HANDLES FOR THE LADY

Henrietta busies herself in the early evening hours contemplating what lays in store for her later to-night. It is quite evident that she is in the process of preparing herself spiritually for some kind of erotic dalliance, for she is carefully examining and preening the veritable cornerstone of her amorous armory, her heavy handles.

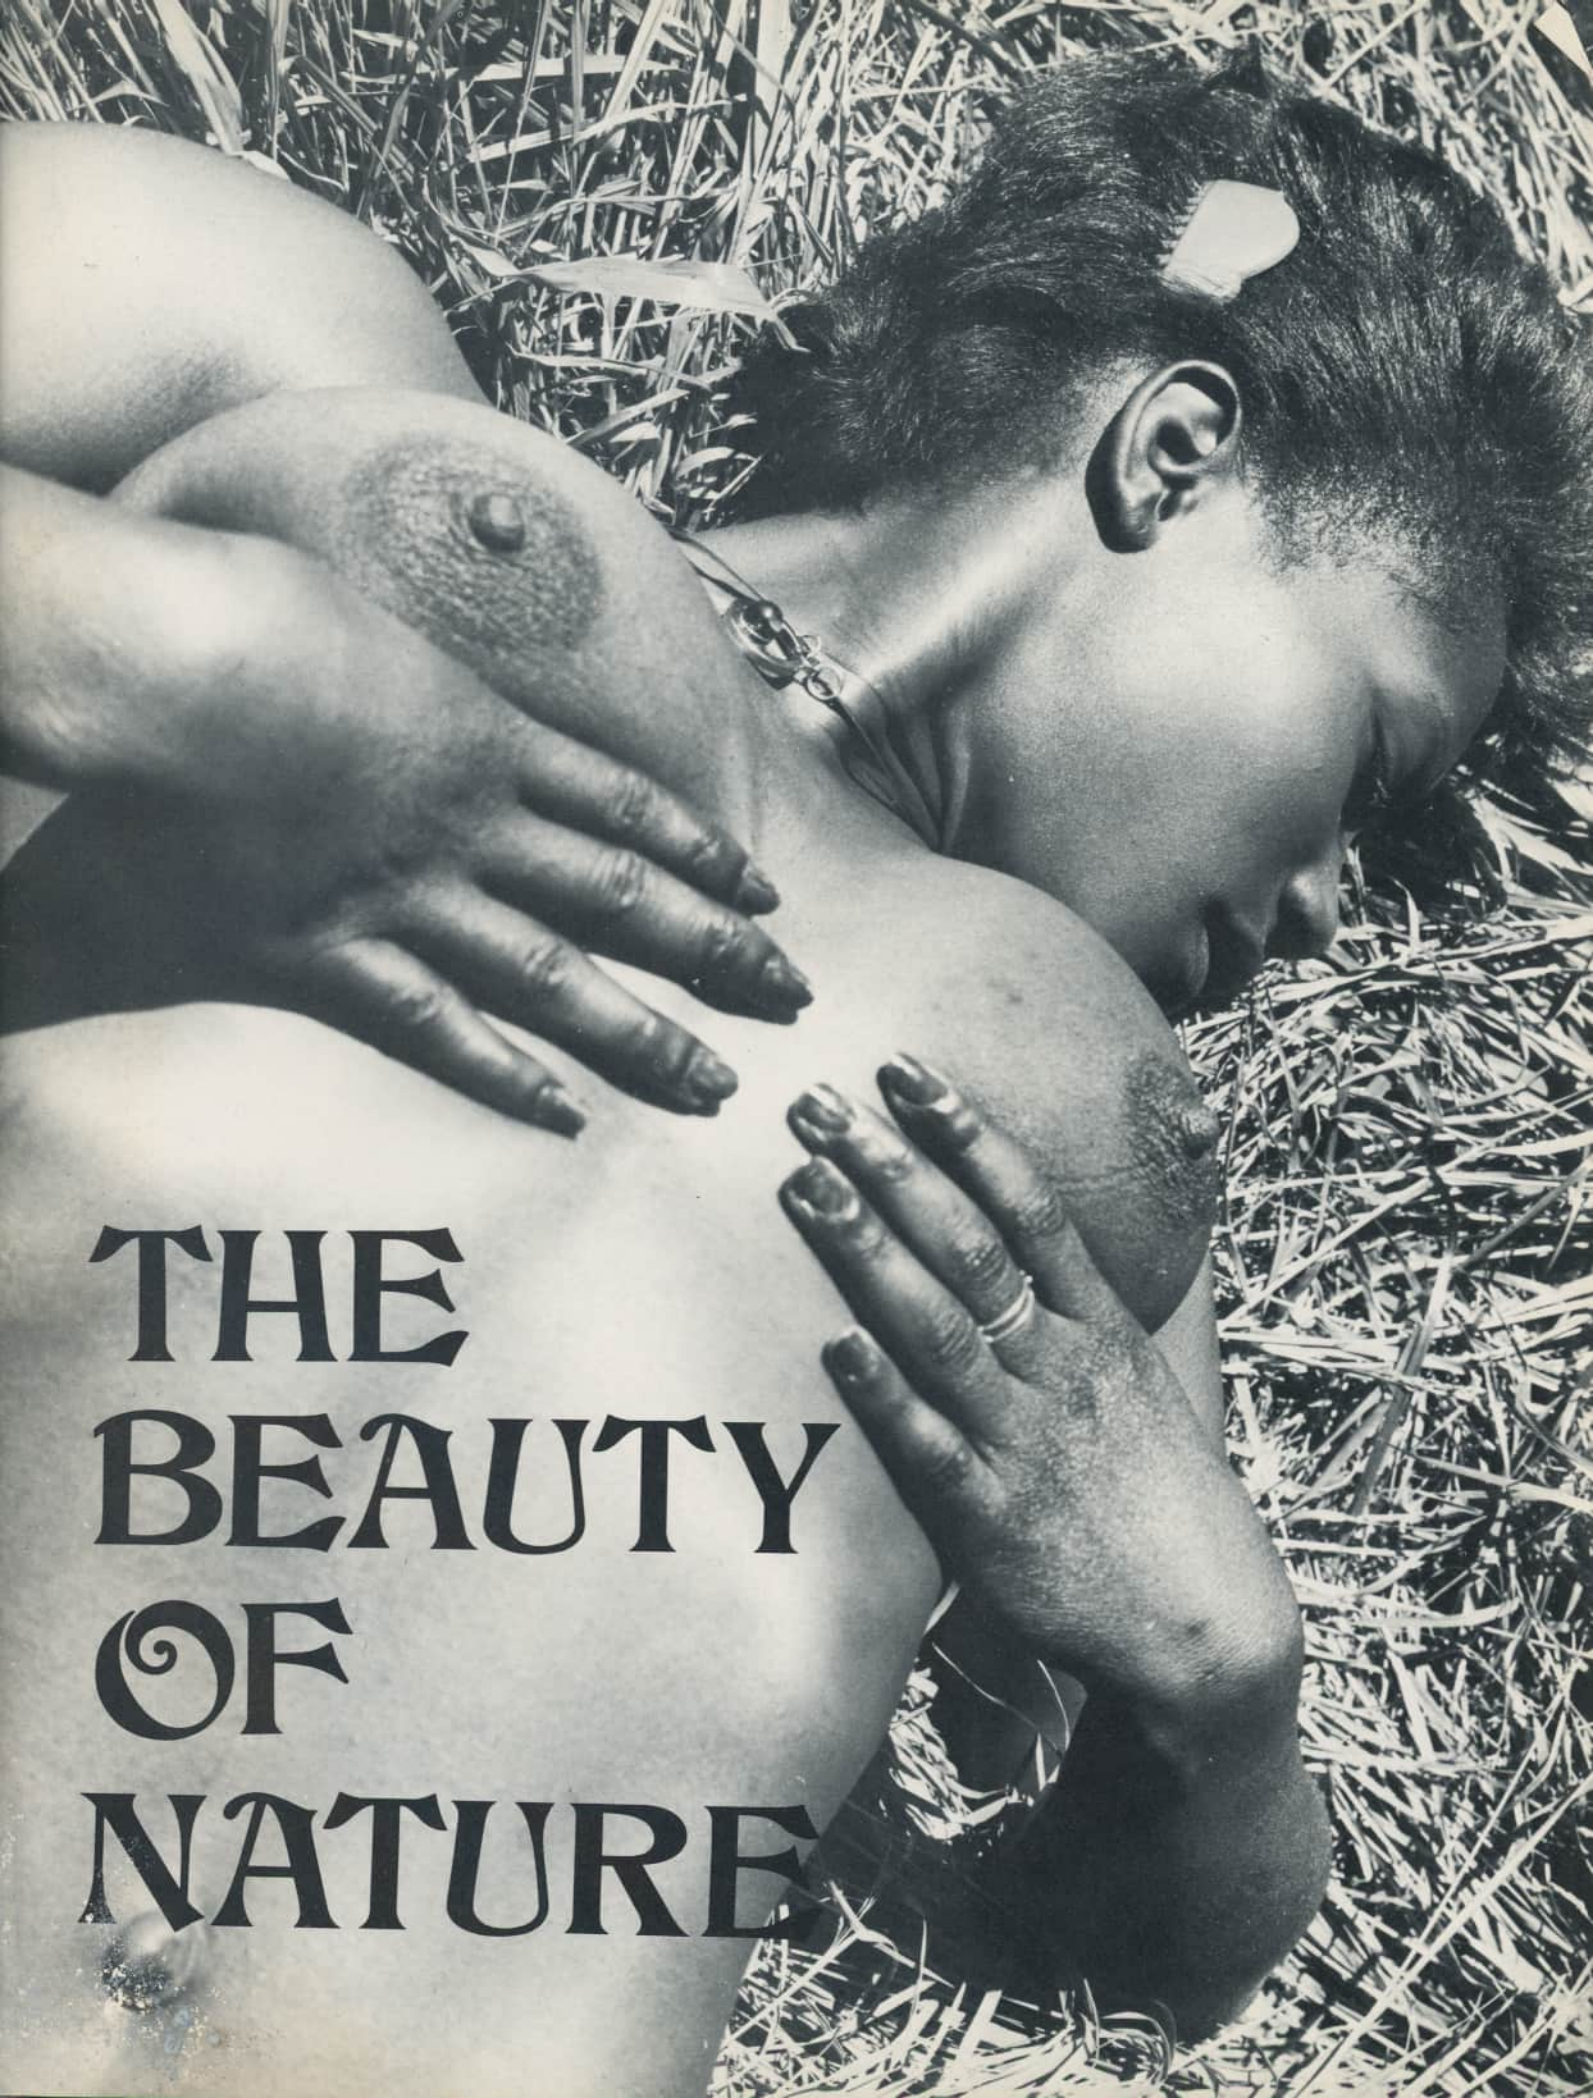

Henrietta's keen sense of pride in her physical endowments and especially in the magnificence of the mammaries which grace her dusky bosom, helps her to achieve a subtle kind of fantasy situation, and as the minutes of yearning anticipation slowly turn to hours, she scarcely notices the passage of time.

At last the ritual of lusty imagination takes its final form, and the sweet, young thing strips herself to the buff and yields to sense of fantasy just as the doorbell rings.

THE BEAUTY OF NATURE

As our expedition passes into its fifteenth day on our way to the core of the deepest, darkest part of the unknown territory, one of our trusty guides emits a muffled squeal of lust as she parts a screen of ferns. We step up to the vantage point and there, before our weary eyes is spread the beauty of nature.

