HARD TITS, SOFT HEART

Sylvester, my newest boyfriend is crazy about my breasts. He claims that he hasn't ever seen or felt a firm set like what I have. At times I feel embarrassed when he boasts to our friends in my presence that I have the 'hardest' set of tits of any woman . . . ever!

Now, don't misunderstand what I'm saying. Yes, I agree with Sylvester that I have been blessed with a healthy body and that it also includes a nice set of tits that I'm proud of. Even before I started dating guys, I would wear sheer blouses with no bra primarily to show the other women that my boobs stood up by themselves. To attract guys, I would wear thin, tight sweaters also braless so that they'd get an eyeful as my breasts swayed as I walked. My tits don't bounce when I walk although I tried to learn how to do it. From what I've seen, it is the full, but light-weight ones that bounce along with each step. My breasts are too heavy to respond that quickly. So, I'm content to allow them to sway, from side to side as I stroll down a busy shopping center driving girl watchers crazy. And that is exactly how I met Sylvester. I saw him from a distance, standing near a window display and as I approached. I could see the bulge forming in his pants and by the time I reached him, he was trying to hide a fully blown erection. I played the devil and asked him for the time, causing him to raise the hand that was hanging in front of his big boner. I looked down, smiled and suggested that he join me for a cup of coffee at the shop next door.

I guess I was impressed seeing a guy raise such a large erection in public merely from watching my big tits swaying from side to side as I walked toward him. I was pleased with myself for stirring this guy so easily and I found my pussy twitching with excitement and moisture forming between my tight pussy lips. We got along fine as we talked and made a date for the following night.

Sylvester took me to a disco place for dancing and I went all out and wore a see-through black top, without a bra, so that he could really get an eyeful. All the other men also stared at my tits while their girlfriends looked daggers at me. I was afraid that the manager may ask me to leave when he approached but all he did is compliment my figure (he was a tit lover, too!)

We danced until closing time and the manager invited us for a brandy before we left. I suppose he, too, wanted a closer look. I never realized how many devoted titty lovers there are and what effects a set of tits will have on them. I'm happy that I have a great set of tits.

Since Sylvester was a perfect gentleman all evening while a big erection tented his pants most of the time so I invited him in for a drink at my place. My pussy was aching for what he had in his pants and I was determined to relieve his and my anxiety. As you know, I'm known for having hard tits but I want you to know that I have a soft heart, too, and I'll give it to Sylvester with my wet pussy. ■

MY MAN LOVES THEM HUGE!

Although I have a nice lean and slender body my breasts grew bigger than I had anticipated. The result is that I look bigger on top than I really am and, naturally, I turn the heads of tit lovers everywhere I go. At first I tried to hide my breasts with loose tops but it did not work. Tit lovers, especially big tit lovers manage to find what they seek no matter how it is hidden.

Rick is no different. He, too, likes big breasts and each time we see each other, his hands are all over my chest. He thinks what I have now is OK but he is waiting for me to grow older, put on more weight and, naturally, get bigger tits. He claims that he only enjoys really huge breasts but is willing to bear with what I have in the meantime. The nerve of the guy, referring to my gorgeous breasts as being inadequate for him. Hell! I bet I can find dozens of men who would be pleased with my tits.

Rick claims that he is entitled to women with huge breasts because he comes with a huge cock. Granted, his penis is big and when he takes me to bed to make love, I have a most difficult time taking him into my body . . . anywhere. I find it difficult sucking him off because once I manage to stuff him in my mouth, I can't move my tongue or suck. So, I just sort of gulp with my throat giving his pecker head a feeling that I'm sucking it. He doesn't mind what I do because most women can't even get it in their mouth. As far as my pussy is concerned, he has one difficult time getting it in. I have a very tiny pussy hole and I can take him in only when I'm high and don't mind the pain. I know for a fact that I'll never give him my ass to fuck. It is the tightest opening I have. I presume he'll tire of me before I grew older, get heavier and grow bigger tits. What he needs is a cow-type lady.

