MAE

When you have three of the biggest treasures in the world in the palm of your hand then you can feel very secure. Count them! Those luscious boobs and a map that shows the way to sunken gold somewhere in the Caribbean. All of these are in beautiful Mae's possession!

There is no doubt that Mae's super measurements have helped a lot in raising the necessary money for the treasure hunt. A number of wealthy backers have suddenly appeared. They all want a piece of the action. Sucking on those ruby, hard nipples is a sufficient entree. That gets the juices bubbling and soon Mae's cute pussy is moist enough for further exploration. And you can bet those eager fingers don't hesitate a second.

Don't try to get Mae to give away any secrets. You might be able to get into her brief, silk, panties and open up those tight cunt lips with your throbbing tool but that doesn't mean that she is going to blab everything she knows. When it comes to business Mae has both feet on the ground.

It is true that she sticks those mind-blowing mounds out for all the world to see. At this point in her life she isn't playing any games. Time is flying by and Mae wants to make it big in other areas before the sun begins to set on her obvious beauty.

If she wanted to take off for the Caribbean right now she could do so. The money and the equipment are waiting for her. But Mae still wants to play her coquettish game. Wiggling her sensuous ass she can stop traffic dead in its tracks. There is nothing so beautiful to her ears as the screeching of brakes. Of course she pretends that she has no idea what is happening. When a limousine pulls up to her side she looks the other way. It takes a great deal of cajoling to get her attention.

Maybe Mae is wasting a lot of valuable time with all this game-playing but there is nothing she can do about this overwhelming urge. Something deep inside insists that she get out there and point those classic tits in all directions. (Not all at once, of course, that would be asking too much of her pliable body!)

This doesn't mean that Mae hasn't been taking a few covert cruises out into the Caribbean. Her curiosity has motivated her to make these midnight journeys. Usually the crew is quite horny and Mae finds that before the last sail is unfurled an orgy is being organized on deck.

Getting fucked under a tropical moon is an adventure Mae has no intention of giving up. There is something about a sailor's stiff cock that continually sends chills of wonder up and down her spine.

Since Mae is the captain she does have to keep her mind on navigating every once in awhile. She doesn't want to be left high and dry on some concealed shoal. Maybe she would be stranded for a week and her poor pussy would get rammed too many times before the eventual rescue.

So far Mae hasn't come upon the exact location of the sunken treasure. Her talents as a diver have been incorporated during these tentative searches. Most of the time she is in the nude when she dips beneath the waves. Those mammoth boobs float out before her as though they were tantalizing satellites. Even the fish have a hard time swimming by that incredible exhibition. Once in awhile one of the sailors drop over the side and before Mae knows what is happening her pussy is getting the full water treatment. Naturally she comes up to the surface gasping for air. But even with all these interruptions she has made some interesting discoveries. The treasure is not that far away.

Already the members of her favorite crew are dividing up the booty. Sometimes Mae gets a little worried about this because often she hears her name mentioned as though she were part of the plunder.

Perhaps the crew is planning to kidnap Mae and keep her a prisoner for their sexual desires. In a strange way this is rather exciting to her but, of course, she would never admit this to anyone.

There is a minute chance that the treasure will be bypassed this year. Mae is ready for such a disappointment. To compensate for this loss she will fuck the entire crew and set sail in a new direction.

As you can see, this lady isn't about to give up. And with a pair of jouncing jugs like that she has nothing to worry about. There will always be someone nearby to give her more encouragement. Mae is a winner all the way. And with a pair of tits that are at the top of the heap.
