurps and corporate shit chutes who, despite the propaganda we're taught in school, have the legal right to screw us up the butt. Fact is, by the time most of us are my age, we've been screwed so many times, we feel like the purple hole. I'm losing my apartment next month because of these right-wing crack-lickers. Someone should keep an eye on Mr. Sliwa so they can catch him drinking cunt blood from a douchebag, then publish it in HUSTLER. —M. A. S. Columbus, Ohio

PUSSY FROM SPACE

I've never written to a magazine before, but after seeing the July '88 issue and "Juicy Jay," I had to say this: You chumps, quit retouching your photos! There is no

Miki: Perfect Parts

living, breathing creature on this planet with a pussy that gorgeous. If she's for real, forward my address. —V. J. Jacksonville, Florida

CONDOM CAUTIONS OKAY BY R.N.

I'm an R.N. who teaches AIDS prevention classes. I was impressed with the July AIDSWatch, "Condom Contradictions." Your approach—what's wrong with this scenario?—was a terrific way for folks to learn about condom mistakes. People hate using condoms, and when they grudgingly do, they unknowingly use them wrong, risking their lives. People need to know how to protect themselves—anyone who believes people will be abstinent is not living in the real world! —K. H. Watsontown, Pennsylvania

HEAVY FLAK FROM METALIST

While sitting in a doctor's office last week, I had the misfortune of picking up a piece of shit called Reader's Digest (the June '88 issue). I read an article in it on preventing child molestation. It reminded me of your Asshole of the Month nominee (February '88), which was that rag, and your article "Banned on Your Walkman" (July '88). One of the things they listed for parents was magic or religious rituals that allow molesters to do their thing. The prevention was for parents to notice if their children took an interest in "Devil rock," or "heavy-metal music," listen to the words, and then to act "accordingly." What kind of low-blow bullshit hype is that? Is that a free shot for the Moral Majority or PMRC, courtesy of RD? I am a heavy-metal guitarist/singer, and I am neither a molestor nor a molestee. I also know my right to free speech. So here's to all of you at Reader's Digest: Your mothers suck Satan's dick in hell.

RILED BY ROYKO

Your April '88 issue contained the best choice of all for Asshole of the Month, Mike Royko. You made my remaining years complete when you pictured this absolutely unintelligent, completely inane columnist. Some years ago, one of our daily newspapers consistently published his idiotic scribbles. His main topic then was firearms. I wrote our publication several times condemning the publisher and publication of this constant Royko bullcrap, mentioning that I could not understand how such a supposedly high-class newspaper could lower their high standards to include such drivel as this asshole Royko put forth. The publisher of the newspaper replied that Mr. Royko was the finest syndicated columnist in North America. My response to that hogwash was that any two-year-old North American could out-think and outwrite Royko on any given day.

BACK TO BASE X

When I purchased your May issue with Jeanna Fine, I thought it would be good. When I opened it and saw her gorgeous face and perfect pussy, my dick shot up like the CN Tower. I also liked the shot of her spreading her pussy lips, with her middle finger on her clit. As for Coco and her "Peaks of Glory," I've never seen anything huger, and the way she handles them! The two-girl action was the best. Obviously, I've missed a lot since I last bought your magazine.

WANTS TV SETS

I have a collection of HUSTLER dating back to 1975, but this is my first attempt to write to Feedback. Beaver Hunt and the participants are great. I enjoy the fantasy comments, but will you run some close-up shots of chicks with dicks soon? I have long had a fantasy of seeing one for real—and your magazine is the only one bold enough to publish some good photos.

—D. H.

Monrovia, California

QUEER SENSE OF HUMOR

I think I am living proof that your magazine is great. I don't get it for the girls because I'm gay. I get it for everything else. My friends think I'm really weird for having a subscription to HUSTLER—until they look at it. Your sense of humor is right up my alley. Thanks, and keep up the good work.

LUST FOR LETTERS

I enjoy reading your magazine, but lately, it has been a disappointment. Two or three years ago I could read eight or better reader sex letters, but your August '88 issue had only two. My boyfriend says that lately Penthouse has had more letters than you have. Please give me back all my Hot Letters.

BLACK LIKE HE

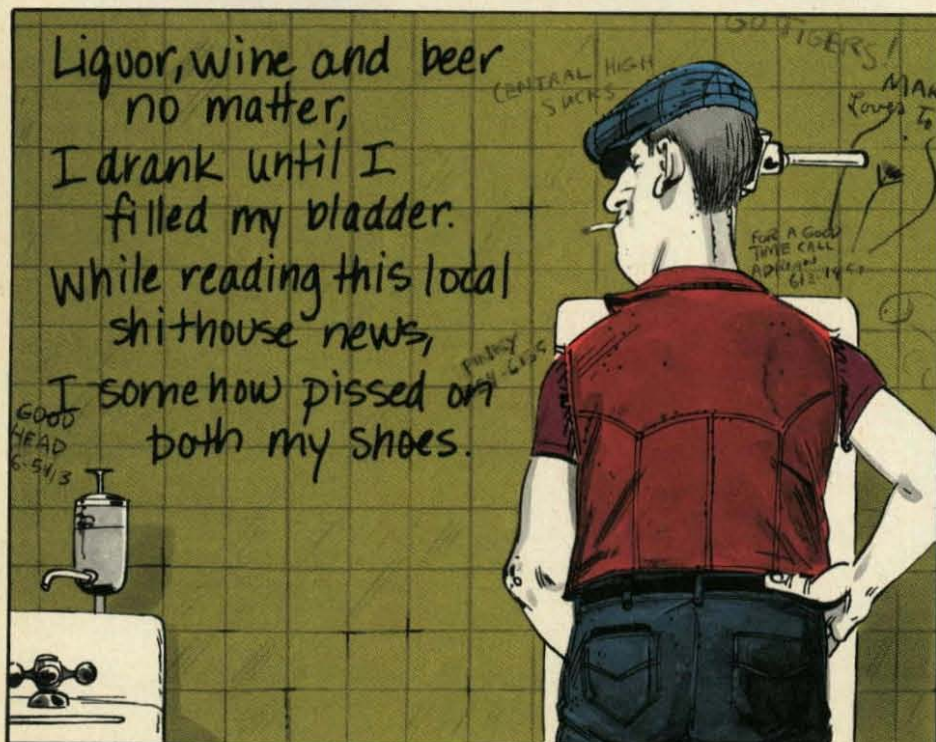

HUSTLER may be a good magazine, not only because of the beautiful women, but also because of coverage of politics and various anti-American practices. However, I don't particularly care for your highly racist cartoons and parodies depicting blacks and other minorities in the most negative light. I know HUSTLER is a sentinel of freedom, but concerning that, "Liberty to swing one's arms ends where another's nose begins." Jews, blacks, Mexicans and other Hispanics have been despotically treated by this Goddamned United States government for too long now, and for your magazine to exacerbate the already festering problem is despicable. Blacks and Indians were totally fucked around by this corrupt country as soon as the first scum-of-the-earth European set foot on this land, where he had no fucking business being in the first place. I'm not racist; visually, I am black, and I've got plenty of Indian and European in me. I am neither proud nor ashamed of it, just happy to be who I am. I believe there's good and bad (yin and yang) in everyone and everything. To present a particular race as negative is to be negative. You can promote healthy black, white, Hispanic, Jewish, Asian and Indian relations, but leave all the nigger, peckerwood, spic, wop, kike, polack, gook, jap, chink and other subhuman examples of immaturity out of your magazine. HUSTLER is too good to allow itself to be fucked up by the insanity of racism.

EROTIC ENTERTAINMENT

With more than a thousand hard-core movies being released each year for the home audience, viewers, increasingly confronted by seductive advertising and slick packaging, are often at a loss when it comes to selecting an X-rated tape worth watching. HUSTLER is committed to serious, no-bullshit criticism designed to accurately inform readers of XXX-cinema offerings, and to spur the adult-entertainment industry to better productions. Despite their drastic decline, there will always be adult theaters, and we'd never leave a film buff in the lurch: If a review says a production was shot on film, it's probably playing on a big screen somewhere—all you have to do is find it.

INSATIABLE JANINE

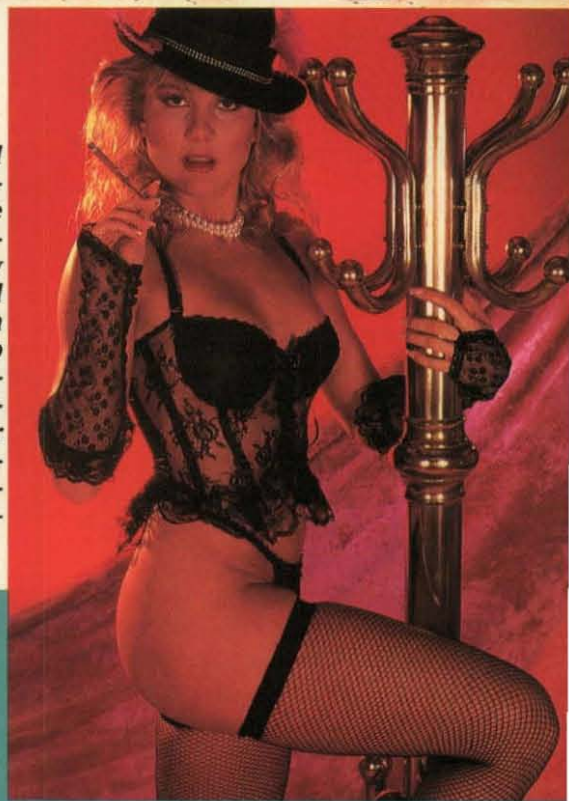

Shot on Film.

Fully Erect. Directed by Gunter Otto; starring Sandra Nova, Ernest Kraus, Sigi Buchner and Jurgen Winter. Videocassette by Caballero Home Video.

This fourth Janine film, based on the memoirs of turn-of-the-century Viennese good-time-girl Josephine Mutzenbacher, picks up exactly where The Way She Was left off. This leads us to conclude that The Way She Was was simply chopped into two parts for American distribution. Insatiable Janine is the better half. The scope is grander, there's more action and a generous ten sex scenes. Insatiable is a big-budget, elegant raincoat that manages to squeeze some playful storyline in between the slurping and jerking. The sex features a little something for everyone: anal, group (though not the dog-pile variety), trios, straight, interracial, lots of blowjobs and quarts of cum. One of Insatiable's stunning moments occurs when "Cousin Ferdinand" ejaculates inside Josephine. Saying, "I hope I'm not pregnant," she stands up, parts her cunt lips and lets his cum gush out. It's imaginative touches like this, plus abundant sex, authentic costumes and locations and a sense of fun and style, that make Insatiable Janine a treasure.

SEX SCENE

SEX, SIN, CECIL!

There are few events in porn worth getting worked up over these days. Come to think of it, there are few events in porn, period, but Cecil Howard's Sinners just may be one of them. This three-part epic in the grand tradition of Taboo American Style, the miniseries, is Howard's first release since his highly acclaimed Firestorm II. (His output may be slow, but few directors have scored hits so consistently. Few directors have the time, budgets and commitment to excellence either.) The multi-layered plot is peopled with an assortment of characters out for all the sex, money and power that Howard can film and screenwriter Ann Randall could dream up. The cast features Paul Thomas, Kimberly Carson, Jerry Butler, Sharon Mitchell, Joey Silvera and Laurie Smith (the last two seen here), among many others. The first installment is coming our way in late October. Parts 2 and 3 follow in December and January. Too bad premieres and searchlights are things of the past: Cecil Howard's Sinners sounds like a winner.

ORAL MAJORITY BLACK

Shot on Video.

One-Quarter Erect. Directed by John T. Bone; starring F. M. Bradley, Alexa Parks, Kim Alexis, Rachel Ryan, Tanya Foxx, Gayle Sterling, Mauvis DeNoir, Shanna McCullough, Robbie Dee, Ray Victory and Mike Horner. Videocassette by Western Visuals.

On many scores, even the most open-minded blacks and whites may never settle their differences, but in at least three instances they tend to agree: 1) Interracial sex is a blessing of diverse ethnicity. 2) Blowjobs are good. 3) To be shortchanged by a porn video, especially one that requires only competent splicing of blasts from the past, with no new footage, is a profoundly pathetic disappointment. Oral Majority Black incorporates all three salt-and-pepper truisms. Its snippets of honkie sluts salivating on black glands are edited with an overzealous and heavy hand, cutting back to Jack Baker jiving F. M. Bradley in a kitchen just when the typical Anglo or African viewer has moved palm to peter. Overcompensating for this shortcoming, Bradley receives the most drawn-out dual headjob in history, dangling his dark dork over blond Alexa Parks as her chest heaves under his sac while brunet Kim Alexis mouths in from the side. This slobberfest goes on forever and soon appears to be the same shots over and over. In the end, Bradley resorts to jerking himself off. Lucky for him he wasn't part of the colored and Caucasian coalition watching Oral Majority Black.

—Christian Shapiro

PARTY WIVES

Shot on Video.

Half Erect. Directed by Nicholas Pera; starring Laurel Canyon, Belladonna, Ebony Ayes, Bionca, Dave Sanders, Ron Jeremy, Ray Victory, Jan Sanders and Marc Wallace. Videocassette by Cinderella Home Video.

"I haven't had this much fun in a long time," claims overstuffed spurious-blond Belladonna in a voice that begs to differ. The saddest aspect of Belladonna's assertion—delivered as she stands stiffly alongside Ron Jeremy and Marc Wallace, who pitifully simulate casual conversation—is that it's probably true. It's easy to picture Belladonna languishing in a urinary beer-and-wine bar, waiting for Prince Jeremy to whisk her away to this woefully bogus depiction of a festive atmosphere. Party's only shred of credibility is its scum-level sex. Brash trash Belladonna smears Jan Sanders' goop from her bush to her face, glazing her belly, boobs and stand-up nips. Bionca jerks and slurps a Wallace splotch to her lips and shoulder. Laurel Canyon spreads her legs back and wide with Dave Sanders' penetrant deep inside. Bionca and Canyon mesh muffs, Canyon licking crack fore and aft. Jeremy power-pistons Belladonna through a gamut of positions. Ray Victory's monochromatic coupling with Ebony Ayes frosts her rear loaves with testicle meringue. Party Wives is good for a spurt or two. Then it can be ejected with no fear of alimony.

SLEAZY RIDER

Shot on Video.

Taija Rae and Fallon do the laundry and each other.

Half Erect. Directed by Buck Adams; starring Taija Rae, Fallon, Ariel Night, Buck Adams and Jerry Butler. Videocassette by Foxy Video.

Buck Adams produced, directed and stars in this aptly named sexvid celebrating a suburban biker lifestyle that's more Purgatory than Hell's Angels. The excellent, comic script by Mark Weiss is almost done justice by the actors, some of whom are probably not acting. Jerry Butler plays the dork next door who has the hots for Buck's old lady (Taija Rae). Butler's wife (Fallon), a real housewife type who lives for laundry, wears sexy lingerie under her cleaning togs so she'll feel glamorous even while cleaning the toilet. Still, she won't give Butler any because it's the middle of the day, so he takes his hard-on next door. After boffing Ariel Night he ends the tape by fucking Rae. In between come a Rae/Fallon lez-lap, a mercy blowjob Night bestows on a gristly gonad, and Sleazy's shining moment: Fallon and Adams's frenzied fuck. Of the six sex scenes this is the best-photographed and hottest, and climaxes with Fallon squirting G-spot cum from her cunt. This explosive scene, combined with the story's yuks, make Sleazy worth the ride. —Gore Duval

BLACK BEAUTIES

Shot on Video.

One-Quarter Erect. Starring Sahara, Desiree West, Purple Passion, Marc Wallice, John Holmes, Tony El-Lay and F. M. Bradley. Videocassette by Essex Video.

Black Beauties' six clips of sepia-sex pics past range from mundane (a standard Marc Wallice cock-cram into high-contrast Sahara, ending as she handjob him with his dick head in her liver lips) to mediocre (a negress/negress mouth-to-puss that might have

FATAL PASSION

Shot on Video.

Three-Quarters Erect. Directed by Henri Pachard; starring Alicia Monet, Ona Zee, Alicia Monet stars in Fatal Passion.

Shanna McCullough, Angel Kelly, Nikki Knights, Billy Dee, F. M. Bradley, Robert Bullock and Peter North. Videocassette by Coast to Coast Video.

Shanna McCullough belies her suburban, den-mother mien by spreading Robert Bullock's buttocks in Fatal Passion's opening frenzy. Like an aphrodisia-stricken fuck-pig, Shanna routs snout first for truffles in Robert's butt-rut, licking the link between shitter and scrotum, flicking her tongue in his clenched crapper, sending him to pseudo-sod's heaven. Alicia Monet, stricken by this zealous depravity, pitches in, tossing Bullock's semen across McCullough's prostrate form. The torch passes to Ona Zee, who, in sequence, takes a toe-curling uterine bludgeoning from Bullock's beef stick, has her lips overlapped by Monet's labia and opens her A-rings to F. M. Bradley's turd tapper while Billy Dee pulls her mug onto his cream spouter. As if this isn't enough rod-popping raunch—and it isn't—Angel Kelly and Nikki Knights join glands with Peter North in a pureed meld of high-velocity, gender-blender lasciviousness. Passion has room for one more crime against decency, with feeling, but takes time out for a torrent of editorializing. While Fatal's message is muddled, its medium is killer. —K. B.

been dubbed "Snoozing Snatches of Somaliland"), with a few magnificent mocha moments (the monster wand of pre-moribund John Holmes buffed and stuffed into a skinny pickaninny, then plastering prodigious puddles of pud phlegm on her pitchy back) mixed in to keep the miscegenationist mauling his meat. The jet-black jade who takes Tony El-Lay's toffee stick in her smoky pastrami and an angel of the dark divinity decked out in an ensemble of thigh-high boots, higher black-lace stockings, corset and whip share an ebony pulchritude that earns the title Black Beauties. Alas, one of these dusky visions is screwed sans cum-shot; the other receives a belabored and belated forced nut. Still, Black is a bonanza for those who realize beauty is exactly skin-deep.

