ONCE YOU GET MY RUBBER
KNICKERS OFF, CAN YOU PLUG
MY STEAMING VOLCANO

Service stations realised long ago that petrol sales could be attracted by employing girl attendants, especially if they were well stacked! I've noticed on recent visits to Britain, however, that it's become more common for stations to be self-service and for there to be no attendants. Fortunately that trend is less advanced here in northern Australia, where our tropical climate also makes it possible for the girls to wear brief shorts and skimpy tops when serving the petrol.

Recently I began giving my business to a local station that had taken on a girl with attributes that particularly caught my attention. Needless to say Debbie was very well built up top, a feature (or pair of features — D cups I was sure!) made all the more appealing by the fact that she was quite petite, perhaps five feet two and slim in the waist and hips.

The first time I bought fuel from her she was wearing a top that was loose enough to provide an intriguing view of a deep canyon between swelling, fleshy orbs as she leant to undo the petrol cap on my car. I also noticed, when I lifted the direction of my gaze back to her face, that she was wearing quite a collection of ear jewellery. In fact, her left ear carried five different earrings in piercings both in her lob and around the lower rim of her ear, and her right had three. They tinkled as she turned her head and I was prompted to comment on them. She grinned at me as she replaced the petrol gun on the bowser, then gave me an old-fashioned look when I remarked casually that I had an American friend who not only had pierced ears but also wore jewellery in her nipples.

We chatted casually each time I bought petrol over the next few weeks and most times I enjoyed a few minutes' view of Debbie's busty endowment as she filled the tank, since her blouses were invariably sufficiently unbuttoned to provide the customers with that small extra inducement to help retain their business. It was about three weeks ago that she took me aside after serving me and invited me to join her at a small party over the weekend. Her regular boyfriend was out of town and, as it happened, I was also free.

"I'm sure you'll find it interesting, Peter", she hinted, "though perhaps a little unusual".

I was intrigued, but she was a girl built to my taste and I looked forward to the weekend with more than my usual enthusiasm.

I had arranged with Debbie to collect her at the small flat she shared with the absent boyfriend. When I arrived she was wearing a light cotton housecoat. She gave me a drink, then, with just a touch of hesitancy, said, "Peter, I want to tell you something about the group we'll be joining. Perhaps I can best introduce the subject by showing you these..."

As she spoke she loosened the housecoat and slipped it off her shoulders... to reveal herself dressed in just a short denim skirt! I caught my breath, her naked breasts were magnificent! I guess she was about 23 years old and her body was at its peak. Her tits most certainly needed a D cup to encase their bulk, but they were round and firm and high riding. There was no sign at all of sag or stretch marks, though the weight of each succulent globule of bust-stuff necessarily meant that it rested heavily on her rib cage and vivid blue veins providing sustenance to her chesty mountains were visible converging on her teats. That titty vision was exciting enough in itself (and creating a strong interest in part of my anatomy) but, as gilding on the lilies as it were, the firm pink nipples that adorned her luscious frontispieces glinted with the rings of gold that plunged through them!

"You told me about your American friend", she said, "so I guessed you'd like to see mine". She turned the rings casually as she spoke. "Most of the girls at the party will be pierced, and even a couple of the guys. They're all good fun, and will love meeting you. Now, would you like to help me finish dressing?"

I could only nod as she placed a copper collar and long, thin gold chain in my nervous hands. The copper collar locked around her neck and she told me to clip one end of the chain onto her left nipple ring. To do so meant holding the solid tit in my palm, and I almost came in my pants as I made contact with the gorgeously heavy nude udder. The chain then looped over the collar and its other end clipped onto her right nipple ring so that it lay draped across the swollen contours of her bulging chesty organs. She completed the 'costume' by putting on a thin voile blouse through which practically everything was visible, including the rich blue veins.

