ROMA

Here's a gal whose spectacular BUF treasure chest sets our hearts aflame. Sumptuous Roma Burns makes her first appearance in our pages and you can bet your sweet patootie it won't be the last. One look at this sensual brunette sexpot knocked us right on our togas. And then the connection hit us — this sultry dynamo must be a descendant of the notorious Nero of ancient Rome, the depraved tryant who fiddled while Rome burned. When we rooftop and soak in the warm rays. Disco dancing and TV give her a lot of enjoyment, but we bet not as much enjoyment as we guys get admiring her bountiful charms. So Roma, get out your violin and fiddle while our hearts burn with desire for you. □

URSULA

Here it is with about half of 1980 gone already, and we haven't received any new sets of Ursula, the super endowed Slavic sexpot who captured the fancy of BUF buffs last year. We have received so much mail clamoring for more of this big-boobed honey that we dug into our files and came up with these unused photos from her last shootings before the BUF cameras.

As you can see for yourselves, Ursula has what it takes, and then some. A professional gymnast, Ursula puts a lot of energy into keeping fit. At almost any hour of the day or night she can be found running track, lifting weights, playing soccer, or working out on the parallel bars. We suggested to Ursula that we'd love to work out with her, but she suggested that we do it on our own — in other words, take a run for ourselves.

Actually Ursula is much too sweet natured to say anything like that. Her terrific figure is matched by her personality, good-humored and lively. She has many friends and enjoys going out with all kinds of guys. To her the company is more important than whether they eat in an expensive restaurant or a neighborhood pizza parlor. A night at the bowling alleys is just as good as the most expensive play in town.

Ursula is our kind of gal. We enjoy looking at her — and our extra enjoyment will also be yours the moment we get a new shooting of her. Here's hoping it won't be too long! □

MAY

Here's a brand new shooting of a BUF Hall of Fame champion. Mammoth mammaried May caused quite a commotion with her last appearance in these pages, so we've wasted no time in asking her back. As you can see, the dear girl is looking better (and bigger) than ever.

Alert BUF buffs will recall that May recently starred in the film "Of Inhuman Bondage," a spoof of the S&M scene directed by Japanese auteur Rengae Kyo. "Rengae says he's going to use me in his next epic, 'Godzilla vs. The Muppets.' The Japanese have a knack with monster films, don't you think?"

We think May's super Big Up Front melons will catapult her to stardom when the film is released. She's also got some television work lined up. May has just completed working on the pilot film for "Rex Andrews, C.P.A.," a thrilling adventure series based on the popular stories by Hank Munro. "I get to play

JUNE PALMER

Here's the great June Palmer, our first super model. A British doll, she was discovered by London photographer, Bob

Baker, and we believe we were the first to feature her in this country in the early sixties. Her popularity was astounding and we ran her as often as we could get new sets of her. Every issue highlighting her was a success and it wasn't long before she began appearing in all the other magazines. But we had a great English connection and we got many exclusive sets.

We haven't seen or heard from this brunette sensation for many years and we've no idea what she's up to these days. She may have found Mr. Right and settled down to take care of hubby and raise the kiddies. Wherever you are, June, you're in our hearts.

Velda, Rex's Gal Friday." We tried to get May to play our gal — all days and nights, but she laughed us off.

One thing is certain. Television is sure to be bigger than ever when May commences her TV career. Guys from coast to coast will be glued to their sets, and the term "boob tube" will take on new connotations. Will success go to her head? "I won't forget my old friends," promises May. "I'll be glad to pose for you any time." Need we add that May's terrific, tremendous titillating torso will always be welcome in our pages. □

KELLY

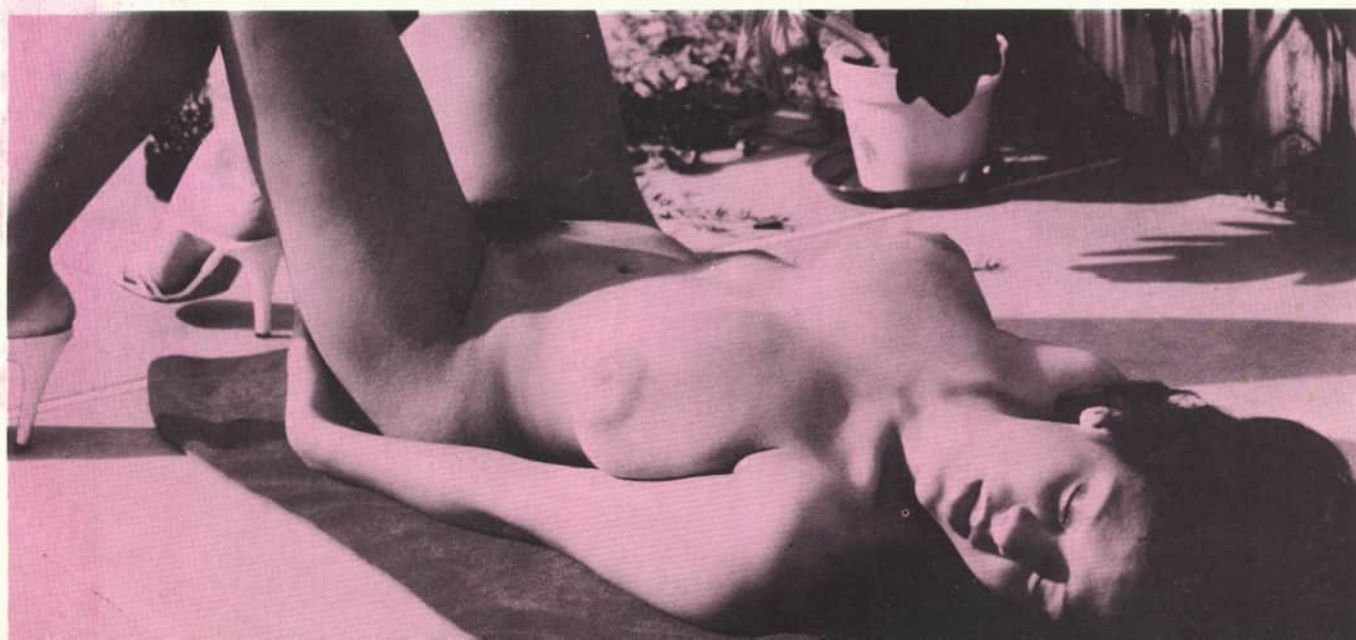

We've been getting so many requests for copies of our November 1979 issue of BUF that we went back to check it out. We figure it must be because of sensational Kelly who was featured on the cover. So, mates, here's another spread of sweet, curvy Kelly. She's as pretty as can be, has a great body with an outstanding pair of BUF goodies and has a winning smile. As a matter of fact, we're all winners when Kelly's around. And fellows, please don't write for last year's November BUF; we've just about run out of them. Just settle back and enjoy this set, and if you're like us, when you look at Kelly, you'll tingle like spice jelly. □