NOVEMBER HUSTLER

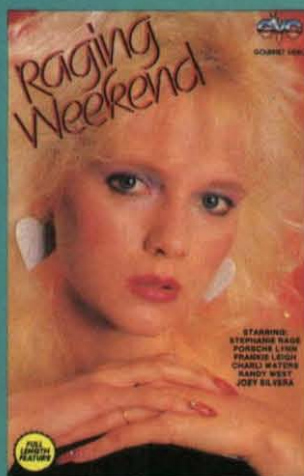

RAGING WEEKEND

Shot on Video.

One-Quarter Erect. Directed by John Shubert; starring Stephanie Rage, Frankie Leigh, Porsche Lynn, Charli Waters, Joey Silvera, Randy West and Jesse Eastern. Videocassette by Gourmet Video Collection.

Randy West and Joey Silvera put money on which of them will come first and most this weekend. That's the plot, folks. West wins first-come prize after a really tepid blowjob from Frankie Leigh, but Silvera comes most—actually, we only have his word on that because there's only one cum-shot in his threeway with Stephanie Rage and Charli Waters—so the result is a draw. Also a draw is Porsche Lynn's dreary solo that only gains a little heat with the addition of Jesse Eastern; Waters and Leigh's lazy lez-lap—Eastern barges in on this too—and the West/Lynn Silvera/Rage two-couple boff. While the sound sucks and the camerawork is uninspired, the fancy edits serve only to inhibit concentration and point up how uninvolved the camera is. Raging Weekend is ragged and weak.

HOT SPOT

Also sometimes billed as Robin Leigh (with the usual variations in spelling), Fallon is an eager and uninhibited porn-hole whose work is seen far too seldom.

Al Goldstein dubbed her "the eighth wonder of the world," and a look at just one of her videos should make the reason clear. Fallon's specialty is the legendary G-spot gusher, a geyser of cum that would make Peter North hang his head in shame. Not surprisingly, she's found the opportunity to show off this fountain of liquid love in virtually every fuck flick she's done to date. (The Godmother Part I is an exception, but Fallon's carnal cameo is still worth a peek.) To see the wonder for yourself, check out Fallon in The Misadventures of the Bang Gang, Dreams, Slumber Party Reunion, Backdoor to Hollywood III and Sleazy Rider (which is reviewed in this issue).

THE GRECIAN FORMULA: HONEYBUNS II

Shot on Video.

Three-Quarters Erect. Directed by Lauren Ross; starring Siobhan Hunter, Herschel Savage, Rachel Ryan, Erica Boyer, Sahara, Jennifer Noxt, Jessica Wylde, Keli Richards, Ron Jeremy, Tamara Longley, Dick Rambone, Tom Byron, Robin Cannes, Chanel Price, Tanya Foxx, Tony Martino and Marc Wallace. Videocassette by Western Visuals.

Vicarious butt-fuckers are a driven breed, driven to distraction by the contemporary trend of safer-sex smut, which amounts to a proscription on anal action. Crestfallen wanna-be crap crammers can take a nostalgic trip along the old back road in The Grecian Formula: Honeybuns II, a compilation of previously seen intestinal erotica. Generously garnished with lush scenes of orgying, dick-licking, cunt-humping and tit-fucking are egestive entrees of Chanel Price and Jessica Wylde dildo-drilling one another's dumper and licking butt crack, Tony Martino pulling out of big-hole Keli Richards' ass to sprinkle cum pearls on Dick Rambone's sac as his beastly bone burrows into Keli's quim, Ron Jeremy sliding a vibrator up Erica Boyer's bungler as his huge log lodges betwixt her labes, John Leslie riding on Rachel Ryan's rectal expressway, Tom Byron squirting testicular albumen into Tamara Longley's twitching sphincters, and Siobhan Hunter succumbing to heavy hitter Herschel Savage in her shitter. Enough poopers are popped by proxy to lift the spirits and peanut-butter-smeared joysticks of crap-craving cravens. —C. S.

Half Erect. Directed by Jim Travis; starring Alicia Monet, Trinity Loren, Robert Bullock, Randy West, Randy Spears and Ben Gleaner. Videocassette by Fantasy Home Video.

One whiff of devil woman Alicia Monet's panties turns Robert Bullock into a zombie sex-slave who bothers couples in the park by shoving the panties in their faces and commanding them to have sex. (Yes, it's based on a true story.) Seeing him in Monet's thrall, Bullock's pals Randy West and Randy Spears decide to help break the spell. Spears consults a gypsy, who agrees to lend a hand if he'll father her child. This produces a fairly good screw despite the foregone interior cum-shot. Wet Dream's real sizzler is the finale, in which Bullock and Monet get deprogrammed by well-meaning friends. The main attraction here is both Randys fucking the hair-dye out of Monet. Riveting shots of West's scrot bouncing on Monet's face as Spears slams into her cunt, and the sensational splat-shot Spears lands on Monet's waiting tongue make for a terrific finish to an otherwise average sexvid. Marred by off-screen voices, constant repetition of sex-action shots, predominantly so-so fucking, largely indifferent camerawork and—except for a few fine comic moments—humor mangled by inept run-through delivery, this Dream on Elm Street is only damp. —J. C.

WORKERS' RIGHTS

A mushrooming problem in America today is AIDS in the work sector. What constitutes worker's rights in regards to AIDS? With the federal Centers for Disease Control (CDC) estimating that 1 to 2 million Americans carry the AIDS virus, and possibly 20% to 30% of them will eventually become seriously ill, it is likely AIDS is already in your workplace or soon will enter it.

Is Mandatory Testing in the Workplace Necessary?

Many businesses require lie-detector tests to measure employees' honesty. Professional athletes are asked to piss in a jar for drug analysis. Now it's the age of AIDS hysteria, and your employer wants to know if you are a carrier. After all, the fastest road to financial ruin for a public-service business, like a restaurant, is for its customers to discover that someone working there has AIDS.

The government has now extended its mandatory-testing program to include all military personnel, participants in the Job Corps and foreign-service employees of the State Department, contradicting their own CDC, which has stated that mandatory employment testing is not necessary and, furthermore, that the AIDS virus is not casually transmitted. It is also the CDC's opinion that there is no medical justification for refusing to employ health-care, personal-service, food-service or other workers who have AIDS or who have been exposed to the virus.

As reflected in a recent Gallup Poll, the public seems to believe the media-inspired paranoia, for the survey showed that more than 40% of Americans are concerned that they will contract the virus, and 68% viewed AIDS as the nation's most serious health problem.

One of the dangers of AIDS testing in the workplace is the test itself, which is so error-prone that it takes three applications to be absolutely sure of a "positive" result. (See AIDSWatch: "Loop-holes in Testing," September '88.) Even positive test results don't mean a person has contracted AIDS; it means they might get AIDS—and then they might not. Imagine the emotional impact on a worker who gets "framed" by a faulty test result and must endure the ridicule and harassment of fellow workers. There have already been documented reports of suicides from related incidents.

Can Your Boss Demand You Take an AIDS Test?

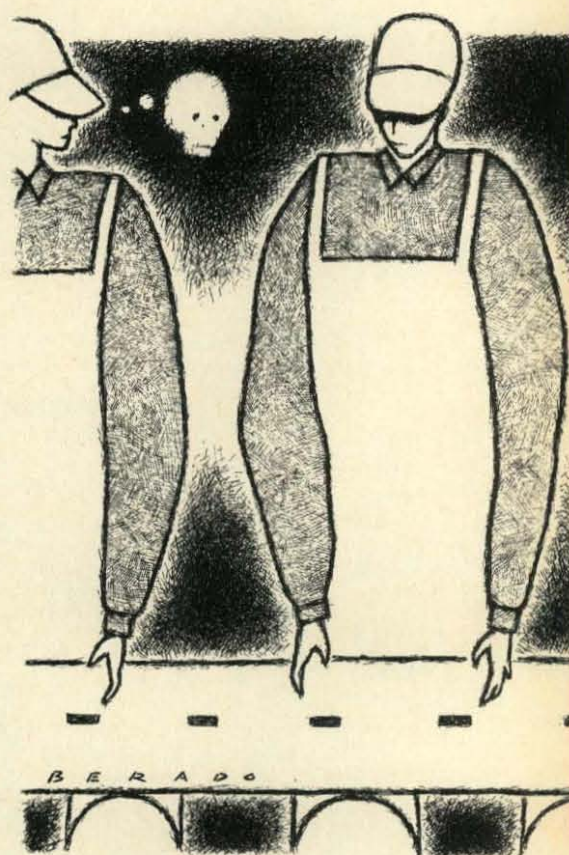

In most parts of the country an employer can ask his employees to be tested, as long as he doesn't discriminate by singling out individuals he considers likely drug abusers or homosexuals. In other words, if one employee is requested to take the test, all employees of that firm must be tested. "Several states and cities have passed laws directly prohibiting either AIDS-based discrimination or the use of blood tests to 'screen' employees for AIDS," explains Arthur S. Leonard, author of Employment Discrimination Against Persons With AIDS.

Can an Employer Fire an Employee Who Receives a Positive AIDS Test?

An employer legally cannot justify the use of AIDS-test results to discriminate in hiring or firing. This doesn't deter one anonymous owner of a Southern California-based fast-food franchise who stated, "Fuck 'em. I find out one of my employees has got AIDS, I fire 'em faster than shit going down the toilet. Let 'em sue. By the time it gets to court the fag will be dead anyway. No habeas corpus."

Do You Have the Right to Know if a Fellow Worker Has AIDS?

The failure to keep an employee's medical condition confidential is illegal; nonetheless, abuses do occur. The county health commissioner in Fayette County, Ohio, received an anonymous note stating that an employee of a local restaurant had AIDS. The note was forwarded to the owner of the restaurant, who read it aloud at a meeting of restaurant employees. The employee, with 22 years of service at the establishment, was fired. He has filed a $1.5-million damage suit claiming "infliction of emotional distress."

Can You Refuse to Work With an AIDS Victim?

Legal battles are being waged around the United States regarding this issue. Pertinent federal, state and local handicap discrimination laws are quite effective as far as protecting the civil rights of an AIDS victim. But what about the uninfected worker who

A prison guard discharged for refusing to conduct "pat searches" of prisoners for fear of contracting AIDS won back his job in an arbitration proceeding. The U.S. Justice Department, in a controversial legal memo, argued that discrimination due to fear of AIDS contraction was not itself "handicap discrimination."

Workers' Rights in Special Situations

"The issue was really hot after Rock Hudson died. . . . There was a lot of concern about kissing and saliva," says Mark Locher, public relations director for Screen Actors Guild (SAG). "What SAG did was require that an actor be notified, prior to audition, whether open-mouthed kissing would be required. If the actor was afraid of that, they did not have to go to the audition." The only hitch was, once an actor committed to perform a kissing scene, they had no control over who their scene partner was; so the next Rock Hudson might walk in to "swap spit" with you. In view of AIDS fears, "I might venture to say that kissing has become more modest," says Locher.

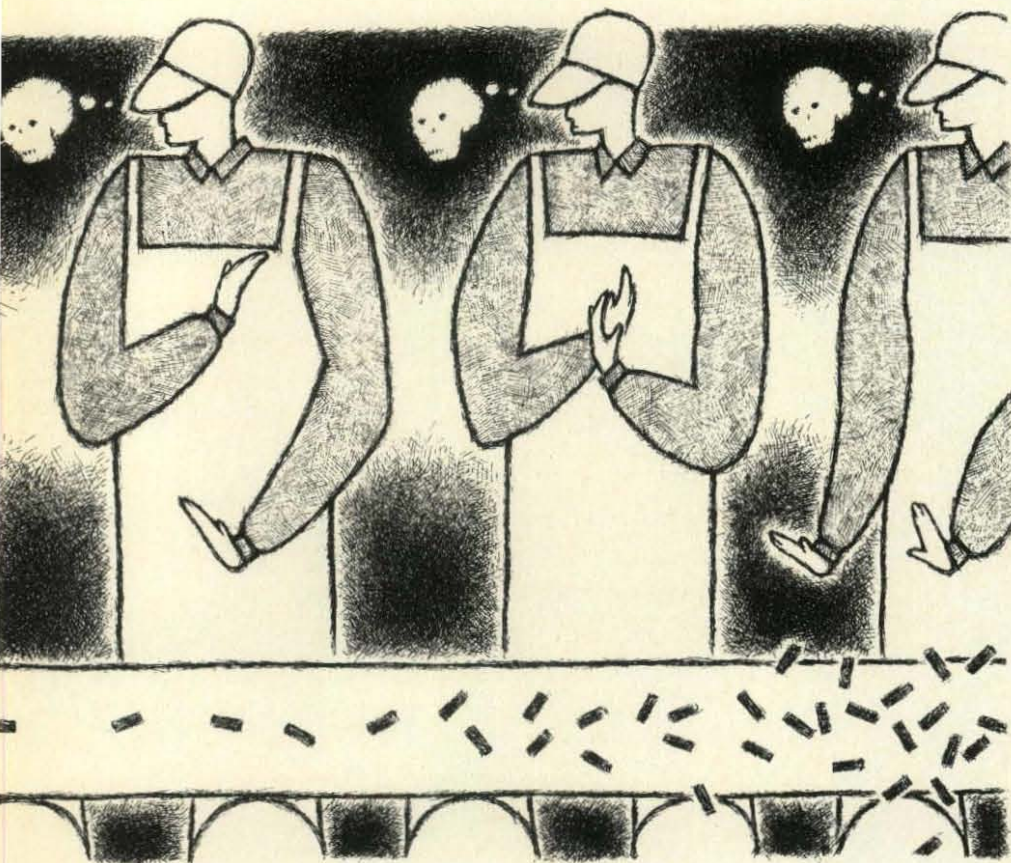

In more immediate life-saving work, an Oakland, California, fire captain told his crew not to touch an injured female AIDS patient "with a considerable amount of discharged blood." She died. While criticized by the paramedics who arrived too late to save her, the fire department took no disciplinary action.

Probably the award for most callous attitude should go to Fairfax County, Virginia's school superintendent, Robert R. Spillane, who expelled a five-year-old AIDS patient from kindergarten. Her parents then sued to have her readmitted. "The kid will be dead in a few months. What's the point of a lawyer?" he quipped.

"There is something about the topic of AIDS that can cause otherwise intelligent and rational people to lose their basic common sense," says Pat Christen of the San Francisco AIDS Foundation.

United States Surgeon General C. Everett Koop recommends that employers "have a plan in operation for the education of the work force before the first case of AIDS appears." Many major corporations have or are in the process of developing educational programs concerning AIDS.

If you are worried about a possible AIDS carrier in your workplace, the best action you can take is to educate yourself about the facts. AIDS is not as contagious as many people think. ☺ doesn't want to work near an AIDS-stricken individual? A lot can depend on the attitude of the employer. "Employees who refuse to work may lawfully be replaced if necessary to maintain operations," says Arthur Leonard.

But, on the other hand, a West Hollywood nail salon supported its employee who refused to give a pedicure to a man with AIDS. Beverly Hills municipal judge John Murphy dismissed the AIDS victim's discrimination complaint, ruling that "an act of discriminatory conduct toward a person afflicted with AIDS is permissible if the conduct is based on a reasonable risk of harm from the afflicted person, and the act has a direct relationship to that risk."

ASSHOLES OF THE MONTH

George Bush and Michael Dukakis are candidates for President of the United States, and Assholes of the Month.

Bush, former CIA den mother and Big Oil rich guy, probably won't remain out of the loop if he takes office, but unfortunately, his loop includes union mobsters, Central American dictators (who are often drug runners), Mediterranean arms hucksters, and graduates of Yale University. The hypocrisy of this effeminate spy disguised as a wealthy right-wing elitist was clear in his whining rich-kid excuse-making after a microphone picked up his profanity and derogatory comments about a reporter. The Ivy-League wimp cried that if he had known the mike was on, he wouldn't have said those things; in other words, if he had known he would get caught, he wouldn't have fucked up. Even conservative Cornhusker Bob Dole called "Mr. What-Me-Guilty?" an out-and-out liar.

America has already suffered under the Reagan Big Lie, which has eroded civil liberties, workers' rights, our resources and environment, and created a house-of-cards economic structure that further fattens the rich, lets a few people make a quick bundle and leaves the stock market ready for an even bigger tumble than Black

George Bush & Michael Dukakis

Monday once Reagan's trickle-down theory runs dry. Bush's background—oil executive, and director of the CIA during a period when "company" activism in foreign affairs became so out of control, it forced Congress to take bold measures to rein in terrorist spies—points to this blue-suited turd pile continuing a reign of oppression and crocodile-tear apologies for mismanagement and blatant breaches of legal and ethical behavior here and abroad.

The 15 minutes of fame for Dukakis (Do Cock Us) may expire long before election day. At press time, Massachusetts' governor was earning the Democratic nomination while his state faced severe financial crises. The political chameleon and media manipulator had just ducked a confrontation with Ted Koppel ("Dan" to George Bush), and had dodged the crowd at a baseball game where, at a previous event, Bush had been booed. The slick-as-olive-oil Greek descendant won state office with publicity sleight of hand that created the illusion that he was a shrewd business manager. An alleged liberal, Dukakis has also employed a short-term monetary mentality for politically expedient surface remedies to the state's deep financial potholes, even if it meant courting military contractors, who we now know are every bit as sleazy as Bush's connections.

