It's our Bicentennial. It's a good time to remember that "Our liberties we prize and our rights we shall maintain," applies to what you choose, insisting on your constitutional rights. The Constitution guarantees your right to make your own choice of what you want to read, to view, to enjoy—and it all started here 200 years ago.

The fight for our freedom wasn't limited to native-born Americans. To many who loved America, who helped us fight and win our independence, we owe a great debt—to LaFayette, Von Steuben, Pulaski, to name only a few of the "foreigners" who helped make our Bicentennial possible by fighting when things were tough.

Not all of our foreign help was in deeds. Some of the most important help was in concepts. A great source of ideas was Voltaire, the brilliant French novelist, playwright and essayist, considered the wisest man of Europe.

You'll find his thoughts in many places. One often chiseled in stone on libraries, schools and public buildings and emblazoned on the mastheads of newspapers is, "I disagree with what you say but I will fight to the death for your right to say it."

Many of the Founding Fathers—Franklin, Madison, Monroe, Mason—were influenced by Voltaire, especially Thomas Jefferson, who declared, "I have sworn on the altar of God undying enmity to every form of tyranny over the mind of man!" This fierce insistence on individual liberty pervades our Declaration of Independence and our Constitution.

200 years later the spirits of Voltaire and Jefferson are still vibrantly alive, especially in the First Article of our Bill of Rights, guaranteeing freedom of speech and the press, guaranteeing your right to choose for yourself what you will read, or view, or enjoy.

Your determination to maintain that right—to fight for that right against all who would steal it from you—might be the best possible way to celebrate the Bicentennial.

Sing a Song of C-Cups

Could you believe that Linda's favorite boyfriend is a gravedigger? Sounds gruesome, but Linda simply adores the way he pats and moulds the mounds and what really flips her out is the way he packs the hole.

DESERT MELONS

Conchita loves the desert, and her boyfriends don't mind how hot it gets there, either, as long as they can play with the big melons she brings. And if it cools off, she furnishes a hot dip that makes their blood boil. Conchita's got something for all comers.

A Pair to Share

Goldy works for a couple of private detectives. One likes to juggle two big things at the same time. The other just wants the hottest case he can get into. Goldy has no trouble handling both dicks with ease.