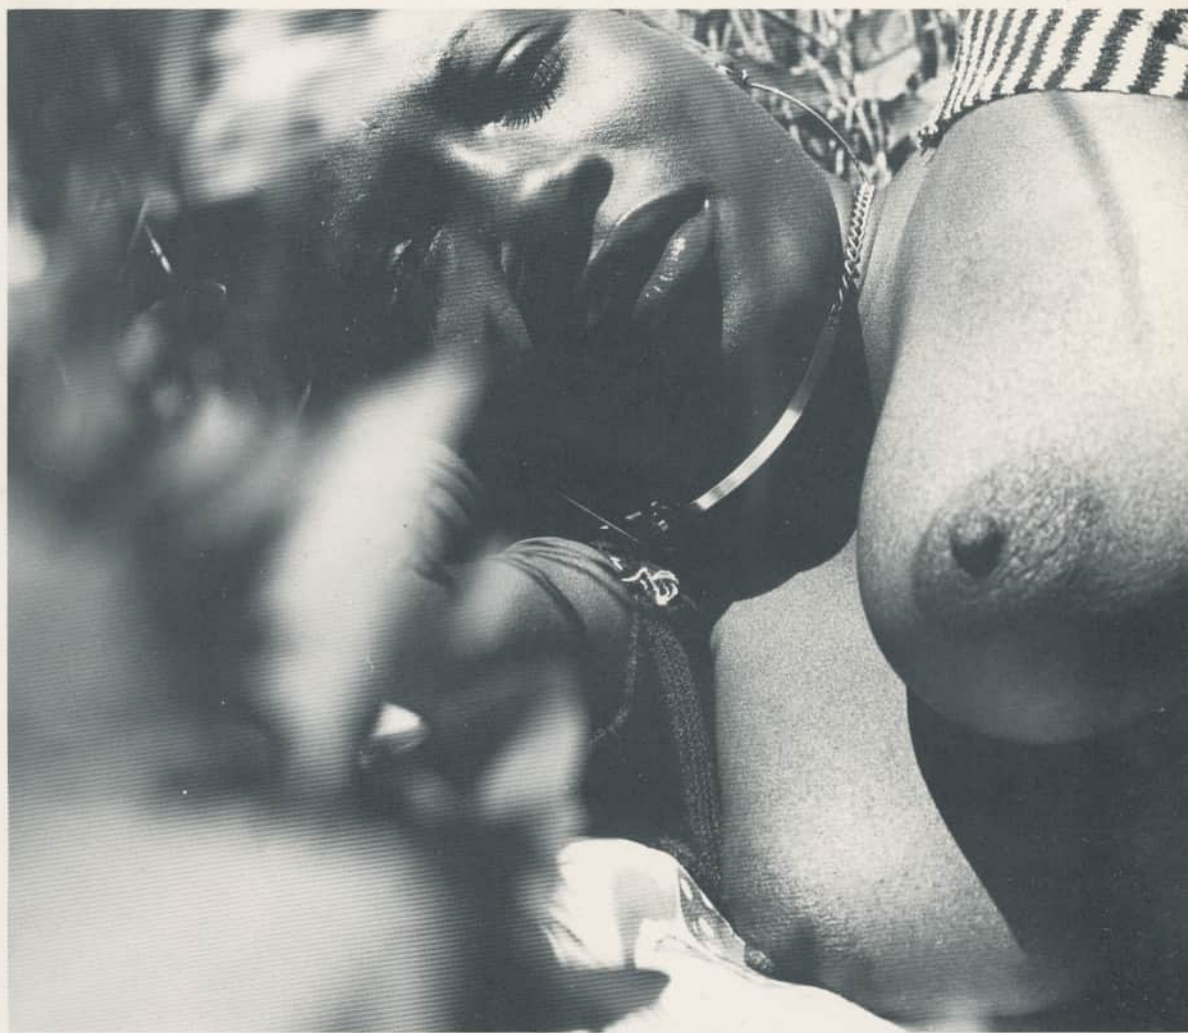

There beneath the cruel mid-day sun, in a state of total natural innocence, a native wench of extraordinary proportions lies in reverie.