The Democratic primary process showed that Americans do want a real change from traditional politics of big business, militarism and foreign imperialism to more immediate concerns of jobs, health, the environment and urban safety. At least that's the indication from Jesse Jackson's support at the polls, where a still-unintegrated public—which would not support a Negro preacher—obviously endorsed the issues he discussed, a rare political practice these days. Dukakis' selection of a running mate who backs the MX missile and contra aid was a blatant political ploy solely to compete with their conservative counterparts for the success of Michael Dukakis at the expense of voters' real concerns.

Once again, America's choice for President is a matter only of who'll take us down the shitter farthest and fastest, men with no higher values than holding public office as a measure of personal gain, and no intention of addressing issues important to you—your freedoms, privacy, rights and protections. HUSTLER puts the stamp of the toilet on this two-rectum runoff, and hopes that you realize these assholes both are spouting the same shit, no matter which side of their mouths it comes from.

Blue Moon

Sure, anyone can get a car custom-painted, but the real class acts these days are into jeans that are spray-painted on. That's why Merle Scheib, a very distant relative of car-painting king Earl, is offering the Scheib Collection. "I'll paint any body any color for $59.95," claims Merle, and fashion-conscious bimbos everywhere are lining up for their designer cheeks.

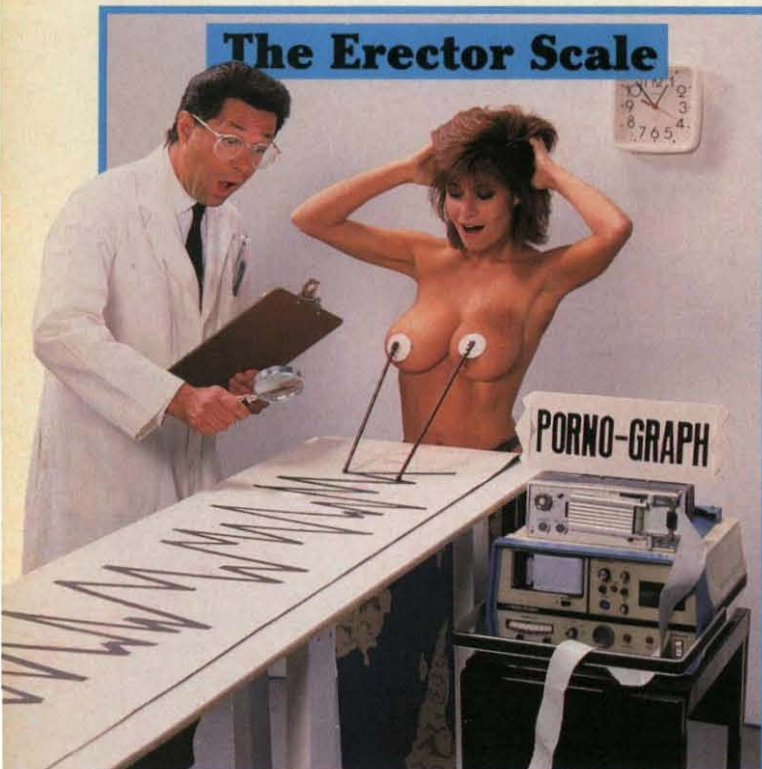

Psycho-Therapy

Ever since slasher films began splattering the big screen, many young women have been suffering from an irrational fear of being hacked to pieces by maniacs. The Norman Bates School of Psychiatry takes a unique approach to treating this phobia by forcing the patients to confront their deepest dreads head-on. "It doesn't always work," admits pioneering practitioner and devoted Hitchcock fan Ernest Loon (seen here working with a particularly difficult case). "But," he adds, "it's still a lot of fun."

The Erector Scale

Seismic researchers in Southern California have given up the study of earthquakes for the time being in order to examine some truly magnificent trem-blers. It's hard to find fault with work like this; even if it doesn't help in predicting the next quake, they're sure learning a lot about what makes the earth move.

Sacred Suds

Want to get tough stains out? Shroud 'em out! There's no better way to demonstrate the super cleaning power of new Shroud laundry detergent than on the most famous of soiled relics, the Shroud of Turin. Sister Mary Stigmata was suitably impressed: "If Shroud could get rid of 2,000-year-old grime like that, just think of the job it can do on our dirty habits."

Coke Bust

Kicks just keep getting harder to find; so jaded coke-heads keep looking for new ways to cop a thrill. Unfortunately, this willing female accom-plise turned out to be an undercover narc; so the only rocks our poor substance abuser will be chopping are the ones behind bars. And he didn't even get a taste of her crack.

Organ Grinder

That's the last time hubby will come home late and drunk to demand, "What the hell's for dinner?" Pureed prick isn't exactly the culinary equivalent of meat and potatoes, but a single course of tube steak can be stretched from soup to nuts. At least he can't complain about having meat loaf again.

Box Lunch

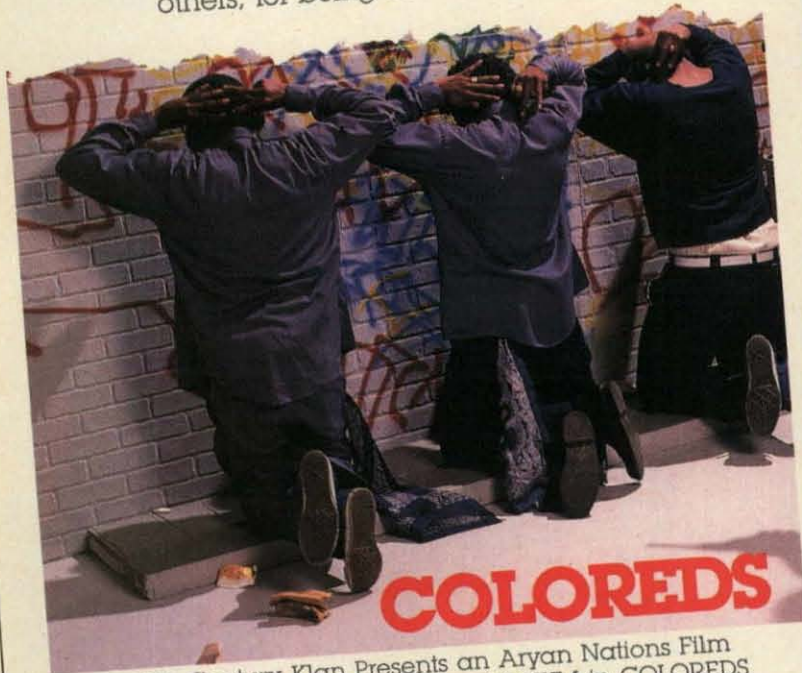

When a real man really works for a living, he needs more than sissy sushi or trimline taco to keep him up and at it. That's why plenty of hard-hatted hombres pack a well-rounded American meal for the job. There's nothing like a jolt of java and choices from the three major food groups—coozohydrates, poontein and fat labia—to get the blood pumping. An afternoon squack snack of buttered buns makes for a quick pickup you won't snicker about.

That Girl's No Hoe

The government of Rwanda thought the price of a bride—one cow per gal—was way too steep, so they reduced it to three hoes. Though this proved popular with open-minded young people, mothers were outraged at the measly compensation for their daughters' asses. As a result, establishment politicians are making a bid to bring back the heifer-for-hootch plan. With cows being more of a rare commodity in Rwanda, it seemed like it was time for a change, but as one angry parent put it, "Three hoes is devaluing a young girl."

Texas Boobs Big in Oil

The El Paso, Texas, city council had to amend measures against topless dancing recently, but not because local strippers didn't follow the letter of the law of a new obscenity ordinance. The new rule said only that they had to be covered, so the girls complied by rubbing petroleum jelly and oil all over their breasts. The language of the ordinance has since been changed to require "opaque" covering.

Striptease as Window Dressing

The art of the striptease is characterized by its slow, lingering garment-by-garment removal of clothing. But for 72 hours? That's how long it took ultra-exhibitionists Delane Balliot and Newcomb Munt to establish a new Guinness Book of World Records mark for stripping. Just to make sure that there were enough wit-

Kids Are Perverts Too!

Children are learning the wicked ways of the world quickly these days, judging by a couple incidents that occurred recently in the South. First, in Chattanooga, Tennessee, two ninth-graders have been accused of being involved in a money-for-sex deal. According to police, after the teacher temporarily left the class, a 16-year-old girl serviced a 16-year-old boy, then gave him a lesson in economics by charging the student $20. Unfortunately for the diddling duo, there were plenty of witnesses—like the rest of the class, for instance! As depraved as that might seem, it pales in comparison to the shenanigans of the kinky kids at Fisher Elementary School in Miami Beach, Florida. There, three fifth-graders allegedly engaged in several acts of sexual battery and rape against the other little boys during bathroom breaks between classes. Two of the little rascals, an 11- and a 12-year-old, are in custody, while the other, a 10-year-old, is in the care of his parents. The oldest of the group claims he gained his oral sex expertise from nighttime cable-TV viewing. If the unseemliness of this incident has failed to sink in, try to imagine Spanky giving Alfalfa a rimjob.

Poles Vault for Red Porn

While the United States government seeks to limit pornography, the restrictive authoritarian leadership in Poland produces porn for its citizens. The official news agency PAP reported a sellout of the first edition of the Communist party-owned Interpress publishing's Body-Sex-Pornography, a tome featuring full and partial nude photos of men and women plus articles on straight and deviant sex. This is the kind of meat even Yankees would stand in line for.

Sex on the Brain

If you have a huge one, you'll likely be more sexually active, according to a new study found in Science magazine. The learned men were indeed referring to an organ—the brain. Humans, dolphins and chimpanzees, the species with the largest and most complex brains, were found to be the most lustful of Earth's creatures. Scientists claimed their research uncovered the alarming promiscuity of dolphins, who are sexually active almost from birth—with both males and females. This is in spite of the fact that it takes many years for male dolphins to reach maturity. There really are a lot of fish in the sea. 🐟

FIRST BLOOD: PRIMITIVE RITES TO MODERN MYTHS

Fear and hypocrisy have repressed sexual awareness, leading to the ignorance that spreads disease and creates violence, in addition to hindering our natural enjoyment of sex. This series opens the door to current sexual knowledge and expression, and improved lovemaking.

AUSTRALIA: The Great Victoria Desert aborigines were excited. Under the cover of a thatched shelter a young girl having her first menstrual cycle was being prepared for initiation into womanhood. Long lines of red ochre and white clay were being painted on her body.

The nipples of her golden breasts flipped to erection when the dye-coated hands of the shaman ran across them. His fingers, precisely layering the paint, dropped to her pelvis and worked the white clay into her pubic hair. With experienced hands he drew the clitoris out and dabbed it with the substance.

Her beautification liturgy was followed by a pagan defloration. Using a penis-shaped piece of wood, the Wogaidy medicine man separated her twat lips, then forced the wooden prick deep into her womb.

by Bruce Evans

Maintaining her composure, she refused to cry out as red liquid oozed onto the ritualistic phallus.

The girl, now a woman, was bent over and taken by eight warriors. One at a time they mounted her, pounding with hard, stiff rods. The mass sex ritual completed, the girl had proven she was ready for a husband.

BRAZIL: The hut was built on poles, hidden in the Brazilian jungle far from her village. She was a Uaupe girl experiencing her first menstruation.

For the last 30 days she had been confined to the shack, her only source of nourishment bread and water. On the final day of her isolation, she shuddered upon hearing the footsteps of tribal members coming to enact the final phase of her "first blood."

Pulled naked from the shelter, she was forced, trembling, into a ring of people. At a nod from her parents, sticks were passed as a low drumbeat began. She was at first prodded like an animal; as the tempo increased, she was set upon with a succession of stinging whacks. The whacks quickly turned into vicious blows that would not stop until she fell either unconscious or dead. If she recovered, the flagellation would be repeated four times at six-hour intervals. Survival of the ordeal would indicate that she was a marriageable woman.

"First blood," virgin menstruation, "bleeding in the service of mankind," all apply to the above. Since the beginning of intelligent man, the male gender has been wary of the menstruating woman. In order to protect ourselves from the mystery, we developed rituals. These rites allowed us to rape, bury, mutilate and isolate the bleeding virgin.

I was stunned when I found that certain Australian tribes hung up new menstruators to be smoked like bacon and rubbed with possum fat. The Samoyeds of Siberia used a similar method, requiring their menstruators to walk across burning reindeer skin.

The Semitic tribes of the Middle East have what is known as a "guaranteed virgin." In order to provide a new husband with this merchandise, elaborate clitoridectomy (removal of the clitoris) ceremonies are carried out. Viewed as a male type of organ, the protruding clitoris is removed, placing the girl officially into her female status. After the clitoris is severed, an infibulation (the sewing up of the vaginal entrance) is performed to assure the delivery of a virginal bride.

"That's impossible! I've got him locked in my backyard, chained to a tree!"

Darkness, representing the gestation in the mother's womb, also plays an important part in pubescent rituals. Kolosh Indians of Alaska enclose their new menstruators for a year in a tiny hut with only a small air hole. During that time she is cut off from sunlight, fire, company and exercise. Australian tribes and Mohave Indians of North America bury their daughters to cut off sunlight.

The Arapesh of New Guinea developed a successful way to keep their menstruators from complaining about cramps. They forced them to sit on the side of a mountain in a leaky hut and rub their bodies with stinging nettles. According to Margaret Mead, these women have remarkable freedom from menstrual pain.

Ancient Persians used a method of silencing their new bloods that some American husbands, even today, might relish. It was taboo for a Persian woman to bleed more than four days. If this occurred, she was given 100 lashes and isolated for five days. If at the end of that time she hadn't driven the evil from her body, she was whipped 500 more times. Usually the second beating cured the problem.

Archaic Hebrews found a unique use for their virgin menstruators as an insecticide. Before harvest, menstruating women walked naked through the fields. The odor and power of their menses was reputed to drop vermin dead in their tracks. The Hebrews' counterparts, the Arabs, tied menstrual rags around the necks of their children to ward off the "evil eye."

Virgin blood was credited with incredible powers. It could abort fruit trees, turn wine sour, send dogs mad and rust metal. It was used to caulk ships, as a medicine base and in cooking certain dishes for one's lover. The latter still persists in present-day voodoo rituals; cooking of menstrual blood in a man's food is believed to make him impotent with other women.

I was amused by these myths, but amazed by our own myths and how our so-called educated people have viewed "first blood." The churches, scientists and media have, throughout the 20th century, stuck their bigoted noses into virginal blood only to come up red-faced. Isser Yehuda Unterman, chief rabbi of Israel, threatened couples with damnation if they copulated during a virgin, or any, menstruation. Orthodox Jews carried this to such extremes that a young girl was actually sent to bed (to prevent intercourse) with a newly married couple if the bride was menstruating. Catholics are no better, flatly stating that intercourse with a menstruator is a sin. Both Catholics and Protestants originally denied the use of tampons to young girls. Their virginity was to be saved for future husbands, not plastic inserts.

Educators and scientists were just as backward when it came to youthful menses. American scientists Oliver Latkings Smith and George Van Smith shocked our society by proclaiming they discovered Mentoxian—a deadly substance—in young menstrual blood. Supposedly, when it was injected into rats, they croaked. This was later proven to be horseshit.

A well-known teacher and theorist, Helen Deutsch, believed the first menstruation signified a child's punishment for playing with her clitoris. Augustus Kinsely Gardner, author of Conjugal Sins, saw menstrual blood as corrupt and virulent, threatening an unwitting penis with excoriation and gonorrhea. Another educator, Edward F. Clarke, M.D., author of Sex in Education, warned our society that studying forced the brain to use up blood and energy needed to get the menstrual process functioning properly. Allowing the young women to study would thus result in the weakening of the woman and, consequently, the weakening of generations of Americans.

The publication The Voice of Experience warned young women they would suffer an early menopause if they wore high heels, played tennis, swam or bathed during menstruation.

Amidst the mounting confusion one organization tried to shed some light on the problem. The good old Girl Scouts introduced a program to make it mandatory for all members to talk to their mothers or grandmothers about menstruation. But, as one of the mothers that helped defeat the program said, "Being a Girl Scout means baking cookies for little old ladies at Christmas," not being introduced to sex.

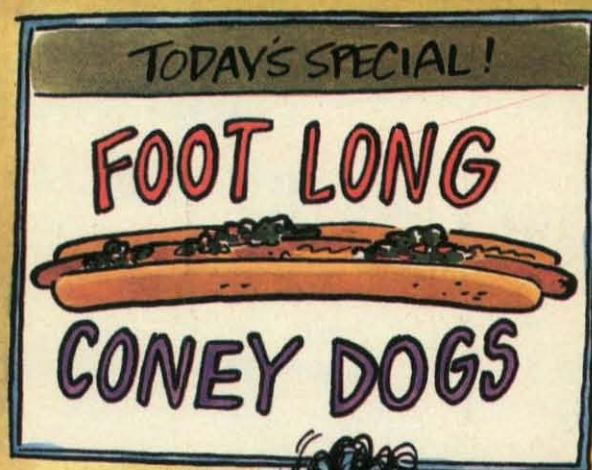

The National Association of Broadcasters refused to run programs or ads relating to menstruation. Finally, in 1972, the taboo was lifted, and the industry giants hit America with a media blitz that hasn't stopped. Today new items are being pushed out of labs, onto the market and between legs as fast as possible.

The newest gadget out is the "Sixty-Second Menstruation," or the Extractor. The device, which is inserted in the uterus and connected to a syringe and a collection bottle, zaps four days' worth of juice out in several minutes. A mother-and-daughter team, Lolly and Jeanne Hirsch, appear before women's groups and physically demonstrate proper suction methods on members of the audience.

