SHOCKING
PORN

Time to welcome another 8-cup dance sensation to the 'House of the Future' as Penelope Pumpkins makes her debut dance for adult dance communities. We have been since Joseph Penelope as part of the show on the side and the other way too, but she's been doing well for the last year and a half and now it is, in fact, she's especially excited about making her 'first' debut in the December issue because her birthday is December 15th. If you'd like to wish Penelope a happy—and happy-birthday to just that just look about the 'Penelope party' you can write her at Penelope Pumpkins Bar Club, 1077 Abbot St., Los Angeles, CA 90044.

One of Penelope's most endearing traits is that she doesn't take herself too seriously. She laughingly reveals that her measurements are billed on the circuit as being an other-worldly 72HHH-24-34. She also scoffs at the idea that someone in her position be unapproachable. In fact, she wants you all to know that if you ever catch one of her shows, come by and say hi, and maybe sit down and have a drink with her. If things go well, she might tell you in more elaborate detail what she told us on the phone about her sexual proclivities: she enjoys using strap-on dildos with her lezzie lovers; she likes being rubbed with ice; her boobs are sensitive but she likes for them to be handled vigorously and when she fucks, she swears like a sailor.

Madison

When test shots of Madison came into our offices last month, we immediately cleared space for her in the Nov. '97 "Candidly Yours" section. And now, with the ink barely dry on that initial amateur layout, here she is making her pro debut. Sorry we didn't let you guys weigh in with your opinions on Madison, but we figured you'd all want to see her beautiful face and cock-stiffening 40-24-36 body again as soon as possible. Were we right? Drop us a line and let us know.

You'll recall we told you last month that Madison is an exotic dancer in Southern California, but had never modeled before. Well, as you can see from these scintillating shots, Madison took to posing like a surfer to a huge wave. Once she turns on the sexual charm, there's no turning it off. Whether she's showing off her tan-lined tits, gorgeous legs or inviting pussy, Madison does so in such a way that is provocative yet strangely innocent. We find the combination erotic as hell...and want to see more of it in the near future.

MOVING VIOLATIONS

The only thing hotter than this dance duo's on-stage act is their off-stage lust—for each other!

TEXT AND PHOTOS BY JAMES HAMILTON

My good friends from the Mermaid Lounge (GENT/Aug. '96) called recently and told me I had to get over there and check out a duo dance act known as Moving Violations. Always on the lookout for new talent, I showed up that very night. I can tell you that I was not prepared for the three-ring circus that I was about to photograph and later interview. I had originally planned to stay for one show, do my interview and head for home. Ultimately, I stayed until closing to photograph all six scintillating shows they presented.

"Moving Violations" doesn't begin to describe what Mini and Giggles do on stage. They don't just come out and dance as a pair — no, every show they put on has a theme. In one night they presented the following scenarios: a criminal/police man; a student/teacher; an angel and devil; a drug deal gone bad; a pool show and a fluorescent paint show. All told, Moving Violations travels with two dozen separate shows.

When Moving Violations arrives at a club, they simply take it over. When they are not on stage, they are busy shooting and autographing Polaroids, selling shirts, caps and other Moving Violations memorabilia. All the while they constantly lobitz with the audience. I have never seen a feature act dominate a club the way they do.

Both ladies are high-energy whirlwinds of sexual magnetism. Off-stage, they never stop talking. Mini slides up to you from the side, wedges your upper arm in between her ample cleavage and scratches your back while she talks to you. It's rather a pleasant way to hold a conversation.

And on-stage, one thing is immediately clear — these chicks really dig each other. Their intimate conduct on stage lead me to inquire about their off-stage relationship and that's where the interview started.

So, who gets laid after the show?

Giggles: I do, but then I've got a sure thing. I go home with her.

Mini: I tell the customers that I have to go because if I don't, my girlfriend's going to get mad at me and I'm not going to get laid tonight.

And who eats pussy the best?

Giggles: I don't know. I'd say it's pretty even.

Mini: That's not true — I do, I do. I have toys in my mouth. I have "drool-ry." It makes you drool.

That and a pocket rocket and you are all set. I gave one of those to a friend of mine and it has never left her purse.

Giggles: We spend a lot of time on the road. Sometimes three months straight and we always have each other. That's the great thing about being a duo, because we always have each other.

Mini: If we are sad or lonely, we have each other. If we are arguing, we have each other. We work together and we stay together, so you have to be real good friends. First and foremost, we are the best of friends!

How long have you been together?

Giggles and Mini [simultaneously]: Six years.

How did you get started together?

Mini: We met at a club called Mary's in Sarasota, Florida.