I have thought of dumping Rick for someone who likes me as I am and has a cock I can handle. But, I must admit that I'm fascinated with the huge piece of meat that Rick has. So, while he is around, I like to play with it. Mostly, I love to masturbate him. It takes two hands to grip it and the strokes are very long to cover him from head to base. He has huge testicles to match and when he finally ejaculates, it looks like a fountain gushing. How many girls have the opportunity to fondle something of this nature? I'm lucky, so I take care of amusing myself at every chance I get. ■

I'M JUST A BIG TIT SUCKER

I grew up on a poor Georgia farm my folks tried to make work. Us kids would lend a hand as soon as we were able to walk. And that is where I acquired my habit. Our mother kept us at the breast until it was time for another baby. In my case, I sucked my mother's milk until I was five years old. That is how she fed us kids at the field. I was the oldest and when my brothers and sisters arrived, my mother treated me to her nipples just for old time sake. So, one can safely conclude that I sucked on a tit most of my life. Maybe that is why I'm blessed with such nice, firmly packed breasts and with nipples just begging for attention. All the way through high school, I let any guy suck on my tits and looking back, I don't believe I missed anyone. Of course, the school was not big. We had only one hundred students . . . half boys. Well, I have one more secret . . . I allowed all the men teachers to suck and play with my breasts, too.

The teachers being older and wiser wanted to have sex with me, but I was afraid of getting pregnant so I'd jerk them off and send them home to their wives while I went to bed and played with my pussy and sucked on my nipples. I learned the trick of sucking on my nipples from my mother. I watched her do it when my father was too tired to help her out.

With time, I've learned to take care of all my needs in the sexual department. I can get myself off with my fingers, use a dildo in my pussy and get a big thrill playing and sucking my breasts. The only thing I cannot do is lick and suck my pussy and clit. For that I do need another person. Lately, it has been Rudolph who takes care of me there. Lucky for me he is not a tit lover. He prefers a willing, moist pussy with a hard, pink clit.

With Rudolph I have a nice relationship. He takes care of my pussy in a manner I cannot, while I concentrate on my own breasts. I like when I'm having a double orgasm . . . one from my pussy and one from my tits. I can have either one very easily. Rudolph and I play games where we try to get me off on a double orgasm . . . simultaneously! So far, we've come close but not exactly at the same time. I probably will pass out if both hit me at the same instance so we don't play that game too often. He likes when we suck each other in the sixty-nine position and with this game, we have come together many times. I sort of like having male fluids coming into my mouth while my body is thrashing about in orgasm. Lately, Rudolph has started paying more attention to my butt hole. I wonder what is on his mind as he licks it and sticks his fingers into it? ■

TOYS FOR THE LONELY GAL

While my lover, George, is out of town, I'm very lonely and very horny. The only way I can get it off is when he sucks on my tits. So during his absence, I've learned to do the same. I can come rather easily if I have one nipple in my mouth while my finger is frigging my clit. I really don't need to rely on a dildo to fill my pussy hole because I'm most sensitive on both nipples and my clit. Lately, I've been giving myself more attention than ever. I don't know why because George is a good lover and always makes sure that I'm very content. But it seems that the more he gives me the more I need. I hope that this condition does not accelerate to the point where I become a nymphomaniac. When I play with myself during his absence, it helps me when I think of his hard penis sliding in and out of my pussy while he whispers sweet things in my ear. He admits loving my big tits for that is what attracted me to him. He was at the beach where the brave girls go topless and I happened there the day he was in a bad mood. It seems only flat chested ladies were in sight until I inveiled my pride and joy. He came to me without delay to tell me that I made his day. He was tired of looking at chests that only had nipples. He needed to see what I had. I thought it was funny but I did introduce myself and he and I became friendly within a few minutes. I permitted him to put sun lotion on my melons and as he gently rubbed in the lotion, I felt my pussy responding to his touch. That night we fucked! ■