With the outbreak of AIDS, the American way of presenting menstruation has improved. Many educators find it easier to explain both at once. Hopefully, the data on AIDS is more accurate than the menstrual myths that have plagued our society. As one educator put it, "A woman must, in order to accept her feminine position, accept the fact that she's a castrated male and shall bleed in the service of mankind."

ADULT VIDEO AN X-RATED GOLDMINE

REPORT BY CHRISTIAN SHAPIRO

The girl next door, the housewife down the lane, cheesy tramps from a biker bar—ass-jammed, fist-fucked, faces full of piss, homemade hard-core bares them all.

AMATEUR ADULT VIDEO

They look like the gang that hangs out at the corner filling station, except they're all bare-ass and boning.

Poised on all fours like a setter at point, the lean blonde crouches naked on the bed, sniffing the gamy muff offered up by a stockier brunette.

"Cheat it a little to the left," whispers the brunette between gasps of delight. The cameraman pans in around her spread thighs, moving back to catch the blonde's dipping buttocks. He zooms back in tight for a view of quivering, extended pink tongue flitting over quivering, distended pink clit. He holds the close-up action, then retreats. The viewfinder fills with the complete bodies of both girls as they regard one another with a selection of toys—vibrators, vegetables, kitchen implements.

The cameraman loosens his trousers to give a little breathing room to one of the most insistent hard-ons of his life.

"I don't know if I'm going to be able to keep it together through the rest of this tape," he sighs, but his performers don't hear him. They are conscious of little else but the line of view as the camera comes in for another gynecological shot. Orgasms rack their bodies, orgasms that any pornography expert will testify are always bogus on videotape.

The girls, too naive to know that they should be faking it, heave and pitch, moaning and grinding feverishly, stopping only after the tape has long run out.

"Oh, my God," exclaims the blonde, jumping out of bed. "Look at the time. I've got to pick up the kids at the babysitter. Honey," she purrs to the cameraman as she pulls on her clothes, "be a doll and take out the trash while I'm gone, will ya?"

"You've sure got a neat husband," says her brunet girlfriend as the two ladies head out the door for the baby-sitter's.

Back inside, the cinematographer husband hunkers in front of the monitor, playing back the brunette's plush buns squatting onto his wife's face. He's pleased. This tape will bring at least $200. More importantly, it provides the only release his raging cock can expect in the immediate future.

The video camera is the biggest thing to hit recreational sex since Polaroids. Instant photos were a great leveler, bringing pinup status within reach of anyone who could afford a pack of film and knew enough to get naked. In the mid-'70s, skin magazines across the nation, emboldened by the success of HUSTLER's Beaver Hunt, began printing splayed-snatch snapshots taken by their readers. Not every lewdly photogenic lady could become a HUSTLER Honey Centerfold, but her fantasy might come true a few pages later, with her hot goods displayed to a circulation of three million Beaver Hunters.

The advent of the camcorder and other simple-to-use, realistically priced home-entertainment video cameras has heralded an even greater degree of democracy in erotica. Now anyone can be a porn star. All it takes is unbridled libido, someone to focus the shot, and the desire to cash a check.

Recent classified columns from Video magazine list amateur sex tapes for sale from California, Wisconsin, Washington, Florida, Indiana, Rhode Island and Ohio. Gary Mancuso of Video Xcitement!, an adult-video swapper tabloid out of Fraser, Michigan, that has extensive listings for homemade bedroom tapes, claims 5,000 readers. "We've accumulated about 1,500 adult-amateur advertisers over the past few years," says Mancuso. "Most are middlemen who buy the stuff, then go ahead and sell it."

One such middleman, San Diego, California's Homegrown Video, has gone, in its seven years of existence, from operating out of a spare bedroom to filling an entire warehouse. "As far as mailing lists go and the amount of income every day, it's grown about five times in size over the past two years," boasts Homegrown's office manager, Deina, who also appears in a series of the company's raunch.

Harry Benson of A&B Video, a do-it-yourself porn outfit based in Orlando, Florida, expects more than $300,000 in revenues during 1988.

Business is booming for this carnal cottage industry that began as a means for swingers to exchange intimate moments with one another while staying home.

Gagging and coughing, the girl gives panicked, slobbering head.

But something's wrong. The girl pops penis from her mouth and clears her throat. "The script is sucking three guys." Nude, with her hands bound behind her Homegrown's Deina defines amateur video as, "Real people having fun sexually. It's candid shooting of people themselves." Homegrown looks for authentic action in a tape; they want no acting at all. Their basic idea is for people to enjoy themselves and have somebody shoot it.

Jay Lyons of Confidential Video Communications (CVC) in Providence, Rhode Island, concurs. "People don't want a storyline, just real fucking." Lyons refuses to give his contributors guidelines, fearing that if he tells them what to do, the finished product may lose that special amateur allure.

Though anxious to retain the nonpro patina, A&B Video's Benson—who produces all his own tapes—takes a contrary approach. "We try to throw in a little bit extra, a little story. People come back; they really enjoy it." Benson claims the capacity to get as slick as anyone, but he realizes that his work's appeal is a feeling of peeking in on the neighbors as they unabashedly, warts and all, make whoopee. To preserve spontaneity, his productions have no script, all dialogue coming extemporaneously from his performers, and he in most cases avoids "using fabulously good-looking women."

All onscreen eroticians, male and female, are professional in that they are financially compensated. CVC pays an average of $3 per minute of edited tape. Homegrown offers three purchase options: They'll either buy a tape outright for distribution, deal it on consignment with a royalty plan or trade existing tapes for it. Neither CVC nor Homegrown hire people to have sex in front of a camera, trafficking only in finished items.

Hands-on practitioners, who shoot, edit and market their own prurient product, give girls the chance to make as much money as a "real" porn starlet. A tart tearing through her motions for Dayton, Ohio-based Den Video will see $100 to make the tape and an additional five bucks for every one sold. Some of Den's doxies have cleared more than $1,000 on commissions alone. A&B's girls, from a talent pool entirely made up of swingers, are paid $100 an hour to appear in a video.

Den's stars are "just girls that hang around," according to owner/operator Denny. "A couple of them are housewives." He can't legally advertise for models in Dayton, but meets many through friends and girlfriends and friends of friends. "They tell each other. They've always had this fantasy. It's like Beaver Hunt in HUSTLER Magazine. They've always wanted to be in HUSTLER Magazine."

"These models they're using," summarizes Video Xcitement!'s Mancuso, "they're not too bad-looking."

The camera pans from a large jar of Abolene up to a sultry, stripping, taut-skinned Hispanic temptress. She turns her nether cheeks to the lens and squirts baby oil onto her perfect, pricktensing posterior, rubbing the slippery fluid into her butt cleavage. The camera knows just where to shoot as she pulls her A-hole wide and slides a finger in. Suddenly a huge, fake wang snakes down her crack and disappears, slithering up her ass. She grabs another big dildo and DP's herself, following that with four fingers flexing in her bungler.

As an inflammatory disco beat blares all around her, she shoves a succession of increasingly unlikely implements along her well-traveled back road. Braces gleam on her teeth, and a Saint Christopher medallion glints on her chest. Not one moan of complaint escapes her lips as she does a rectal squat on a butt plug propped on the bed.

"Now you see it; now you don't," she coos, standing to writhe rhythmically, holding the plug in with sphincters alone. An Energizer Halogen flashlight slips handle first up her dark hole, casting its beam out at the viewers in videoland. "With my light I can see you. Where are you? I'm looking for you."

For a finale she crams half a foot of the huge Rambone dong up her crapper. "So far, so good," she purrs, pooper plugged.

She loves to pinch and twist her nipples, then bring the tender areolas to her mouth for a good long suck. The sun-drenched self-service continues as she pries her flaps open to make way for long, probing digits that rub and stretch her oily slit, giving her relief from the demands of her throbbing clit. Maybe someday she'll share, but for now other treasure hunters will just have to watch.

There's a doggy-style fister. Sometimes this looks like stuffing a turkey; usually it looks like exactly what it is.

Gina is a 21-year-old Puerto Rican native living in Ohio. She works at a video store owned by a friend of Den's. One day, after six months of leading up to it, Denny offered her a part in a custom video. Someone wanted a tape of a girl wearing lingerie and ironing. Den felt that Gina was the girl for the job.

"I was going through a little financial trouble," remembers Gina. "I thought, Well, let me try this. I didn't have to take my clothes off or anything. But I did. They didn't have to tell me to. I thought, This is fun." Since then Gina's done a handful of custom videos, appears in a shave tape and stars in two showcase sex-travanzas.

Angel is another three-hole wonder on the Den roster. Her specialty is fisting and being fisted. A December '87 Beaver Hunt model, she broke into the amateur big time by buying one of Den's tapes, then sending him one of herself shot by her husband. She and her husband periodically travel to Ohio, where Den commits her ravenous carnality to tape. So far Angel's fisted herself, worked with one and two other girls, been involved in a double fisting and displayed expertise, both alone and in tandem, in the use of various latex probes. She, as a general rule, has onscreen orgasms, and looks forward to being the receiving end of an anal fisting, a gang-bang and a "quote-unquote rape."

Deina and her husband were having hard times in Texas when they responded to a Homegrown ad. Their first tape accepted by Homegrown "sold like hotcakes." Since then Deina's done screaming anal (Volume 94) and solo girl (Volume 82), in which she invaginates toys, bottles and a corn on the cob.

"There's nothing better than a job that you can make money at and enjoy it at the same time," opines Deina.

"The money's nice," Angel concedes, "but it's a turn-on too."

"If I was only doing it for the money, it wouldn't be worth it," echoes Gina.

A woman smears lubricant on her fingers, on her palm and up past her wrist. She slides two fingers, then three, into an open, waiting pussy. A fourth finger squeezes into the slit, wedging, turning and twisting. All five digits dig into the cunt, followed by the heel of the hand. The pussy closes on the wrist bone. It's like watching the reverse birthing of a calf. The fister leans forward, putting tongue to clitoris. She draws back, pulling her hand out, inserting it deeper, pulling it out again. She lies back and trades positions, taking a fist of her own. A double fister is attempted, but only nine fingers gain entrance. There's a doggy-style fister. Sometimes this looks like stuffing a turkey; usually it looks like exactly what it is.

The typical producer of mass-market smut looks at only one bottom line: how to reap the greatest financial return on the smallest monetary investment. In diametric opposition, the freelance fraternity's main concern is improved fornication.

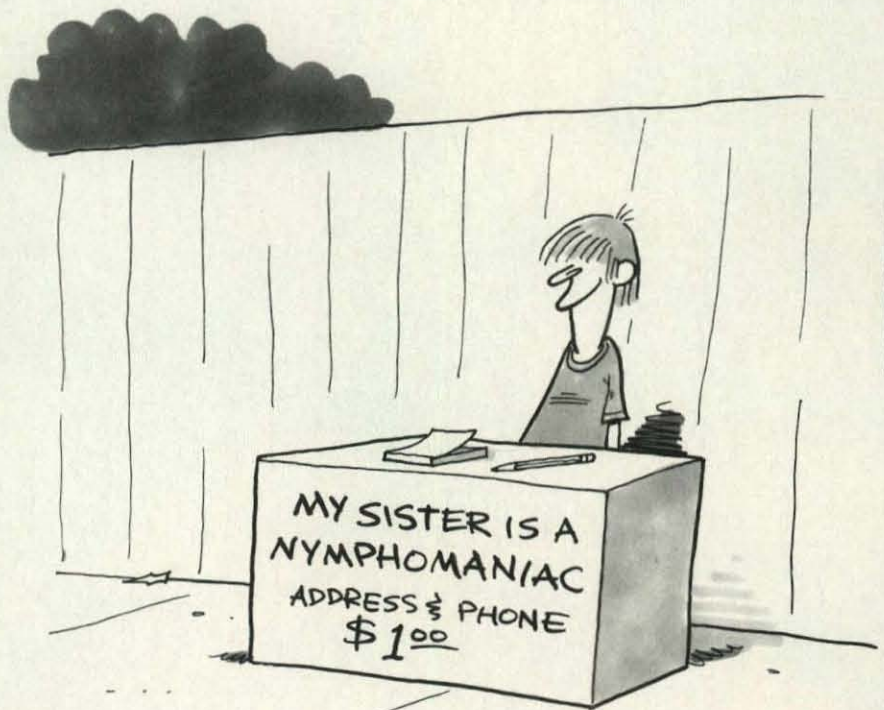

Homegrown, Den, A&B, all entered the amateur arena vowing to up the standard. Homegrown, the biggest little video company in existence, started more than seven years ago with the owner buying an offering from Susan's Video. His reaction was that he could do better. He got some couples together and shot his first few tapes, then turned to collecting videos, buying them to sell. Working full time as a printer, he put together Homegrown's catalogs and fliers in his spare moments, and the business was formed.

Benson of A&B began by selling commercial videos. He picked up a few amateur tapes, looked at the quality and just didn't like what he saw. At present he has invested approximately $90,000 in equipment to produce VCR entertainment that he can enjoy looking at. He plans to move into using a Super VHS deck soon, which will cost at least 20,000 additional dollars for editing equipment alone.