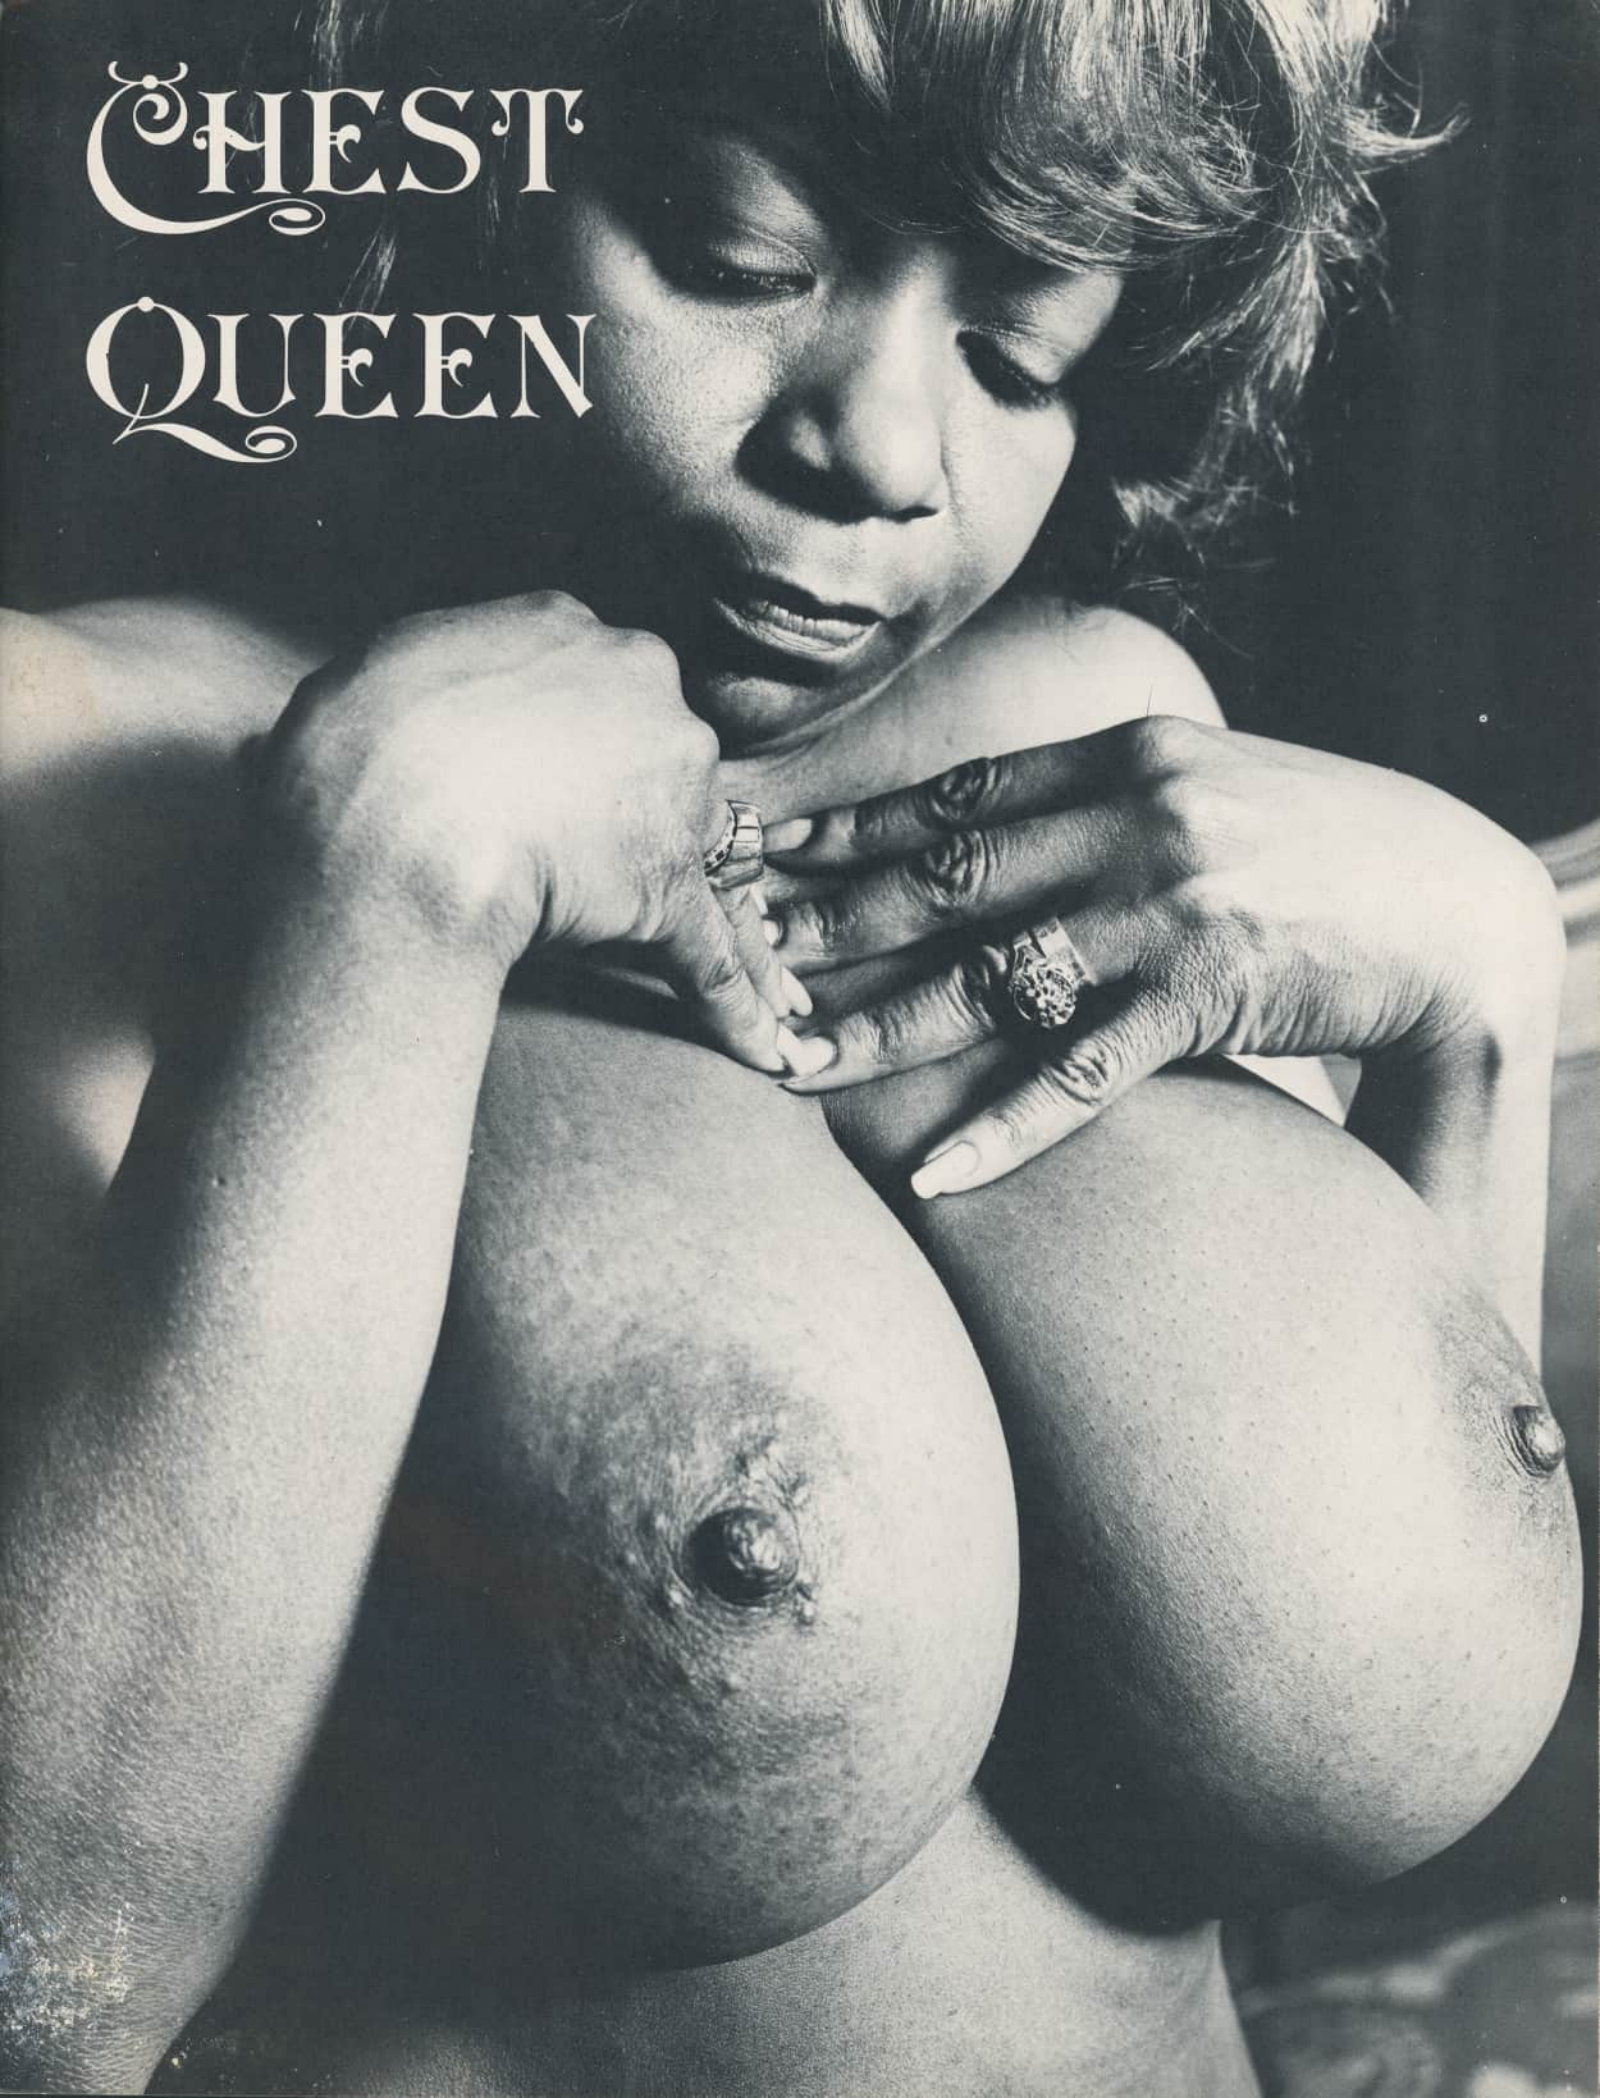

As the vision becomes clearer to our jaded and long deprived eyes, we realize that this native girl is far from the innocent we first thought she must be, for she bears the signs of experience in her wantonness and in the articles of adornment she has chosen to enhance her primitive lustiness.