There were about six other couples at the party which was held in a suburban house in the outer part of the city. The style was fairly typical of our tropical architecture, with a large living room that opened onto a terrace and a treed garden. I was quick to notice that the women, without exception, were big breasted (non below a C cup) and were wearing revealing, low cut blouses. Drinks were served as we arrived and then, at a signal from the hostess, the girls all removed their tops and a hubbub of chatter broke out as each displayed her evening's 'attire'.

As Debbie had said, most of the girls (all except one in fact) had pierced nipples, and each had chosen tit-jewellery to illustrate a particular theme. It was a kind of fancy 'dress' party but with pierced tits as the centrepieces. The hostess herself was dressed for Christmas! Through each of a pair of very protuberant nipples, that had clearly been well suckled by a couple of children (and probably her husband too), she had hooked coloured glass baubles of the kind that are hung on Christmas tress. Silver tinsel was wound around her neck and the heavy underhang of each of her quite pendulous breasts. A tall girl, who worked as a secretary in an important local business, was clearly dressed for 'work'. She had one paper clip through her left nipple with a chain of about half a dozen more hanging from it. Her right nipple was gripped in a bulldog clip whose spring had been weakened to avoid excessive discomfort. The creamy surfaces of her vast bulging breasts were decorated with impressions from rubber stamps, saying 'received', 'air mail', 'cancelled' and giving the date. A redhead who worked for a car hire firm carried bunches of keys from her nipple rings and they were so heavy that they pulled down her rather fleshy nipples and created a drag on her tits as a whole. A padlock suspended from a long chain around her neck nestled awkwardly between her chesty masses. Another was a 'nun', with crucifixes hanging from each of two rather elongated breasts, a rosary around her neck and a flimsy black stole that she kept draped across her shoulders.

The one unpierced girl, who actually looked rather naked though she was wearing strings of coloured beads that rested sexily across her large, round boobs, was clearly uncertain about undergoing the piercing operation but was rather envious of the others and it was Debbie who explained what was involved.

"Before I had mine done properly I tried to do them myself", she admitted, "but I don't advise it. I managed to push a ring through a very ice-frozen nipple but I wasn't satisfied with the placement. I allowed it to heal, then the next time I was in Sydney I went to a jeweller who does piercings of nipples as well as of ears.

I enclose n/o — Cheque

He uses sterile equipment and works very professionally. He coaxed my nipple into an erect state and put dots with a marking pen where the piercing was to go. He then gave me a local anaesthetic and clamped the nipple into a special pair of forceps. My nipple was pulled slightly away from my breast, a special needle forced through an opening in the forcep jaws, through the numbed nipple and into a cork held the other side. He then pushed an open bead ring smoothly in to replace the needle and close it up".

This I can describe best as a tit-of-war! the two girls stood facing each other against the stage, but this time only four or five feet apart. Each had a length of thicker cord of the kind used as the 'bridle' in the first of their bondage acts which they tied right around the bases of each other's tits so that the free end — about four feet of it — hung from between each pair. Pulled hard, the cord caused each breast to swell out into a bulbous balloon that appeared half separated from its parent chest and the surface skin was so tightly stretched it seemed almost as if the organ had to burst. Perspiration oozed from each of the four swollen beauties. They then clutched the end of each other's boob-cord and pulled! The black seemed to have the advantage since, although her boobs were rather longer they were shaped so that the cord had less of a grip while the blonde's more rounded equipment was so voluminous and overhanging that the cord merely tightened around the breast bases and squeezed her orbs into even more bulging globular masses. The prominent blue veins stood up like cords themselves as they pumped blood through the straining tit mounds. She was forced to yield as the black hauled her across the stage, her own flopping udders free of their cord.