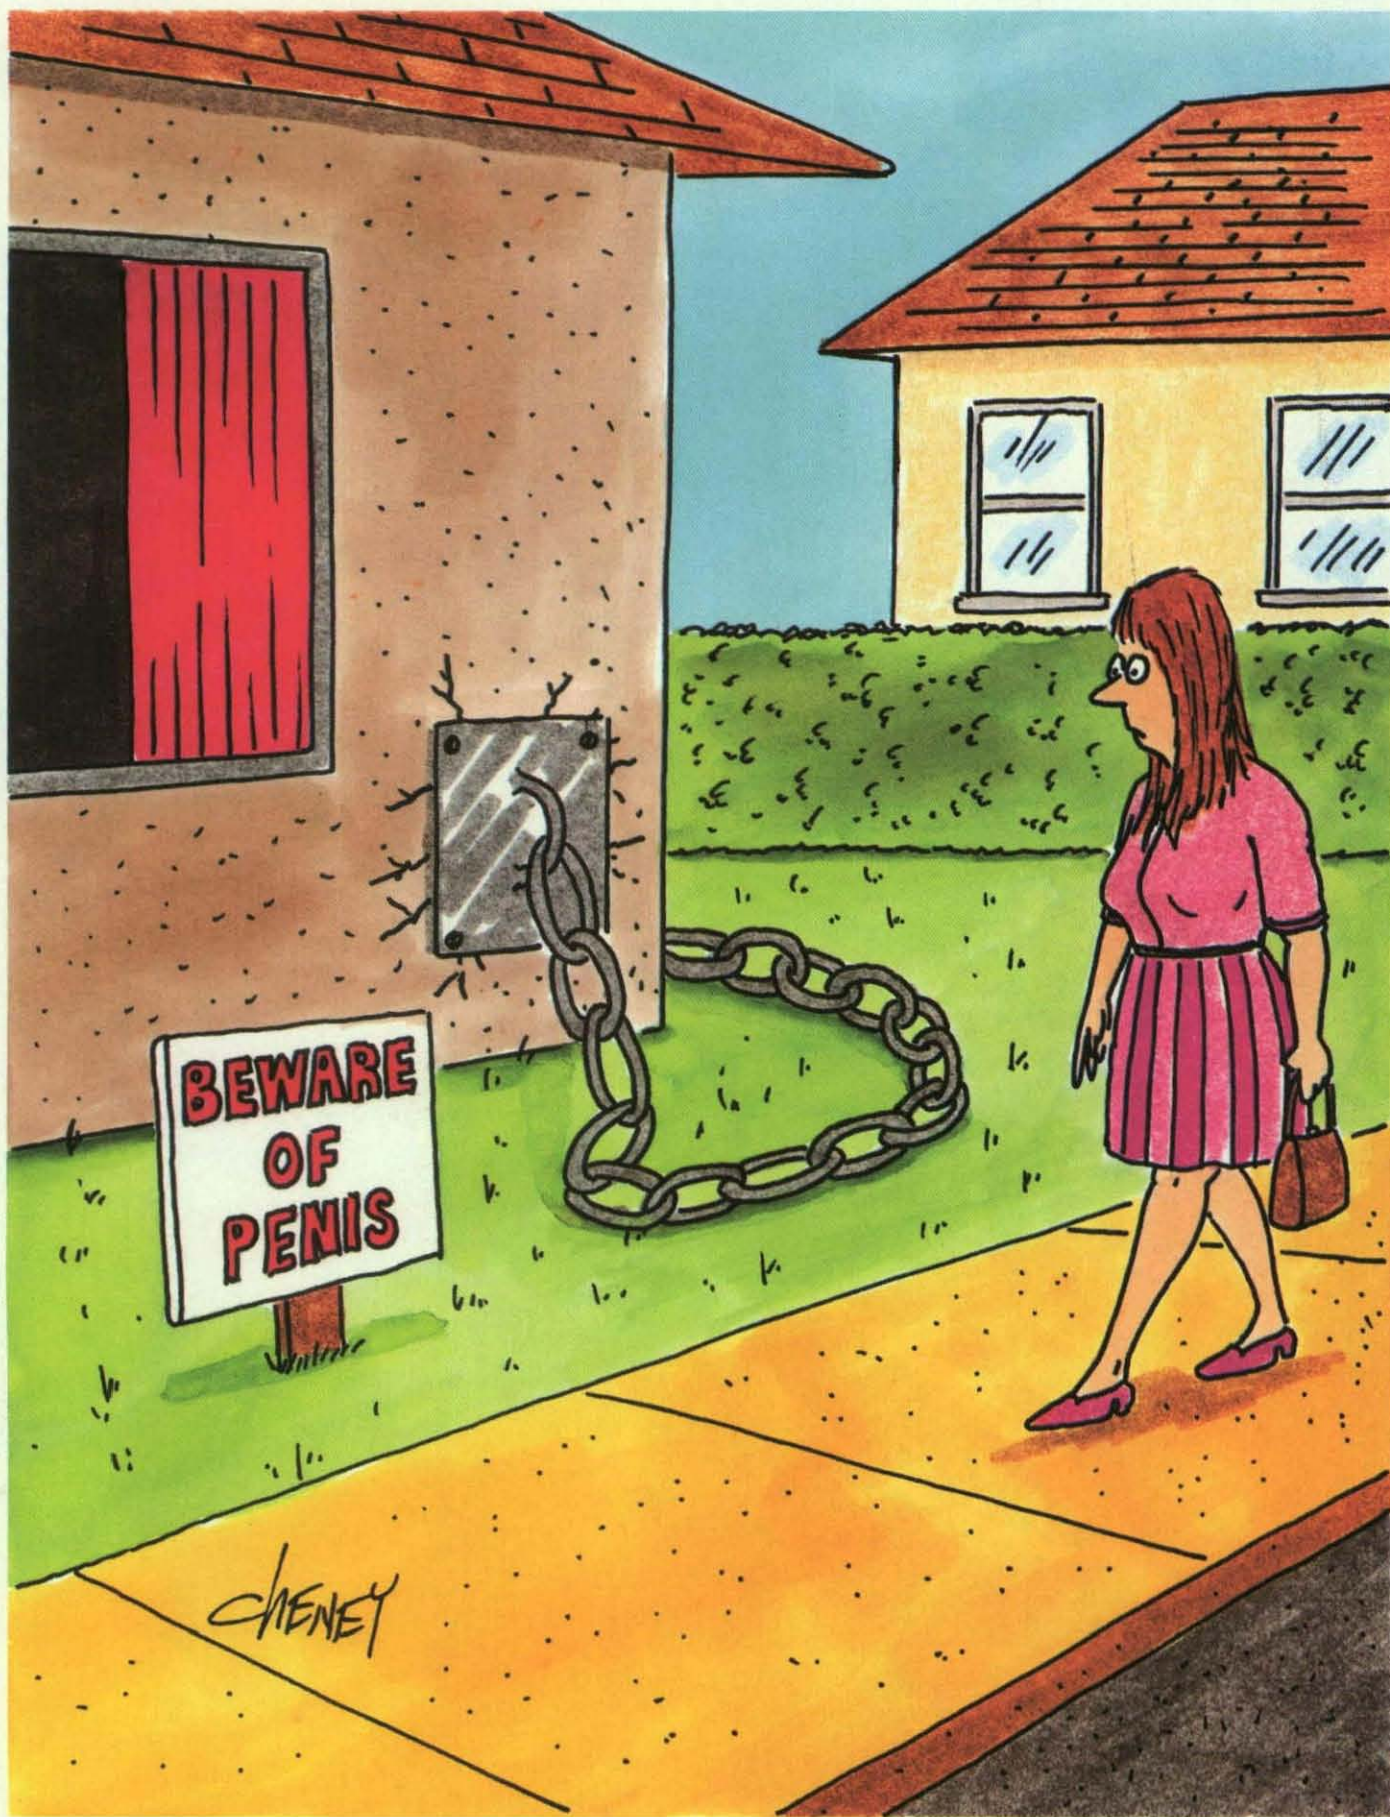

Jun Kanda, spokesman for Yoko's Far East Video of New York City, also plans to reinvest revenues into Super VHS technology. Many of Yoko's tapes are shot in exotic Oriental locales, vibrant locations that cry out for the picture quality of S. "Even once it's been transferred to VHS," asserts Kanda, "something shot on S is a big improvement."

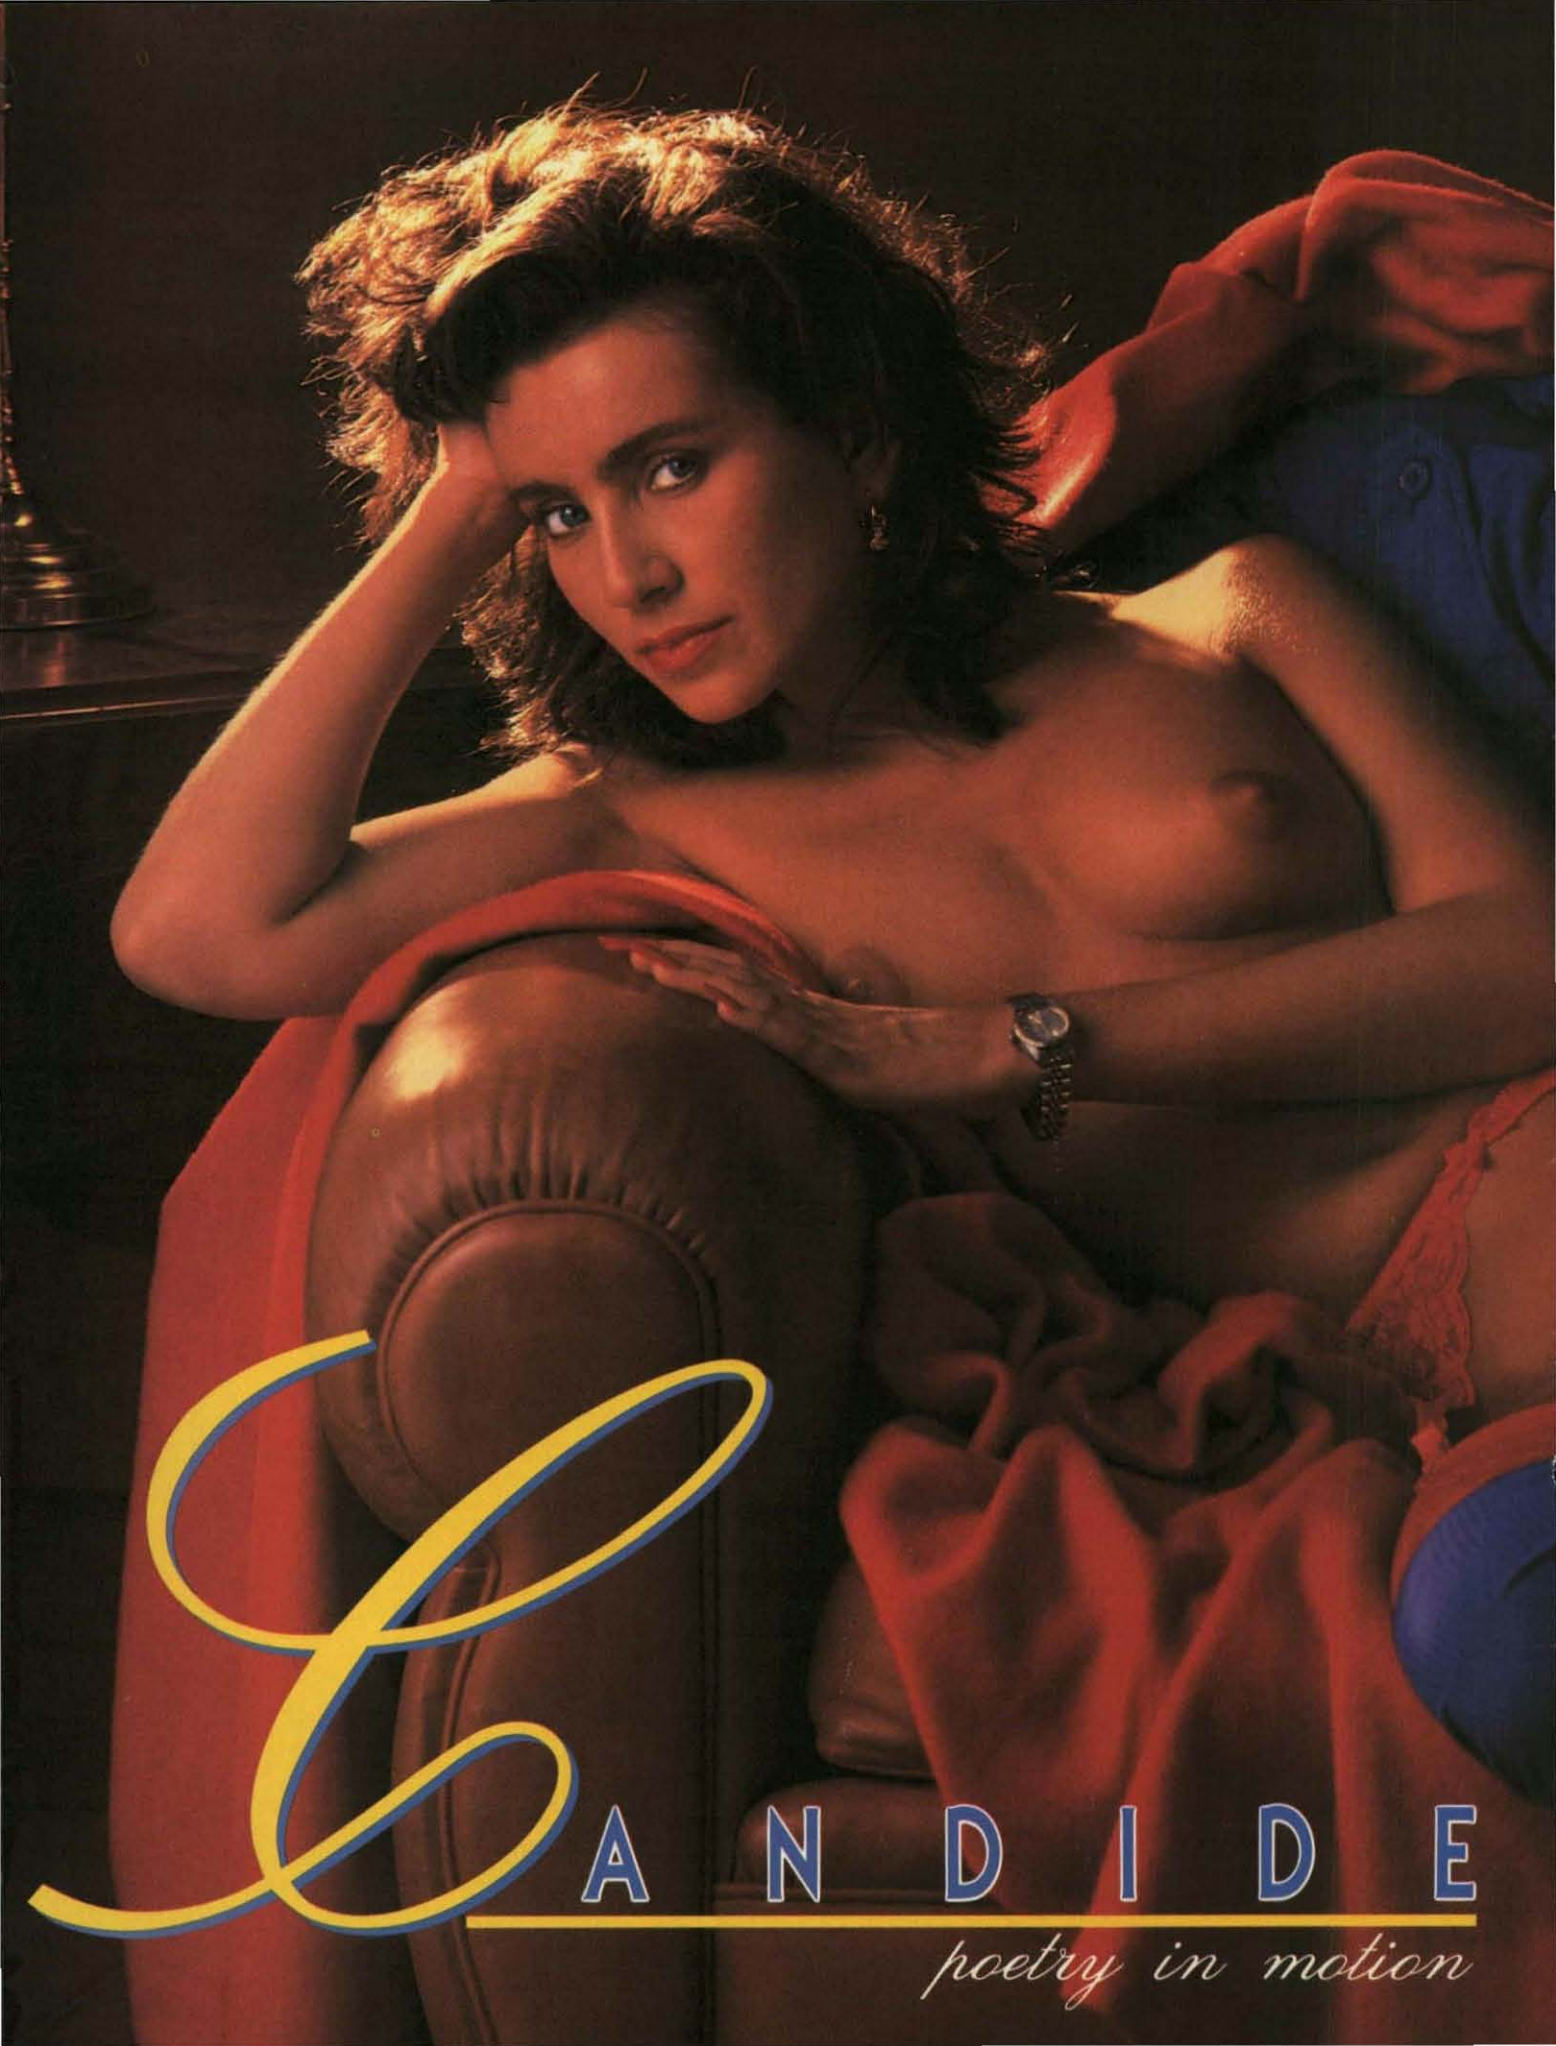

By far the highest quality of any tapes reviewed are those from Den Video. With a personal collection of more than 1,000 cassettes, 300 of them amateur, Den has been hounding sex tapes for a decade. It took years, but Leonard finally coaxed his prudish wife, Wanda, into going to watch a porn movie. The film was called Black Dudes in Heat, and after two hours Leonard led a stunned Wanda out of the theater and into their car.

"Yes, yes, I want some cock!!"

Leonard ripped open his fly and yanked down his shorts.

"There it is, baby. Go for it!"

"Leonard," Wanda said calmly, "I didn't say I wanted some wee-wee; I said I wanted some cock!"

Question: What do you get when you cross Ronald Reagan with James Dean?

Answer: A rebel without a clue.

A young boy and a man were ice fishing side by side one cold winter day. After watching the boy catch fish all morning long, the man asked him his secret. The boy mumbled a reply that the man couldn't understand, and when he asked again, he got the same garbled response.

The third time the man asked, the boy spat out the contents of his mouth and said, "You gotta keep the worms warm."

The HUSTLER Dictionary defines a gold digger as: a tart without a heart.

Two black men were walking by a synagogue on Jewish New Year's Day. From inside came the wail of a shofar, the ram's horn, sounded on that holiday.

"What dat be, Leroy?" said one of the men.

"Oh, dat's be Jewish folk blowin' de shofar," his buddy replied. The first man turned to his friend and said, "Man, oh, man, dem Jews sho' know how to treat dere help!"

Two tribesmen, depressed over recent laws forbidding the practice of cannibalism, were strolling through the jungle when they came upon an abandoned archaeological dig. One noticed a stack of porno mags left behind by the departed scientists and began stuffing pages into his mouth.

"What are you doing?" his astonished friend asked.

"Try it," he urged, handing over the centerfold.

"This dehydrated stuff is pretty good."

A woman went to a clinic for artificial insemination. When she got there, she was shocked to see the staff physician walking around without his pants on.

"Doctor, what's the meaning of this outrage?" she asked.

"I'm sorry, madam," he answered curtly, "but we're fresh out of the bottled stuff today. You'll have to settle for fresh-squeezed."

Question: What's black and crispy and hangs off the ceiling?

Answer: A Polish electrician.

As a horny pair of teenagers were driving down the highway, they couldn't keep their hands off one another. The young man, very aroused, said, "Let's pull over and do it by the side of the road."

"But people driving by will be able to see into the car," his girlfriend protested.

The boy pulled over on an incline off the highway. "Look, we'll get underneath the car, and I'll leave my feet sticking out. If anyone comes by, I'll tell them I'm fixing the muffler."

Reluctantly, the girl agreed; so they wriggled underneath the car and started to make love. All of a sudden the young man felt someone kicking his foot.

"And just what do you think you're doing?" a policeman asked.

"Fixing my muffler," the boy replied.

"Well, you should have fixed your brakes first. Your car just rolled down the hill."

A viewing room adjoining an execution chamber was full of people, all there to watch a murderer led to the chair. The executioner attached wires to the killer's head, chest and arms. In order to wire his legs, the executioner then cut the criminal's pants off at the knees, exposing the head of his cock. At this, the crowd of onlookers began laughing hysterically. The condemned man looked up with tears in his eyes and yelled, "That's right! Laugh, you bastards, but if you were as scared as me, yours would shrink too!"

MODERN-DAY GRAVE ROBBERS

In the seller's market of used body parts, greedy ghouls are haggling over your dead meat.

by Larry Wichman

by Peter Rodhevin

MODERN-DAY GRAVE ROBBERS

The crematory provided a limitless supply of body parts, plus the perfect means of disposing with the evidence.

It seems that almost every day medical research comes up with a new way to recycle used body parts. Organ, bone and skin transplants have become so commonplace that, at present, the demand for human tissue far exceeds the supply. Organ-transplant banks have become big business, and an immense human-tissue "industry" has sprung up that, in its zeal to exploit the dead, puts the grisly 19th-century practice of grave robbing to shame.