CHEST QUEEN

Can there be any doubt that we have at last entered into the realm of the Chest Queen? In her plush chambers the Suzerain of Size determines who shall live and who shall die, and most importantly, for herself, who shall receive the blessings of her bosom.

The pomp and pleasure of the Royal life have turned the Chest Queen into a languid, liquid receptacle for love.

And where does this regal feast of flesh seek to direct the attentions of her selfless and slavish lovers?
To her magnificent mounds, the padding of her queenly heart.

THE MODEL GAME

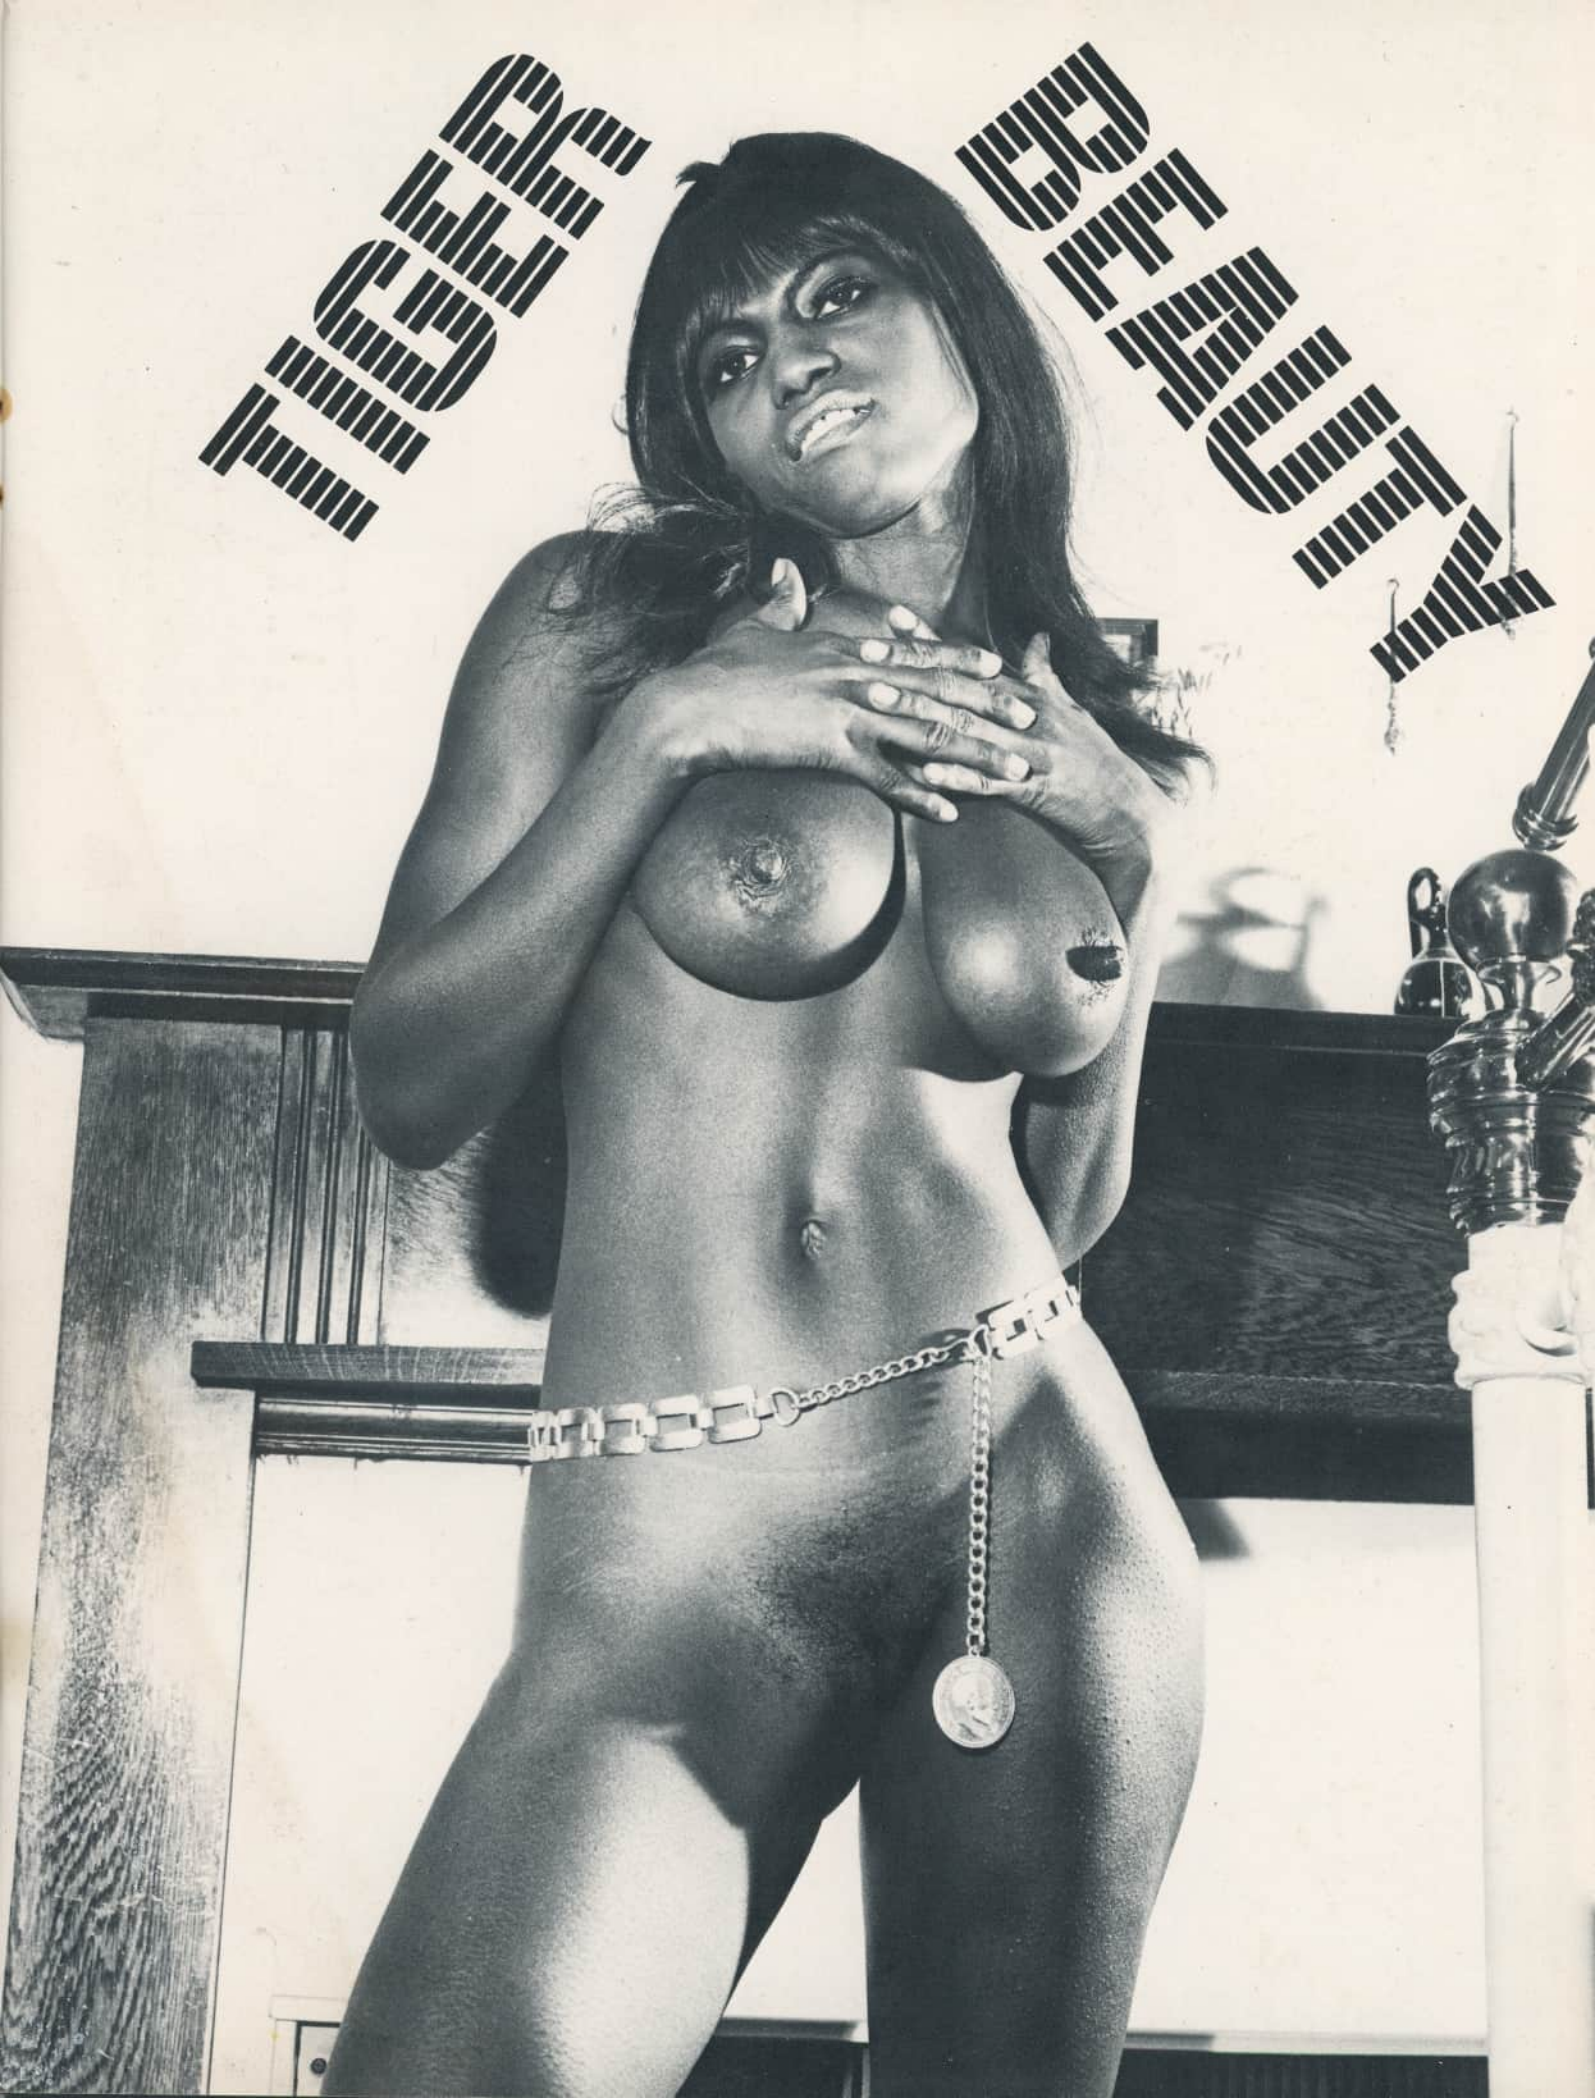

BRIT

BRIT

This healthy young fox is well equipped to deal with any sophisticated situation demanding feline vigor and the strength that comes from the self confidence one gains when one has the tools of the trade supplied in ample proportion. The real question is whether or not you can keep up with this tigress.

Every move this animal beauty makes is an invitation to experience new heights in sensual excitement, and each pose she strikes can inflame the passionate male to new boldness.