It was very obvious that, as the last sequence in their act, the black girl was going to wreak further 'revenge' for the 'horse and bridle' routine that had started their show. She sat the white girl on a stool and, accompanied by some slow melodic music, began to tie the pale skinned tits of the blonde tightly against her chest by taking the heavier cord round her back, across both tits together, round each in turn, then round her arms and back again. The white girl's nipples were placed fairly high on her breasts and the black avoided passing the cord directly across them, but as it cut deeply into the bulging bust-stuff above and below each nipple, the areolar hillocks and their crowning teats were forced out between lengths of the cord like protruding sprouts. It was difficult to know whether the agonised look on the white's face as the binding was intensified was part of the show or reflected real discomfort, but the cords were really biting into her fleshy appendages and causing the tit-stuff to bulge out in rolls between them. When all the cord had been used, the black spend a couple of minutes worrying each prominently erect nipple with her teeth and to quite tumultuous applause from the audience.

Now whether or not I had a sixth sense at the end of the show, I am not sure, but I had moved to the end of the row in which I was sitting into a vacant seat on the aisle when the blonde sought a guy from the audience to release her. I was on the stage before anyone else had properly understood the invitation! I untied the knots behind her back, the unwound the cord, taking the opportunity to brush my hand across her compressed bosoms each time I removed a lashing from her front while she grinned mischievously at me. Loosening the original noose meant a more prolonged contact with the now relaxed tits, across which red weals were apparent though I was pleased to see that the silkiness of the cord had left no chafe marks.

I was about to return reluctantly to my seat when the black handed me a tube of body lotion.

"You must finish the job", she said, "they need some creaming to relieve the tenderness".

MINIMUM ORDER TWO MAGAZINES

I could hardly believe my ears but the blonde girl nodded and thrust her tits towards me. Was I the envy of the rest of the audience, some of whom called out ribald advice. I squeezed a generous amount of the lotion onto my hands, then purposefully began to spread it over her expansive chesty contours. I slid my creamy hands beneath the heavy, ponderous, mammary organs then smoothed the slippery lotion across the very extensive area of her pale-skinned breasts.

"That's nice", she murmured, "I reckon you've had a lot of practice at this!"

I merely smiled, and continued to rub in the body oil.

I could have maintained the treatment, soothing the blonde's maltreated mammaryes for hours, but it was obvious that the proprietors wanted to screen their next film, a repeat of the first I had seen, and the music came to a conclusion as a clear hint that the show was over. The girls each took one of my hands and I stood between them as they took their bows, deep low ones that permitted their great hangers to swing almost free of their chests, to tremendous applause.

Next time I'm in Sydney, that picture theatre is high on my list for a return visit...

RUBBER SUITED LOVERS

I have been a reader of Amazons Extra since your first issue, and I find it well worth the money, in fact it is considerably cheaper than the other specialist magazines on the news-stand, and in addition contains many more quality colour pages than any other fetish publication, it really is a change to find a magazine that caters for a variety of unusual tastes, including my own speciality, rubber!

My special fad, is rubber and latex, which my wife and I really adore, before we met I had read a lot about rubber and bondage in American magazines, but had never experienced it to the full, I had made occasional forays to call girls, but never found a compliant companion such as my lovely wife Doreen, we have been married now for eleven years and since we discovered the delights of rubber, our sex-lives have really become a non stop round of erotic excitement, what for us had become a dull tedious once a week leg-over has now become an orgasmic exciting long non-stop routine of exciting fulfilling sex.

My wife who when I married her was a slim young thing, after having mothered two fine children, has developed into a voluptuous venus, her flat boobs which were like two fried eggs have like Topsy "grown and grown" she now sports a well hung 44 double-dee bust, and has an amazing nipple size, her nips protrude a startling inch and a half, this was induced by an idea which I got from reading an old issue of "Rubber Life" an American magazine which specialised in rubber bondage, it gave in fine detail a system for increasing a woman's nipple length, this consisted of a special harness which uplifted the boobs, but had weights of varying size which were tied to the woman's nipples which then hung down and stretched them out of the peep-hole bra which was part of the harness.