●In California, an unscrupulous funeral-home director reportedly forges signatures on organ-donor-consent forms and peddles $30,000 worth of hearts, brains and lungs to a North Carolina biomedical-supply firm.

●In West Germany, a surgeon places two virtually brain-dead newborns on respirators in an attempt to keep their kidneys from degenerating before the tissue can be harvested for transplant.

According to the American Council on Transplantation, of the estimated 25,000 organ donors who die in the United States each year, fewer than 6,000 have tissues suitable for implantation. However, nationally there are 86,000 patients on dialysis who could benefit from a kidney transplant, and 14,000 more could use a new heart.

Biomedical researchers are no less desperate for human organs, and it's here that the unethical tissue merchants prefer to operate. Organs sold to research labs are cheaper to harvest, since they don't need to be sterilized or screened for infectious diseases. They can also be stored for lengthy periods and shipped in bulk. Most importantly, biomedical research is the least regulated part of the "previously owned tissue" industry.

With transplants, tremendous care is given to assure donor consent and to interview the next of kin about the dead individual's personal health history (a means of screening out potential AIDS carriers or cancer victims, etc.). However, few research labs ever ask to see consent forms; they're not required by law.

In the U.S., posthumous organ donation is legislated by the individual states, over 90% of whom have adopted the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act. Under the UAGA, it's up to the tissue banks, hospitals and mortuaries to verify the deceased's wishes to be a donor or to receive "informed consent" from the next of kin to remove his or her organs.

While the laws are specific, they're not always well enforced. In California, for example, the Department of Health lacks the funding to properly monitor organ-transplant donations, and they have absolutely no jurisdiction over human tissue used for medical research. Researchers and suppliers are left with what amounts to an honor system—and it hasn't always worked.

Mortuary Chop Shops

Recently, at the Lamb Funeral Home in Pasadena, California, 32-year-old David Sconce rewrote the book on grave robbing. In 1987, David and his parents, Laurieanne Lamb Sconce and Jerry Sconce, were charged with 68 criminal counts—including unlawful removal of body parts, mutilation of corpses, solicitation of murder and stealing gold from the teeth of cadavers.

The Sconce family exploited the dead through a network of interrelated businesses. First, there was the Lamb Funeral Home, a highly respected establishment that had been handed down through four generations. Here organs were allegedly removed from corpses without family consent while souvenir snapshots documenting the procedures were taken and later tacked up on the company bulletin board.

There was also Coastal International Eye and Tissue Bank, of which David Sconce was president/owner. This "non-profit" organization, through which prosecutors contend Sconce fenced the tissue he illegally procured at Lamb, reportedly earned Sconce and his investors hundreds of thousands of dollars during its seven-month operation in 1986.

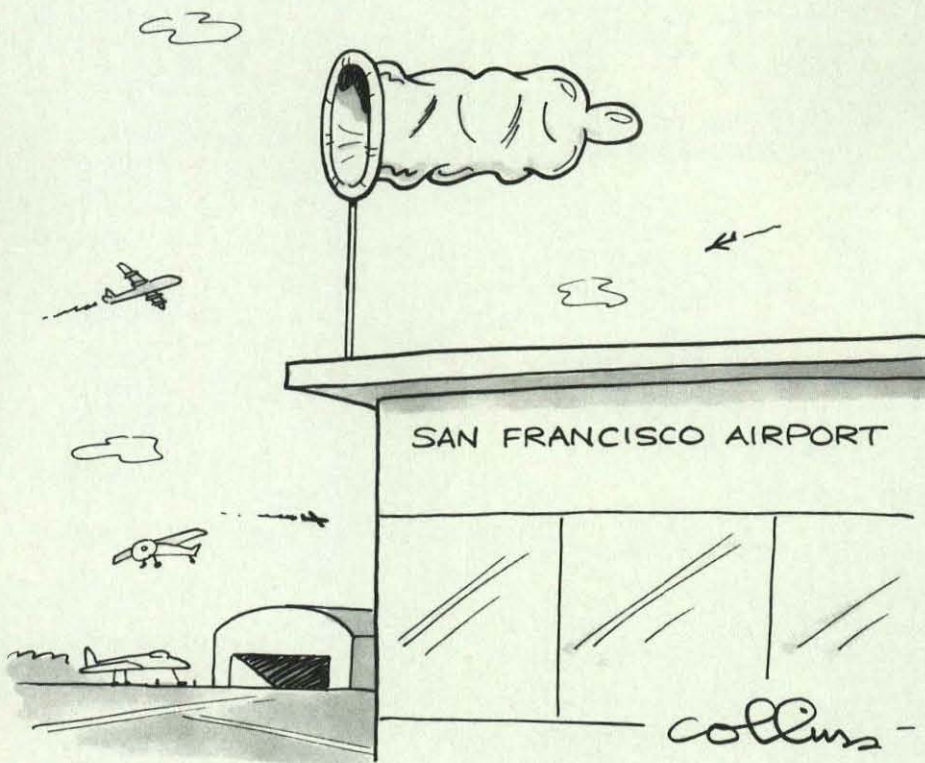

Finally, there was Pasadena Crematorium, another extremely lucrative enterprise. The crematory contracted with more than 100 funeral homes in Southern California and performed an estimated 16,000 cremations during '85 and '86—far more than any other facility in the state. Illegal activities allegedly included cremating ten to 15 corpses at a time, commingling ashes and stealing up to four ounces of dental gold each week from dead bodies.

The crematory gave Sconce access to a limitless supply of body parts, while providing the perfect means of disposing with the evidence. But for his greed, Sconce might never have been caught.

Sconce allegedly began his illegal activities as early as 1980, going relatively unnoticed for six years. In 1985 the crematory's year-end figures caught the atten-

ELENA & CARMEN

In the Latin Tongue

Photography by James Baes

You hadn't been interested when told that a couple of Latin teachers from Mexico City would be at the adjoining vacation villa. Probably spinsters, you thought, until a gale of giggles from the patio Jacuzzi got you stirring enough to peer through the greenery on the scene just below you. The young instructresses had already browned buns and boobs in the equatorial sun. You knew their smiles must be matched by equally delighted lower lips riding the tub's jets, and as you watched Elena fix Carmen's hair, you could almost feel the heat that passed between them. They obviously did, passing the heat back and forth, lips and tongues on lips and tits until they both made noises older than language itself. You've learned your lesson about making assumptions; maybe it's not too late to go back to school. Why don't you see if Elena and Carmen like the way your lips form the word cunnilingus?

tion of the California Cemetery Board.

"It takes from two to eight hours to cremate one body," explains Cemetery Board investigator John Gill, noting that Pasadena's numbers were much too high for a facility with only two retorts (cremation furnaces). "We'd also heard complaints that they were performing multiple cremations," he adds. "But before we could gain access to the facility, it burned down."

Soon after the November 1986 fire, David Sconce quietly moved his operation to the small desert community of Hesperia, California. He had initially wanted to relocate in Bakersfield, but had been denied a permit because of public opposition. In Hesperia he set up shop under the guise of a ceramics plant, using the name Oscar Ceramics.

In less than 3½ months Oscar's received 180 citations for violating air-pollution control standards. Neighbors complained about putrid odors and thick smoke and flames that leapt high above the factory's chimney.

Sconce responded by telling authorities that his company was producing thermal plates for a space station. However, one nearby resident, a survivor of Auschwitz, recognized the odor for what it was—the smell of burning flesh.

When Hesperia Fire District officials finally entered the facility in early 1987, they reported partially burned bodies "stacked like cordwood" in the crematory's two retorts—retorts that John Gill claims had been specifically designed to facilitate multiple cremations.

"It's obvious that Sconce had no intention of operating within the law," says Gill. "Retorts that size just aren't available from conventional manufacturers."

According to Jim Dame, a young man who worked for the Sconce family from 1983 to 1986—and who quit shortly after the cremation of his father—multiple cremations and the commingling of ashes were everyday occurrences at the crematory. "I [often] saw them put six to 12 bodies in each retort," he claims, adding that afterward the incinerated remains would be stored in large trash cans and then taken to the Lamb Funeral Home for separation. "We would scoop the ashes out and divide them up into separate urns," he says. "There was no way of knowing [whose ashes were whose]. It just didn't matter."

Dame worked primarily as a crematory "sifter," pulverizing the post-incineration bones and then sifting them back in with the ashes. However, it was also his job to help David Sconce remove gold crowns and gold bridgework from the cadavers' mouths—a procedure they called "popping chops."

Dame says he would draw smiley faces on the cardboard boxes containing bodies with gold teeth. Then he and his boss would go through them. "I'd [point] the flashlight into the person's mouth while [David] reached in with a pair of pliers [and] pulled the gold crown or the gold filling out," he explains. The gold was then reportedly placed in Styrofoam cups that were collected at the end of each day.

It's been estimated that $6,000 worth of dental gold a month was removed at the crematorium. In one instance, Deputy DA Walter Lewis, who's prosecuting the case, claims that a cadaver's jaw was actually "broken with a crowbar" in order to get at the gold.

Sconce isn't the only mortician to get caught pilfering gold bridgework or commingling ashes. Yet, such despicable practices pale in comparison to the alleged organ-theft operation the Sconce family engineered.

The tissue bank made it all possible. Coastal International appeared for all the world to be legitimate. It boasted a prestigious nine-member medical advisory board headed by Beverly Hills ophthalmologist Dr. Simon Pinhas. It provided honored institutions like UCLA with organs for research and human tissue for transplant. Yet, according to prosecutors, Sconce was only in it for the money.

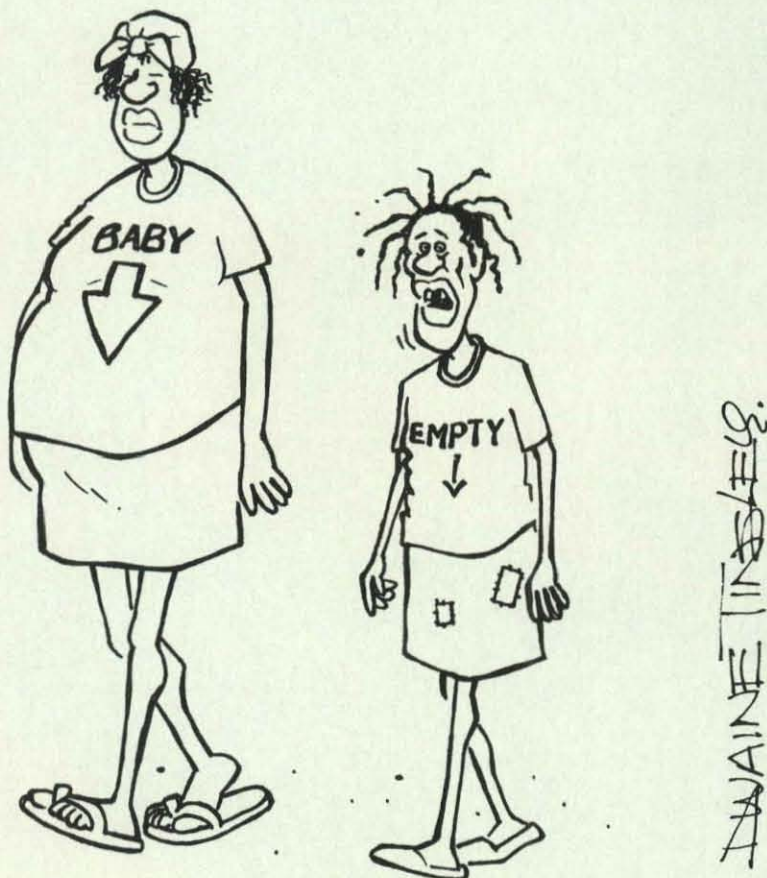

Transplantable corneas allegedly brought in $8,000 apiece. Tissue was sold overseas to firms in Hong Kong and to biomedical-research supply houses in the States. In one case alone, a North Carolina firm paid Coastal $30,000 for the hearts, brains and lungs from 144 people—a mere fraction of the 1,000 brains, 500-plus hearts and other assorted organs they hoped to purchase from Coastal.

To meet the huge demand for tissue, Sconce allegedly conned his clients into signing away their loved one's organs. Lamb funeral-home employees would get the next of kin to sign a consent form that had "Authority to Cremate" written in large letters across the top. However, buried in the small print was a clause that gave Sconce authority to remove everything from the deceased's gold fillings to his brain.

The copy authorized the crematory "to remove tissue, to remove pacemakers."

ENLARGE YOUR PENIS TO IT'S MAXIMUM! Have Erect Measurements of 9, 10 Even 12 Full Inches!

The TITAN is the only PENIS DEVELOPER you will ever need!

Is the size of your penis bringing you down? Sure, the medical authorities say the size doesn't count, but as long as women have a need to be filled, they will demand the full measure of devotion. And no amount of psychological reassurance will fill the gap between expectation and reality.

Now, with a simple device you can follow in the footsteps of thousands of men who have proven that there is a way to INCREASE PENIS SIZE and THICKNESS! The device is called the TITAN ELECTRIC VACUUM ENLARGER. A safe and proven natural way to add inches to penis length and thickness. With the TITAN you will see yourself grow to dimension you never thought possible.

HOW CAN THE TITAN ELECTRIC VACUUM ENLARGER INCREASE PENIS LENGTH & THICKNESS?

Your erection is caused by blood flowing into hollow caverns inside your penis. The caverns fill with blood and your penis grows in size and thickness and becomes stiffer and stiffer until the caverns are filled with all the blood they can hold. BUT, IF YOU INCREASE THE CAPACITY OF THE CAVERNS BY MAKING THEM BIGGER, THEY HOLD MORE BLOOD and you have a correspondingly longer, thicker penis. Regular use of the TITAN gently urges the caverns to expand... expand... expand. You'll see the astonishing results the first time you use your TITAN. Your penis will grow inside the clear, picture window sleeve. Immediately you will see just how really BIG... how really FAT... how LONG... how HARD and STIFF your penis can get! And after regular sessions with the TITAN you'll probably find as do most men that these size gains don't go away! They become a part of you to thrill and excite her!

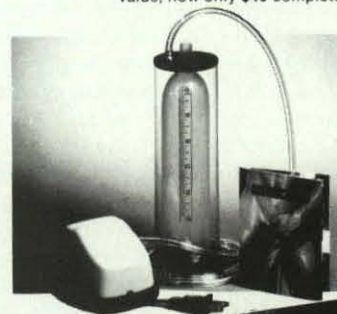

THE TITAN IS SIMPLY THE MOST POWERFUL ENLARGEMENT SYSTEM YOU CAN PURCHASE ANYWHERE! AT ANY PRICE!

This powerful, totally electric unit (U.L. approved) is equipped to plug into any wall outlet to give you continuous, even sucking power until you shut it off! Unlike noisy electric vacuum enlargers costing upwards of $100 — the TITAN is "quite as a whisper".

AT LAST! A BOOK THAT ILLUSTRATES THE PURE JOYS OF MASTURBATION!

In a short time you can learn new ways of enjoying sexual ecstasy alone or with your partner! Dozens of techniques are exposed in words and photos. Every act, every method, every device is discussed in detail. Learn to enjoy prolonged periods of continuous ecstasy! To delay your climax as long as you want! To make your climaxes super-charged with power and sensations. A must for the connoisseur of erotic delights!

KNOCKED-UP 'N' NAUGHTY

I'd like to tell all HUSTLER readers about an experience I had last summer. To begin with, I'm a 20-year-old black GI stationed in the southern part of the country. I work out quite often, and—not to brag—I'm considered very well-hung with a 9½-inch cock.

Believe it or not, though, I'm not as big as my best friend, James. He was stationed with me at my last base, where we shared an apartment. James is also black and hung like a mule—not that I'm gay or bisexual, but I've seen my ex-roomie laying quite a lot of pipe with a few of the ladies around town. James is a good four inches longer than myself, and he's also uncircumcised.

To get on with the story, James and I were leaving the base one Friday afternoon when we saw a pregnant girl hitchhiking, and I do mean pregnant. She was dressed for the hot weather in shorts and a thin T-shirt. The young woman was obviously not wearing a bra, fully exposing her big jugs. This was a very pretty lady here at the side of the road, but she was very big from being knocked up. Still, they say a hard dick has no conscience, so we stopped.

We found out her name was Lisa, she was 18 years old, eight months' pregnant and lived near the base. Lisa explained that she'd gotten into a nasty fight with her boyfriend about the baby. She asked us to drive her to a city about 150 miles away from our base, where her sister lived. Because of her desperate situation, coupled with the fact that James and I were heading in that general direction anyway, we agreed to take her—the next day. Lisa asked if she could please stay at our apartment for the night. She had no desire to see her boyfriend again until she'd had a chance to sort things through in her mind.

After a shower at our apartment, some Kentucky Fried chicken and a glass of wine, the three of us were all getting mellow. Lisa had changed into one of our olive drab T-shirts and nothing else. We were sitting on the floor in front of the TV, and Lisa was in between James and I. The young lady shot us both a look of intense passion; so in unison my roomie and I pulled the T-shirt up over her head. In unison we each took one of her big nipples in our mouths.

Lisa told us that her nipples were extremely sensitive because of her pregnancy, but that it felt great to have them sucked on. If we took good care of those big titties, Lisa said, we could fuck her doggy-style. But only if we were gentle. She was, after all, eight months' pregnant.

After licking, sucking and tweaking the blonde's nipples, James and I both undressed in front of Lisa. Immediately Lisa was overcome with shock at the size of our cocks. James and I each took one of her arms, lifted her up off the floor and helped Lisa to the couch. Taking my buddy's dick first in her hand, Lisa jacked James off for a short while to get him turned on. Then she took his massive hose in her mouth—at least what she could get in without gagging.