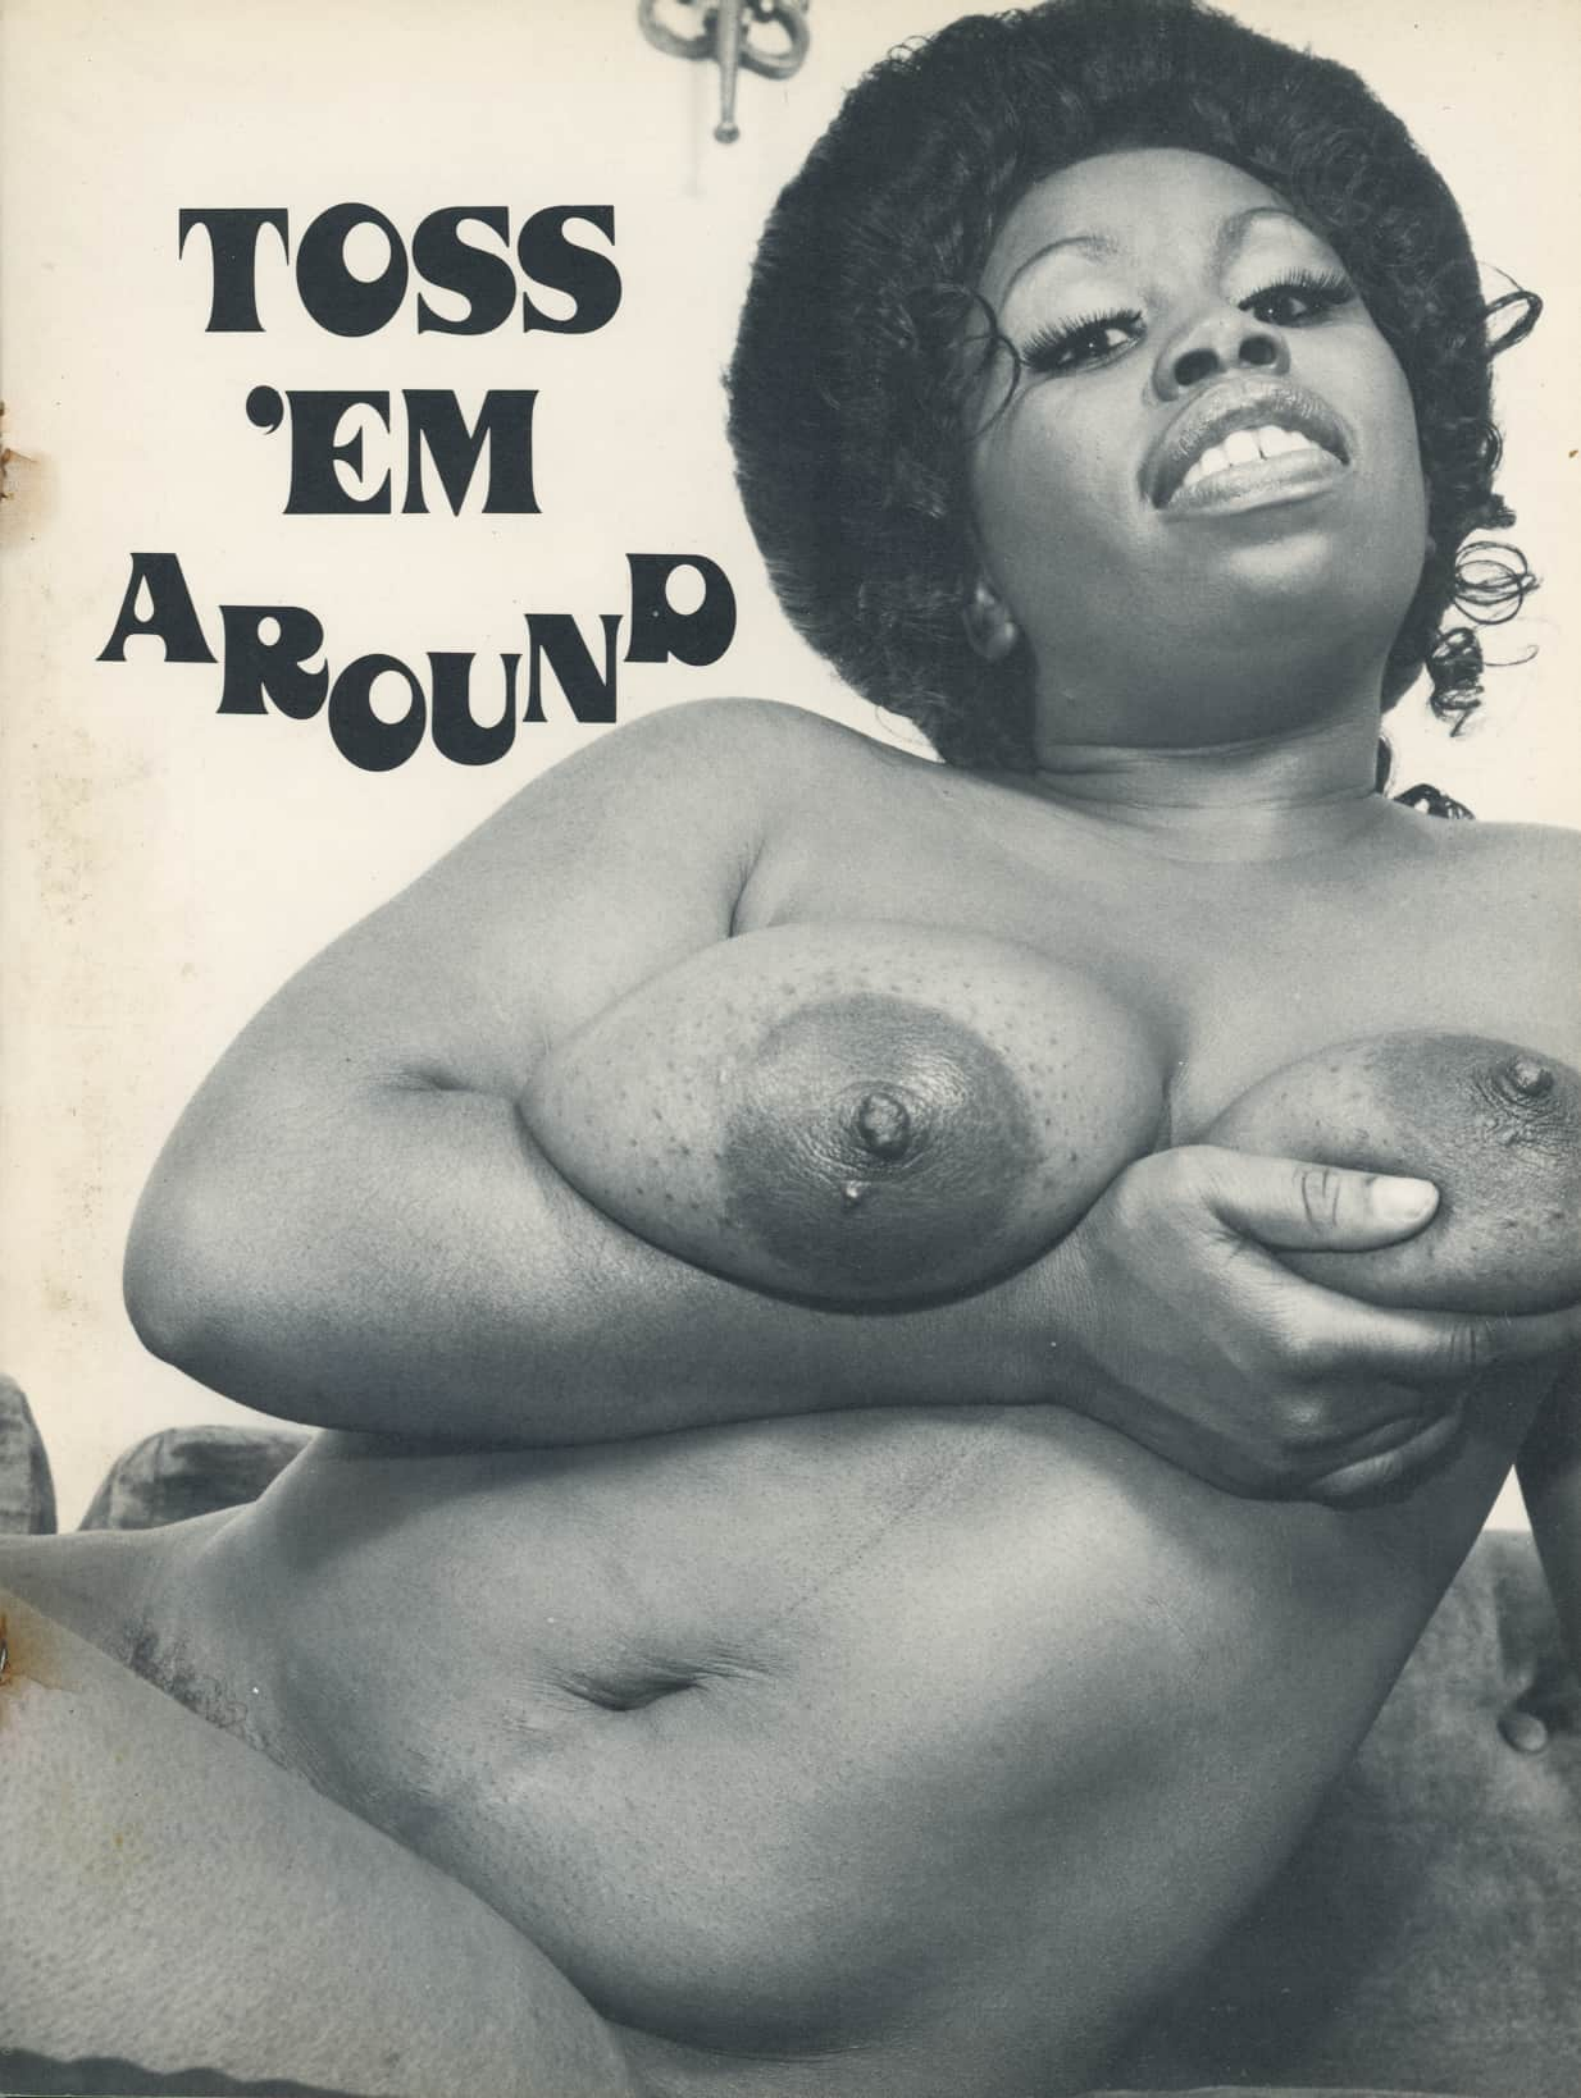

No real man could help himself when placed in close proximity to this piece, and we have no reason to think that this tiger beauty would be inclined to shy away from any man who was bold enough to enter her lair and make his most outrageous sensual demands clear to her. With her natural attributes and appetites, she plays for keeps.

TOSS

AROUND

Growing up with massive jugs can present a problem to a girl. For example, bras are hard to come by that comfortably support such weight, and older men are always trying to feel them, pinch them, and slobber over them. Jennifer always enjoyed things like that.

However, Jennifer Joplin came up with a solution for that one -- she decided not to wear bras and also not to wear blouses -- first topless mama. Most of her male friends thought it was just fine.

However again, there's always a spoilsport in any crowd and Jenny's was no different. It turned out that she had an uncle -- on her mother's side -- who was a little fishy. For some reason that no one wanted to talk about, he didn't like the sight of all that naked flesh. She had to cover up.

ALL YOU EVER WANTED

Step right up studs and scholars for you'll surely have your hands full when you start to relate to this mountainous bit of black magnificence. Don't think twice, just shut those disbelieving eyes and make your way through the valleys and hills.

As you can see, our lovely lady of the hills is eager to get it on and obviously has a well developed sense of pride in herself and the gifts that the almighty has bestowed upon her in His infinite and ever so generous wisdom. She's got all she ever needs.