We now devote the entire weekend to our rubber specialities, on a Friday my wife greets me when I return from work in her rubber dress, this a tight form fitting garment in a skin-tight latex, which has cut-outs for her breasts and bum, after a leisurely dinner, during which I cannot take my eyes off her huge beautiful breasts, we then retire early to our special bedroom, which is covered in rubber, and has a special restraining rack on one wall, my wife then lays out her rubber gear on the bed, and I strip her until she is completely naked, and then I put talcum over her exciting body, except her anal and shaven vagina, in which I liberally oil with a special lotion made from a combination of body oil and an expensive perfume, I then proceed to dress her in her rubber restraint outfit, first on goes a rubber belt which is our own design and is like the old fashioned sanitary towel belt, this is a wide rubber belt, with a strap which goes under the crotch and is fastened at the back with an adjustable buckle this first strap is crotchless, and is designed to spread the lips of the outer labia, thus easing penetration then another crotch strap is hooked on, this is adjustable and contains two depressions which provide a housing for dildos or vibrators, we usually start with a well-greased long dildo inserted up her anus, and then a thick rubber dildo up her cunt, this is hollow and can be plugged with a vibrator, I then do a number of adjustments on the belts, so that both dildos are rammed up tight, sometimes to increase her discomfort and ultimate pleasure I put on the vaginal dildo a french tickler condom, the type that has serrated rubber projections and if she has been naughty this is lubricated with muscle-rub, either "deep heat" or "fiery jack", then on goes her red-lull length rubber crotchless catsuit, this has small cut-outs for her breasts to be squeezed through, and it takes quite an effort to get her tits through, the effect is that they become quite swollen, distended and her milky veins can be clearly seen, her now erectile nipples are now further constricted by placing a number of small rubber bands which are twisted until her nips are now swollen and puffy, I then put on her thigh length rubber boots which have six-inch stiletto heels, we now get to the exciting part according to her, and that is when I put into her mouth an inflatable rubber gag, and over this goes a skin-tight rubber mask, this has two tubes where her nostrils are and a zip which opens and shuts across her mouth, this is very convenient when she requires to perform oral sex upon me, sometimes her ears are plugged to enhance her restricted feeling, the rubber tubes means that she has to breathe very slowly and carefully, at this stage I usually leave her on the bed for a couple of hours, whilst I go downstairs, and have a drink and a smoke, this is all part of the ritual, I vary this break each week, and find that this accentuates her perception and helplessness, also to change the routine I occasionally go upstairs and replace her dildos with large vibrators, we have one which plugs into the mains, and when she gets buzzed by this, I can guarantee that there will be a wet patch underneath her bum when I return, however usually I fuck her in either hole, leaving the other hole plugged with one of our toys, I sometimes wait until I am coming and unzip her mouth take out the inflatable gag, and then masturbate slowly into her open, willing receptive mouth.

At times when the weather is very wet or cold, I put on her a long rubber cloak, and take her out in the car to a deserted part of moorland near to us, for this we have a special attachment which enables me to clip on to the top of her thigh boots two specially made long 15" dildos, these go in the two obvious orifices, and its a sensational sight to see her walking, as the dildos alternately slide in and out of her cunt and arse, I sometimes harness her tits, and to see jogging in her stiletto heels with the dildos sliding up and down is a super erotic sight, at times I pretend to abandon her, and I see her stumbling about, hands restrained behind her, masked, gagged and unable to hear, and all that can be heard is the up and down slurping of the giant dildos, this always excites her, and she never knows where I am lurking, eventually when we drive home we enjoy intercourse of such intensity.

My wife spends entire weekends in rubber bondage and our sex life goes from strength to strength.

We are considering having her nipples and outer and inner labia pierced.

If any of your readers have any erotic suggestions which will enhance even more our already superb sex-life they will be very welcome, also we are considering inviting a suitable companion male or female to join in our frolics, I would be pleased to hear from any rubber lovers c/o Amazons, 182 Eversholt Street, London NW1.