While Lisa worked on James, I spread her legs and went down on her light-haired trim. This was my first time with a white girl, let alone a pregnant girl, and it was surprising that Lisa was still so agile in her advanced condition. Even more surprising was how horny the little mama was.

Eating a white pregnant girl was a real turn-on. As James fucked the young lady's face, I swirled my tongue inside her snatch, probing and licking. I went slow at first, but soon Lisa was grinding her hot cunt into my face, urging me to pick up the pace. Instead I withdrew my tongue and replaced it with my rock-hard tool. Lisa's cunt was so very snug and tight around my cock. Entering that cooze made her gasp and thrash her head around, which momentarily made her lose James's joint. But Lisa regained control, squeezed my cock in one hole and sucked my buddy's beef back into the other, and off we went.

James blew his load down our houseguest's throat about the same time as I filled her hole with my scum. A few minutes later we traded places. I'm not sure how many times James got off, but later that night I blew two loads into Lisa's mouth, another one in her cunt, and one in her ass the next morning. James also fucked her asshole, though I was worried he'd split the little woman in half with his monster cock.

Later that day we dropped Lisa off at her sister's place. Getting out of the car, Lisa walked kinda funny, but she seemed to be in good shape. Turning around at the door before entering, she shot us a big smile, said thanks for the ride and let herself in.

In closing, all I can say to other HUSTLER readers is, don't pass up a chance at some pussy just because the lady's swelled up a bit.

Linda was moaning as she furiously shoved a Coke bottle in and out of her dripping cunt.

life, which happened quite recently.

I'm a 31-year-old secretary who enjoys nude sunbathing and loves sex in every way imaginable. My story revolves around work. It had been an extremely busy week at the office, but Friday finally arrived. My handsome boss, Mr. Macho, whom I have wanted to suck off for two years, asked me and a co-worker, Linda, to stay late to finalize some urgent matters. I had been especially horny all day. My shaved snatch was dripping with desire, and my nipples tingled, but I agreed to stay beyond 3:30 to finish up.

Mr. Macho was to return to the office at 9:00 that evening to review our progress. After working diligently for a couple hours, Linda and I decided we needed a break and something to eat. But when I returned with some take-out food, I found Linda in the middle of a heated orgasm, flat on her desk. Linda was moaning as she furiously shoved a Coke bottle in and out of her dripping cunt. I had never imagined Linda's body would be so attractive. Watching her erect nipples and steamy snatch was making me so hot in the crotch, my delicious parts could not resist joining her.

I lost my dress quickly, then replaced the Coke bottle with my eager-to-please fingers. Linda smiled, caressed my firm 36D tits, squeezed my hard nipples, and in a short time we found ourselves in a 69 position. The two of us must have been enjoying each other's cunt for at least an hour. By then our food was cold, but more pressing appetites had definitely been satisfied.

Following that exhausting pussy pleasure, I was surprised to learn that Linda also had the hots for Mr. Macho. The two of us then planned a surprise party for the object of our hot fantasies. It would commence as soon as he returned.

The boss arrived promptly at 9:00 and asked to review the completed files that Linda and I had been working on. We entered his luxurious office eagerly. In response to our efforts, Mr. Macho commended us for our excellent work and promised Linda and me some extra compensation.

Linda, who had left her bra and panties on her desk earlier, quickly unzipped her cotton dress and proclaimed,

"It's time to pay up." There she sat, on Mr. Macho's big oak desk, her long legs spread wide apart. Our boss immediately moved forward in his chair and was met by Linda's hands pulling him to her wet, dripping pussy. Like a cat at a saucer full of milk, Mr. Macho eagerly devoured her cream, lapping and licking Linda's labes while his hands roamed up towards her firm, 37C tits. Mr. Macho ate Linda's pussy, licking and slurping away like he was starved.

I undressed in a flash. The crotch in Mr. Macho's slacks was magnificently swollen. His cock was larger than I would have ever believed. Since I had started to work for him, I had always dreamed of my boss's bone being very long, thick and juicy. It had been a long-held fantasy of mine to walk into his office, crawl under his desk while he continued to do business, and suck his cock for hours.

But before I could realize my dream, Linda and Macho were on the plush carpet. All the while he never let up on her dripping, swollen clit. Linda was in seventh heaven. Moving to the floor, I opened his trousers and discovered the thickest dong I had ever seen. Macho's meat must have been ten inches in length too. Not only was I amazed by the size of his cock; his nuts were the size of racquetballs and about two pounds each. They looked like the perfect appetizer, and I was hungry.

I wanted to give Macho a blowjob that he would remember for the rest of his life. Teasing him first, I ran my hot tongue up and down his hard rod and across his big, swaying, soft-skinned balls. I then put my lips down on his cock slowly and evenly, until I finally consumed all ten inches. While the boss quivered with oral delight, I licked, sucked and jerked his massive dong until he exploded in my anxious mouth.

The amount of cum he released took my breath away. I had never taken in so much cock and cum in my life. The sweet-tasting jism dripped from both sides of my mouth. I'll always remember the delicious taste of Macho's jizz and the stimulating rod that put it there.

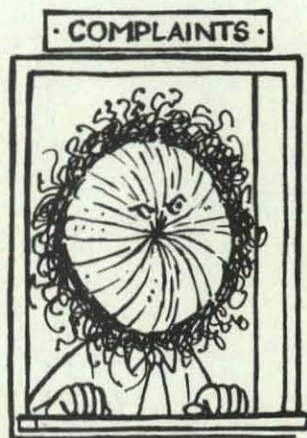

After completing my fantasy blowjob, I was content to sit back and watch Linda and Mr. Macho rut away on the carpet in a variety of positions. Then, savoring the remnants of my boss's ejaculate, I put myself back together and quietly left.

With that terrific experience behind me, I now say to all well-hung men: Pure blowjobs are this young lady's specialty.

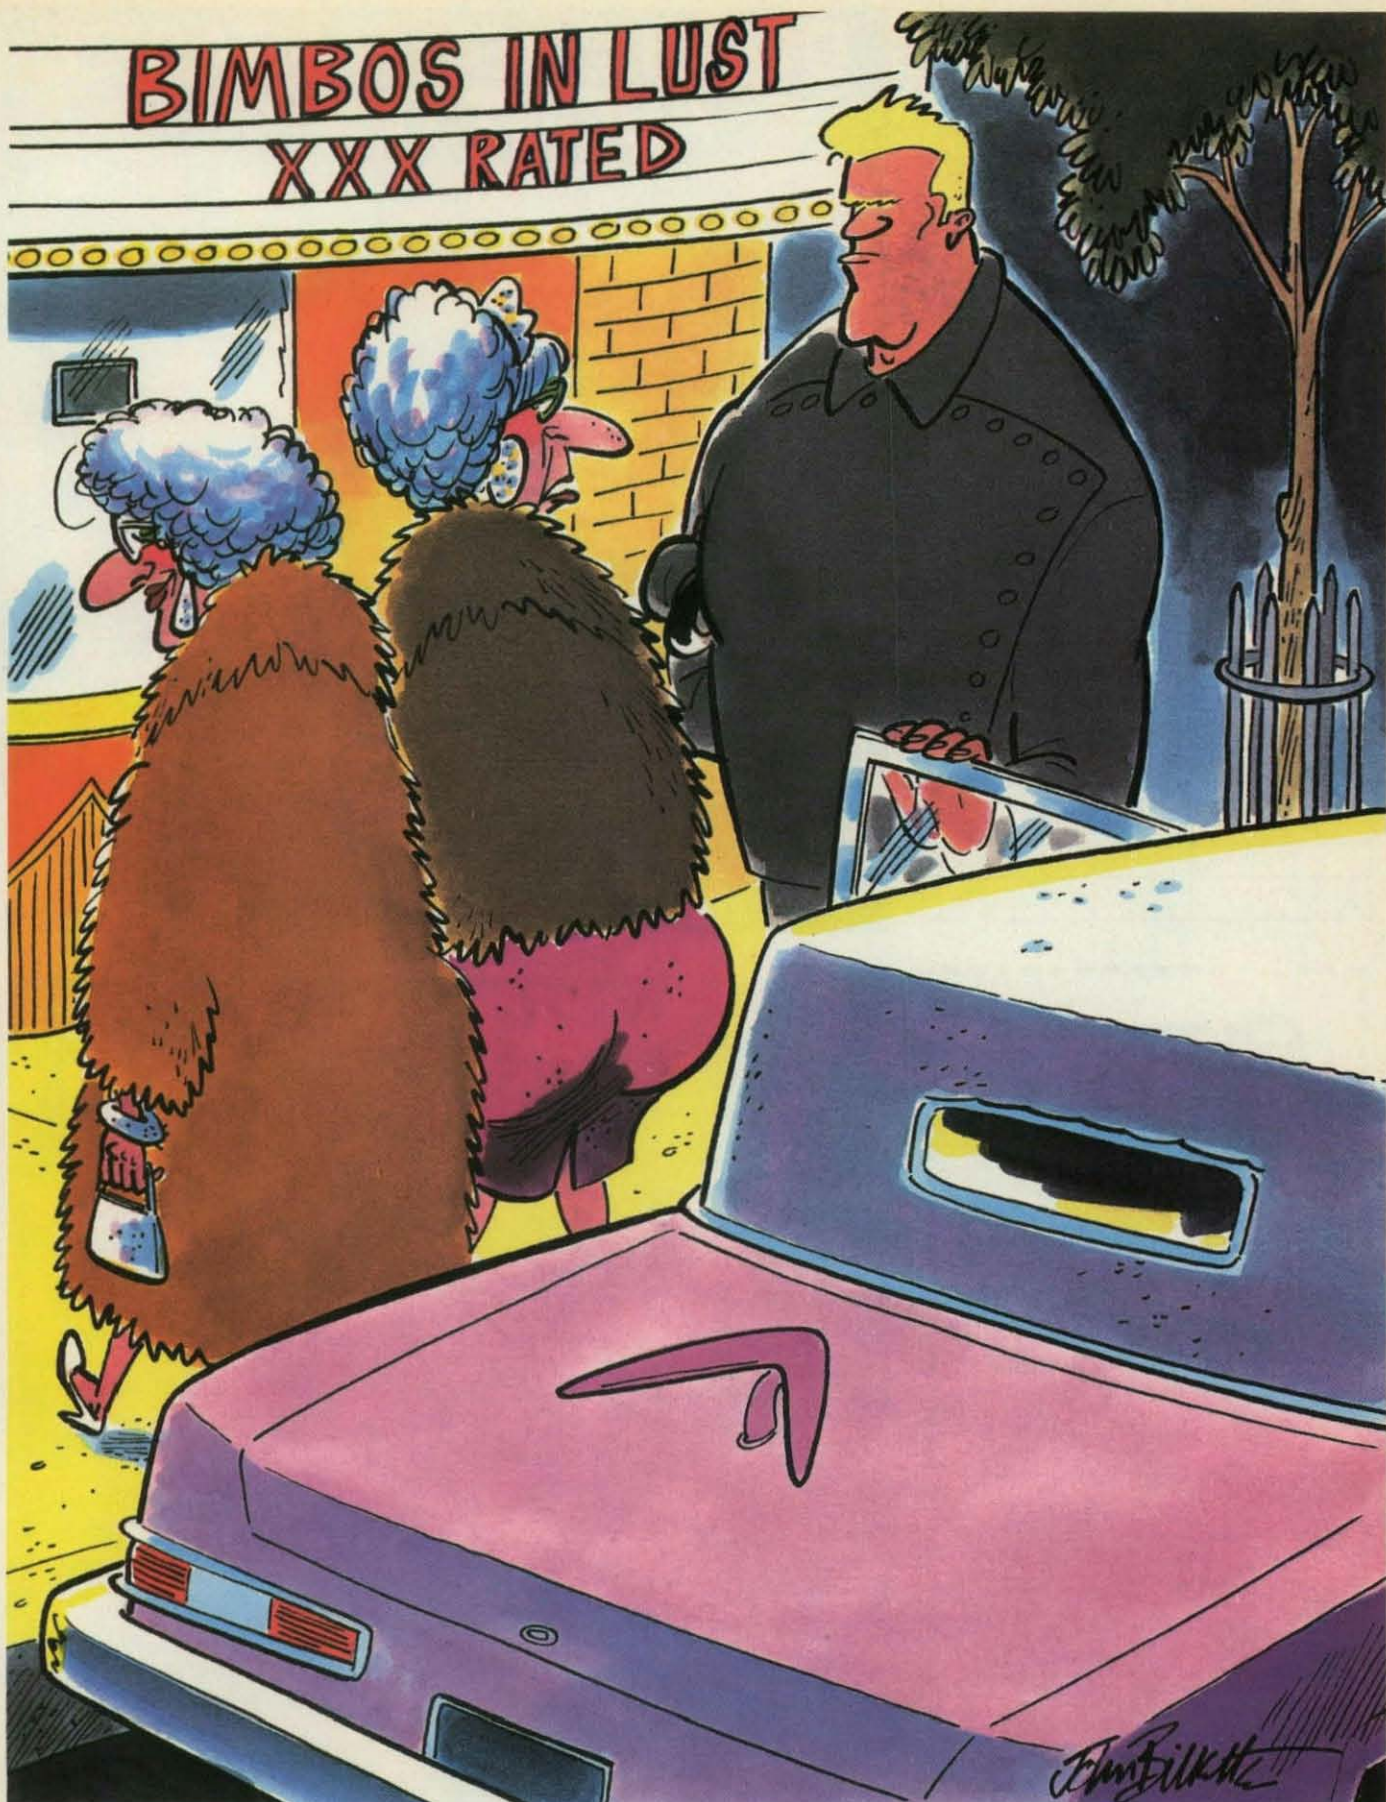

—Gina S.

*A mortician could be operating a cadaver chop shop.
No one viewing the remains would be any the wiser.*

Thus, as long as the bereaved relative understood—or was told—what “to remove tissue” meant, it was legally binding.

Yet Lamb employees have testified that they were told never to volunteer any explanations. If asked, they were instructed to tell the next of kin either that the clause was included to cover tissue that might be removed along with a pacemaker, or that it affected only those who had indicated on their driver's license that they wanted to be organ donors.

Sconce reportedly went so far as to forge signatures. When Lamb received the remains of Jim Elder, who had died of brain cancer, employees removed the deceased's corneas and sent them to the tissue bank along with an allegedly forged “Donor Consent Form” (a second, more acceptable document that Sconce used for transplant organs).

Mrs. Elder maintains that she never signed a form or gave consent. “Not with a cancer patient,” she says. “There's no way in the world I would have donated any part of my husband and then worried about someone else dying [from brain cancer].”

No respectable tissue bank would have accepted the donation. But Coastal did, and the corneas were implanted. “We don't know if cancer can be transmitted [through] tissue implantation,” says Ron Harkey of the California Health Services Department, “but blood banks won't even allow donors with a history of cancer to give blood.”

Illegal tissue-gathering operations could be run out of any funeral home in the nation. “Theoretically, an unethical mortician could take almost any organ, skin or bone tissue he wanted from the body—even in an open-casket funeral,” admits Hugh MacMonigle of the San Francisco College of Mortuary Sciences. “A mortician can easily disguise the fact that an autopsy has been performed, and [in those cases] the organs from the thorax and abdomen are never returned, and the brain has been removed.”

According to MacMonigle, along with the vital organs and brain, a mortician could remove the bones from the inner ear, the leg bones, the vertebrae, the eyeballs and the surface layer of skin. In other words, he could be operating a cadaver chop shop. No one viewing the remains would be any the wiser.

Stealing From the Unborn

An even more ghoulish form of grave robbing—that of stealing organs from the unborn—lies on the horizon. With recent medical breakthroughs in fetal-tissue implantation, the fetus is becoming the prime source for fresh, living cells, which are used to treat everything from nerve regeneration to neurological disorders to diabetes. However, the procedure is fraught with unsavory moral implications.

No matter how promising the potential benefits, most experts are convinced it will lead to the ethically questionable practice of conceiving with intent to abort—which in many eyes is tantamount to murdering an individual for his or her organs. In fact, because of the need to assure a precise match of donor and recipient tissue, there have already been instances in which persons are seeking to create a “life” just so they can use it for spare parts.

In West Germany, a woman whose father suffered from kidney disease wanted to be artificially inseminated with his sperm. She then planned to abort the fetus in the third trimester so its kidneys could be transplanted into her father.

In another case, a Minnesota woman with diabetes wanted to get pregnant so she could abort the fetus and have the insulin-producing islet cells removed from its pancreas and transplanted into her own body.

In New York City, a woman whose husband suffered from Parkinson's disease, but who was too old to have children, sought to let her daughter conceive and abort a fetus whose nerve cells could then be implanted in her husband's brain.

To date, the only fetal cells to be transplanted into humans have come from spontaneously aborted fetuses, and none have been implanted in a family member. However, more than 10 million Americans are expected to be able to benefit from fetal-tissue transplants, and with only 1.2 million fetuses being aborted annually in the U.S., eventually families will feel the pressure to “produce” suitable donor tissue via elective abortion.

There is the danger that, in the rush to procure fresh, usable tissue, technicians will harvest organs while the fetus is still alive—a charge made last year by the Foundation on Economic Trends (FET), a socially progressive consumer watchdog group that is not antiabortion.

The FET claims evidence that the National Disease Research Interchange (NDRI), which acts as a clearinghouse for human tissue used in research, was accepting fetuses from doctors who hadn't taken the time to ascertain fetal death prior to harvesting the tissue.

Some cadavers had been stashed in Howell's closets for up to ten years; many had never been embalmed.