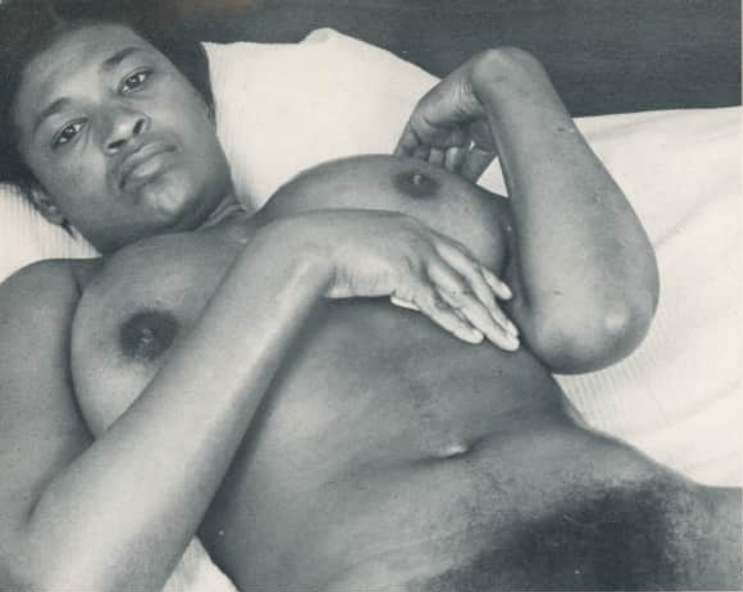

Well well, mylady has, it seems, found herself some sort of a doppleganger for what her solitary situation is lacking. Can Miss Mounds be satisfied in such a simple, solitary fashion?

As we leave our man sized friend, it is easy to see that she really is all anyone could ever want or even handle for that matter, and that her lustful appetites are as ample as are her physical endowments. She's truly more than adequate; she's abundant.

I am an adult, 21 years of age, or over. I believe that an adult person has the right to buy and read, in the privacy of his home, publications relations and nudity, which I consider to be private matters. I understand that I have the right, as a law abiding citizen, to receive for my own private use any material of interest to me. I desire to exercise this right and agree not to resell any material I receive and not to make such material available to minors.

Flora is well equipped and apparently quite eager to get it on -- we can see that she is busily engaged in preparing herself both sensually and psychologically for an evening of fast and furious floating, and evidently this charming piece has the pontoons to provide any man with all that he could possibly handle.

Flora's patience is obviously running short now; she's stripped herself down and is running steaming hot water for the evening bath. It'll be well worth our time to stick with this buxom beauty.

She's where she's at her best now folks, floating freely in her own dream world, getting herself all soapy and succulent and ready to slip into something a lot more comfortable. Can this Black Beauty find bliss alone in the bathroom?