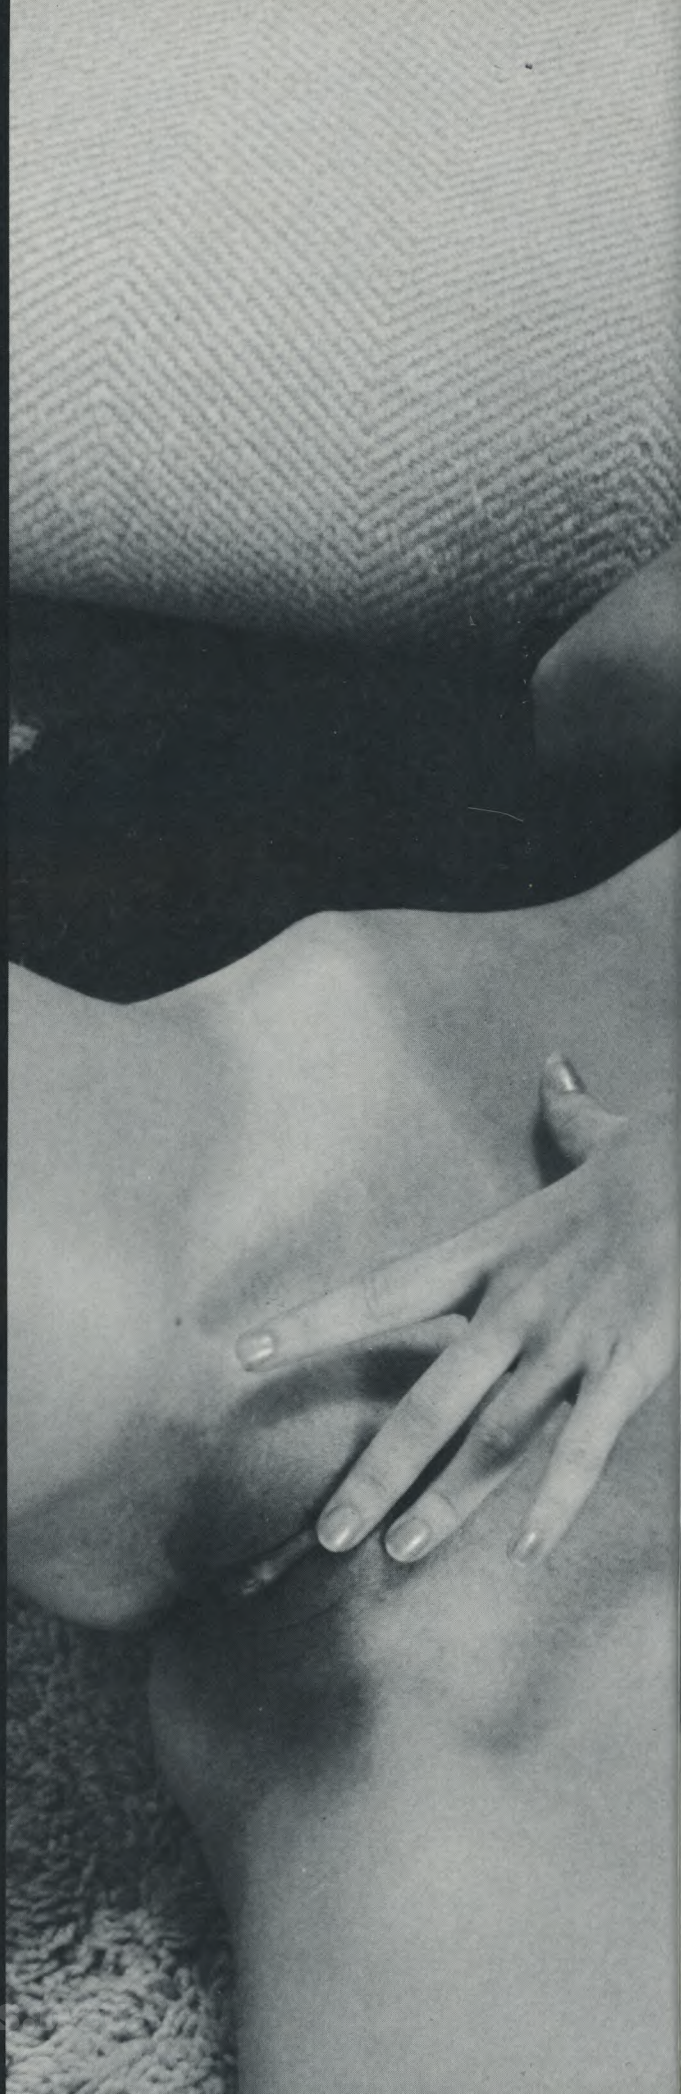

Sippin', Jugs

Joy is the hostess at a wine-tasting room. She's the best advertisement for big jugs the winery's ever had. For any size sample she cares to put out, the male customers line up, drooling and grabbing. No guy in his right mind will ever care for small size containers, once they've seen Joy in action.

HOT LICKS ON LEATHER

Debbi's leather armchair is where she dreams while waiting for her boyfriend. The hard arms around her and the rasp of the hide on her soft pelt really turn her on. She wraps her stems around those strong legs and squirms in her impatience for the real thing to get up and take care of her.

Baskets for Boobs

Cindy feels that when a girl needs a basket, she needs it bad. So any guy who'll supply her with one will get a double reward. And with Cindy that means an outstanding tit for tat.

Brett takes offense easily. So guys who knock her knockers never get a second chance to shaft her. Dudes who praise them can lay it on as heavy as they like.

BOOB CUSHIONS BOOB CUSHIONS BOOB CUSHIONS

Carmelita's no spring chicken, so she's heard every sad story in her bar. But sometimes a guy's so hard-up for tender, loving care and she can't take care of him right there. So she takes him in her back room, strips off her apron and opens up to whatever he wants to lay on her. Once a guy pillows his head on her super-soft cushions, he can stretch out at full length and pour out everything inside. Carmelita's good at relieving their loads.

BUSTING OUT OF SCHOOL

Graduation's over. Now for the big ball. Karen's hoping that as far as the male graduates go, her costume as a stripper will help her "lay 'em in the aisles."

SuEllen's got this nifty act for stage birthday parties. She struts in, carrying a big birthday cake covered with candles. If the guest of honor blows out all the candles, he gets to enjoy everything she brings with her. But if he misses blowing any out, then all the poor sap gets to eat is the birthday cake. Most guys blow like crazy for SuEllen.