"The fresher and the later [the better]—that's the rule," says FET attorney Andrew Kimbal. "They prefer [fetuses] from the second trimester, preferably as fresh as possible."

NDRI president Lee Ducat denied the charges, stating that while it was not her job to assure that such tissues were procured only after fetal death, she believed that the hospitals and clinics that supplied the tissues acquired them lawfully.

Another thing that worries the FET is the uncertain commercial status of fetal cells; while it's illegal to profit from the sale of human tissue, aborted fetuses are not specifically mentioned in the law.

"Right now it's unclear whether a woman could legally abort her fetus and sell it," Kimbal claims. "If I had to make a legal judgment, I'd have to say that it's probably not covered, that you could [become] a tissue broker tomorrow and just start selling [fetuses] to researchers."

In fact, the FET has received unconfirmed reports of American companies buying black-market fetuses from South Korea and Asia, then using them for biological-warfare experiments.

The legal and moral issues become even more complex with anencephalic babies—infants who are missing most of their brain at birth and who only live a few days. Anencephalics would seemingly provide an excellent source of tissue for the 4,000 babies who die annually because there aren't enough infant transplant organs available. However, by the time these newborns are legally brain-dead, their organs have deteriorated so badly that they are no longer usable.

Recently, hospitals in West Germany, Canada and the U.S. have begun allowing doctors to put anencephalic babies on respirators to keep the organs functioning and the child "alive" while they wait to see if brain death occurs. It's an extremely controversial practice.

"I think that [ultimately] what we're talking about here is killing infants [for their organs]," says USC pediatric neurologist Dr. Joan Hodgeman.

Dr. Alexander Capron, professor of law and medicine at USC, agrees. "If [we put them on] respirators for the benefit of organ transplantation," he says, "it's just as though we're taking the organs while they're still alive." Dr. Capron adds that we would also be setting a dangerous precedent that could lead to anencephalic "vegetables" being kept on respirators for weeks or even months.

Even more frightening are the long-term implications of allowing hospitals to harvest the organs as soon as the child is born—which is what many parents of anencephalics are proposing. Their justification is that the newborns lack higher brain functions and are dying. Cautions Dr. Capron, "Anencephalics aren't the only patients who fit that category."

There are patients in comas, stroke victims and children born severely retarded. If we change the law for anencephalics, how long before other patients "lacking higher brain functions" fall victim to the modern-day grave robber's knife?

THE COLLECTOR

Lewis J. Howell, owner of the Howell Morning Glory Chapel in Jacksonville, Florida, had a rather odd hobby: He collected corpses. On June 4, 1988, state investigators from the Florida Department of Professional Regulations discovered the dead bodies of 41 indigents stuffed into closets throughout Howell's funeral home. Some cadavers had been stashed for up to ten years; many had never been embalmed. The stench was reportedly so putrid that one investigator was up all night afterward puking.

According to Jerry Fallstrom, who reported the story for the Jacksonville Times Union, "It just seemed like maybe he stashed one away one day, and before he knew it, he had a closetful!"

In many cases, Howell allegedly kept the bodies after relatives in the surrounding poor, black community failed to come up with the money for burial. Fallstrom explains, "If you take your car in for repairs, and you don't have the money to pay, they keep the car. He kept the corpses."

Greed may have played a role. Howell held the city contract for indigent burials. In four instances he allegedly charged the city for cremations he never performed. Prosecutors contend that in five other cases he received from $500 to $3,000 for funerals, but the bodies were never buried. Instead, they ended up in one of the closets.

Howell has been charged with six felony counts of grand theft and 36 misdemeanor counts of fraud. In all, he faces a total of 36 years in prison and $48,000 in fines. Yet, according to Fallstrom, Florida courts are so lenient that even if convicted, Howell "probably won't get much of anything."

Audiences are tired of rote smut formulae, of a sexuality that is tame, idealized and too often appears faked.

Video in Boston, Massachusetts, then decided he'd just as well sell them himself.

"This is just play, but I've spent more money on equipment than I'll probably ever recoup," says Den with no regrets. "I got all this top-of-the-line professional equipment. Some guys are just using camcorders, and they don't have real good lighting. I'm shooting everything in S and have got my second S machine. I feel that I have a pretty decent product."

He signs off wistfully, "I hope to retire to do nothing but this."

The young couple bask in a crimson suffusion, kissing tenderly in front of a fireplace. They move together tentatively, almost awkwardly, until the girl straddles her man, her top peeled back, freeing her full, buoyant breasts. The camera savors her trim form, showing her from the side, above, behind. A G-string nestles in the interstices of her globes as she slowly drags her fingernails down his chest, unbuttons his fly and digs for the treasure of his jockey shorts. The firelight flickers on their gleaming bodies, and her tongue flickers on his gleaming prick.

She slides back atop her lover and squats with her back arched, tits protruding proudly. The view shifts, circling the couple, moving in and backing away as, interlocked, they sway in a slow rippling motion.

A&B Video

Volume 74

Everyone involved with amateur video agrees that viewers are disappointed with conventional porn. Audiences are tired of rote smut formulae, of a sexuality that is tame, idealized and too often appears faked. Old material is chopped up, repackaged and presented as new. The mainstream, they feel, lacks vitality and freshness.

"Tracey Adams is beautiful, but how many tapes of her can you have?" asks Denny.

"People would rather see something different," asseverates Benson. "You're never going to be with Barbara Dare. People will not buy a feature X film. They'll rent them at the video store, but they'll spend 30, 40 or 50 dollars for a half-hour tape of amateurs. It's more believable."

Though they recognize a common denominator in their audiences, each of the amateur impresarios has his own specialty. The dealers respond to requests and feedback, gearing their library to the tastes of their consumers. Homegrown, which used to deal some of the most twisted sexual bizzarrities known to man, now concentrates primarily on hetero couple action, with the emphasis on interracial and anal. Den considers his marketplace to be the girl/girl and girl solo scene, but with the obvious difference of girls fisting, and liking it.

A&B Video's productions range from very hard-core to lingerie striptease (the most requested subject behind a girl alone). From talking to and reading the letters of some 10,000 enthusiasts during the past few years, A&B believes the marketplace is open for depictions of actual couples making natural love, with real hugging and kissing.

Yoko's Far East Video caters to a clientele that is solely interested in Oriental women. Far East shoots slants here in the States and makes frequent excursions abroad to bring back penetrating proof of the yellow-poon play-for-pay paradises of Bangkok, Manila, Tokyo and Seoul. "I try to look at what I like and the way I would like to see it, and project that," explains Jun Kanda of his fuck-drenched travelogues. Kanda claims he hasn't fucked a non-Oriental woman in years, and that he knows what a man who goes for Japanese sushi wants from a woman, as opposed to someone into spicy Thai fish. "It's pretty safe for a guy to say he's into Koreans," assures Kanda. "We'll know what he likes."

Another way to ensure receiving tapes tailored to your tastes is to sample preview reels. Great bargains, ranging from $15 to $20, these compilations show glimpses from ten to 50 of any particular company's full-length features, giving the home-shopper an idea of picture quality, performer appearance and activity content. Thus, the carnal consumer can enjoy relative peace of mind while writing out a 20- to 60-buck check to order a main cooze course.

"With the video catalog, they get what they see," says CVC's Lyons. "That eliminates the problem of returns."

Some of the things that can be seen in a preview tape include a riding crop slapping titties and snapped on a snatch (CVC Volume 2); a mammary-hung mama frigging a guy's ass while she licks his balls and prick, then tongue-swabs his bungler (CVC Volume 304); a splayed chick talking about sucking your cock and licking your balls as trucks rumble

Some could be your mousy sister; some could be your blowsy aunt; none have yet discovered mousse.

by on the interstate (CVC Volume 33); an athletic Spanish lass with a double-headed dong bent with one end in her pussy and the other in her ass (Den Video Volume 123); a blonde stripping off panties, lathering on shaving cream, razoring bush and playing with her clean puss (Den Video Volume 131); an oiled-up woman on a plastic tarp fisting herself doggy-style, slipping hard-boiled eggs up her hatchery and squeezing them back out, then holding her cunt wide with an egg-whip (Den Video Volume 118).

Homegrown, A&B, Baker and many of the others advertise sample tapes in Video Xcitement! Prepare to see gaggles of single and dual girls: Some could be your mousy sister; some could be your blowsy aunt; none have yet discovered mousse. Here in full-color nudity are those trashy neighbors from across the fence with their loud radio turned up in some cheap motel room as they fuck their brains out on an ugly plaid couch.

As if that's not enough, CVC offers a Golden Moments preview tape, with bur-bling yellow snatches of 26 truly wet videos.

A woman stands at a kitchen counter, facing away, faded bluejeans tight on her snug ass. A darker blue seeps from her crotch, highlighting her panty lines, spreading down the backs of her thighs. Another woman lifts her dress, facing forward, and whizzes a gusher into her pantyhose, golden nectar dripping from each side of her crotch, running down to the feet of her hose. Yet another woman, this one pissing through fishnet stockings, steaming spray tinkling from the latticed threadwork. One woman actually pisses in a toilet and uses a tissue to wipe; many more let loose gushers out in the woods or into secluded lakes.

Some urinate while totally nude; more pee in elaborate garter-and-stockings getups. One girl lies back in a beach chair, opens her cunt wide and shoots a steady stream of wee-wee straight out to the camera. Another girl agonizes in pants that are far too tight, especially with all that piss seeping down inside. Yet another girl sticks her hand inside her panties, fingers deflecting her flow.

All these micturating damsels, and more, lead up to two slow-motion clips of steady streams of piss whizzing from urethra to a waiting, willing, female face. For these girls, the spray is more than an eyeful. It's a mouthful.

CVC Special Edition
Golden Moments

* * *
Den Video shies away from golden-shower tapes. "We did one," Den recalls. "I didn't enjoy doing it; the girls don't enjoy doing it. It's hard to do. The girl's gotta go, but then, when you're ready, she's got to wait. It's messy, and it's smelly."

Most of the other independents also shun golden showers. Even CVC, which supplies the Golden Moments anthology, is careful to point out that, though they have access to piss vids, urination is not their bag. Homegrown long ago dropped all piss epics from their catalog, though they will steer valued customers to less squeamish dealers. One such company, Raysco (Box 2038 VX, Portland, OR 97208), advertised wet fetish product as recently as February/March 1988 in Video Xcitement!

Urine is a matter of personal choice, but everyone contacted is adamantly uninvolved with any depictions of children or of humans with animals. Den refuses to dress 21-year-old Gina up like a 12-year-old, though she could easily pass, and Mancuso declines any ads for Video Xcitement! that could be construed at all as pandering to pedophiles.

A&B rejects custom scripts that use derogatory statements toward women or nationalities, such as interracial scenes that might contain language abusive toward either race. In preparing their custom "rape" tapes (requested by women as often as by men), A&B is very careful to never use the word rape and to keep violence at a minimum, with no crying, screaming or pain. Their abduction stories usually turn out to have the man and woman married, indulging in a fantasy of their own.

Reticence to portray certain taboos, such as underage and interspecies, is as often inspired by fear of legal consequences as by moral objections. There have been no official hassles yet, but no one's taking any chances.

"We're very strict about making sure everything is very legal and not even close to the borderline of the law," proclaims Homegrown's Deina. To that aim, they have eliminated enemas, rubber fetishism, anything dealing with bodily wastes or depicting hard S&M. To further protect themselves from the talons of the law, Homegrown and others maintain a low profile, using P.O. box numbers only in their advertising. Many take the extra precaution of avoiding the U.S. mails, sending all tapes out UPS.

Soon you may be able to walk into a store and buy Deina's latest anal fixation right off the shelf.

"The U.S. Post Office will let us send our catalogs," says Benson of A&B, "but they don't want the videotapes to go through."

Den will return any order to be sent to a P.O. box. Not only doesn't UPS deliver to P.O. boxes, but postal authorities have been known to take out post boxes in order to entrap unwary smut mailers. Canada is another problem area. Canadians hoping to order amateur videos will have much better luck doing so from an American address.

Far East's Kanda has unique legal concerns. When going to Japan from Thailand, he must leave all pornographic materials in bond with Japanese customs before he enters their country. Upon leaving, loaded down with a shipment of Rising Sun smut, he reclaims his Bangkok boffs.

Establishing shots show crowded masses of Japanese; none of them carry cameras. The video tour snakes through red-light districts of Japan, Thailand, the Philippines, showing snippets of foreign blue-screen productions mixed in with dressing-room shots at strip bars and brothels. A bored slope whose sticks a cigarette between her cunt lips and smokes it. Finally, a big-dick American gets down to dirty business with an almond-eyed vision as sleek and graceful as a whippet. The American's face is never shown, but his prominent knob is featured center screen invading the inscrutable smiles of fair ladies from the East, slicing into their hairless ornamental slits.

Yoko's Far East Video TAO Volume I

"Unless there's some kind of clamp-down on it," predicts Den, "amateur's going to increase a lot more dramatically than the commercial. The commercial's going to start dying a little."

Homegrown plans to begin selling to a videotape distributor who supplies 15,000 retail outlets. A&B has been talking with one of the largest distributors of adult tapes in the country and may soon be looking for ad space in bigger magazines, such as HUSTLER. No one plans to give up their mail-order sales (the only way these tapes are available now), but they see that business eventually dwindling once the consumer is able to walk into a store and buy Deina's latest anal fixation right off the shelf.

The equipment is getting cheaper; cameras are getting better all the time, able to shoot with existing bedroom light. With real distribution and improved quality, underground hobby sex may soon move into the realm of big bucks.

"As long as they keep it truly amateur," prophesies Den, "it'll be good."

The following list of reliable amateur-video dealers was compiled by Video Xcitement!'s Timothy Costello, with a few additions by HUSTLER. Video Xcitement! will send a sample copy of their magazine to any HUSTLER reader for $2 postpaid to Video Xcitement!, P.O. Box 187, Fraser, MI 48026. Tapes range in price from $15 for preview cassettes to more than $300 for special custom orders.

HUSTLER

December '88 HUSTLER Holiday
Special Edition on Sale October 18, 1988

SAY THANKS FOR A FEAST OF FLESH

What kind of log-crackling photo-features would complement a holiday spread based on a centerpiece of naughty Nikki Knights? HUSTLER salutes the Turkey Day that comes every four years with "Erection '88"—our expose' of a hard-balling candidate. Then get a taste of the popular Southwest look in a lesbo set that makes the desert wet. Drink in the solo sensuality of a beach bimbo who uses her hands to play in the sand. Purse your lips for a big finish as a Texas couple go cliff- and muff-diving at scenic Lake Powell. You're welcome.

IN THE BOWELS OF BANGKOK

Although long acknowledged as the world capital of depravity, little is known about the macabre dealings that make Thailand's biggest city the cesspool of Asia. Get an insider's account of child sex slaves and scamming citizens in HUSTLER's expose, "Bangkok: Paradise of Corruption," written by American-born Thai resident Bill Baker.

GONE FISSION

Nevada has long been known for its gamblers and whores, but it's also the nation's test grounds for atomic weaponry. Michael DiGregorio guides you through this desert nightmare of militaristic masturbation in "Why Go to Vegas When You Can Visit Doomtowntown?"

PRICK OF DEATH

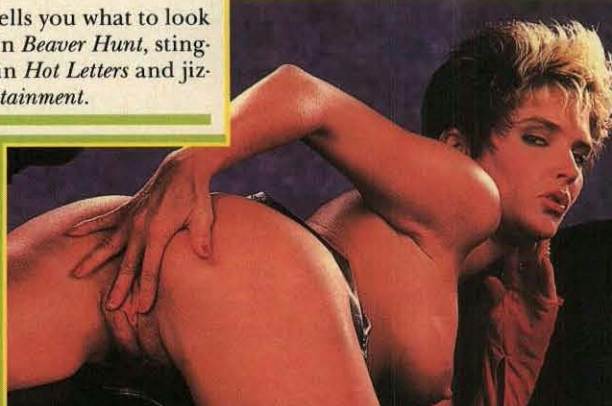

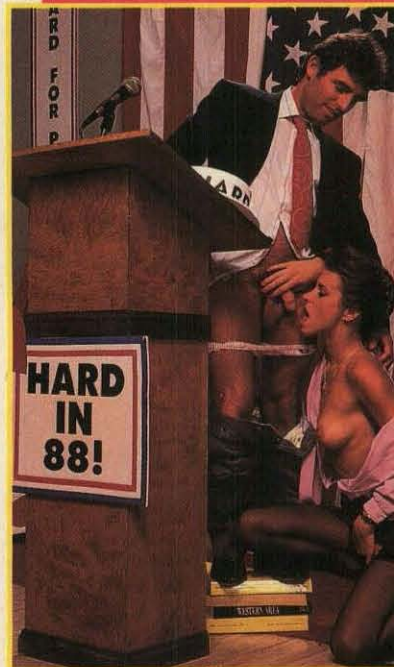

IV drug users are now the leading AIDS high-risk group, and they're starting to spread the virus into the heterosexual community at alarming rates. In AIDSWatch, "The Drug Connection," Managing Editor Rick Woods reports on the state of the disease among needle users.

SEXUAL MASTERY

In this age of fear and repression, much of the fun has gone out of sex, particularly fantasy role-playing involving dominance and submission. In "The Slave Game," Chuck Henderson gives us a light-hearted look at painless power-passion-play that gets both partners off.

NOT A TURKEY IN THE BUNCH

December's lineup also stuffs in a Sex Play that tells you what to look for "When Your Woman Cheats," furry critters in Beaver Hunt, stinging wit in Bits & Pieces, groan-and-moan antics in Hot Letters and jizzical XXX-judgments in HUSTLER Erotic Entertainment.