Giggles: It's kind of an intimidating club, so when she started there she befriended me because I was the biggest girl in the place.

Mini: I may not know much, but I know how to survive. I figured if I made friends with her, everybody else would kinda leave me alone. They always had headlining acts there and for the first three years, we hung out there and watched. For the last three years, we have been traveling across the country.

Is it tougher to get bookings as a duo?

Giggles: It can be, but we give people a lot of breaks because we love to work.

Mini: It is tough; we have to split the money — but we also split the expenses, so it all works out.

Do you do everything together?

Mini: On the road, we do everything together, but when we go home we live apart.

It's very apparent that you enjoy each other's company both on and off stage, but the question is: do you also like men?

Mini: I love men and I love my job.

Giggles: I get naked, I get to play with myself and I get paid to do it. What other job has that benefit?

Mini: Political!

Giggles: A lot of girls have forgotten that this is a fun job.

Mini: Hey, it's the most fun you can have with your clothes...off.

What would be your ultimate fantasy show if there were no rules and you could do whatever you wanted?

Mini: I would pour honey all over her body and lick her from top to bottom.

Giggles: And I'd lie there loving every minute of it. That's my idea of a good show. Any time I lie down and get licked.

[Both laugh in unison.]

Giggles: You see, the main thing is,

we love our job!

Mini: There a few things I don't want us to put on stage. We have a great deal of intimacy that the public doesn't — and shouldn't — have access to. We can only give them so much; we have to keep some for ourselves, so those fantasies are usually played out in private...where there are no rules or laws.

Giggles: I like to control her, but she wants to keep that just between us.

Mini: She does pretty much control me.

Giggles: Yeah!

Mini: I let her think that anyway.

And, Mini, you're the submissive one?

Mini: Oh, that I am.

Giggles: Yeah, she's my good girl!

You have done photos together. Have you done any video together?

Giggles: "No, but we're working on it. Those are projects that are in our future.

Mini: We are a little nervous about doing video because we are both very showy, but we also have our private life and we don't know if we want to cross over and lose that privacy. We really don't want to do porno, but who knows.

Giggles: I love to watch porno, but I don't know if I'm ready to perform in one yet.

So there is the possibility that you may do something in the future?

Mini and Giggles [simultaneously]: Stay tuned!

And this ended my conversation with Moving Violations. If they come to your town, don't miss them. To find out when they might be in your area, contact their fan club at: Moving Violations, P.O. Box 484, Englewood, Florida 34295. G

SUZIE BOOBIES

Sure, she's pretty in pink, but as you'll see upon turning the page, Suzie Boobies is even prettier when she's showing pink. If you're a long-time Gent follower, you've been anxiously awaiting the return of busty blonde bombshell Suzie Boobies; if you're new to the "Home of the D-cups," here's your fair warning: get some extra tissues 'cause sultry Suzie's gonna leave you a gooey, dripping mess.

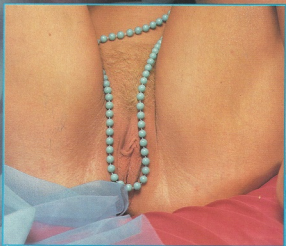

Even though we haven't seen Suzie for several years, her curvaceous 42-24-34 figure looks just as enticing as we remember. And like we said in the opening spread, Suzie knows how to make a man spurt his sperm. For further proof of this, you should check out her scorching solo video in which she diddles her moist muff to orgasm in a variety of settings. Our favorite is the shower scene—she gets wet in more ways than one! This month's Gent Video Library on page 1 has all the ordering details.

NIGHT LITES

NEWS FROM THE EXOTIC DANCE CIRCUIT

Atlanta...On Fire!

Atlanta was burning up again recently when the hottest dancers in the biz strutted, stalked, slinked and slithered across the stage at the famed Palomino Club. They were vying for a place in the winner's circle at the Miss Nude Atlanta Pageant. Galardi South Enterprises hosted the event and thousands of fans enjoyed the performances over the several weeks the competitions were held.

Felecia, a gorgeous hard-body, took home the gold medal in the Olympic city this year. Other notable performers included last year's winner Shari Lauren and Crystal Dawn.

No New Taxes—At Least Not On Lap Dances!

It's only fair that we, as Americans, pay taxes to fund the things that make our country great...but a tax on lap dancing?!

Come on!

It may sound somewhat over the top, but that's just what Florida governor Lawton Chiles is suggesting his state's government do. By placing a tax on lap dancing and other live entertainment, Chiles thinks the state could raise over $8 million, thereby boosting economic development.

As far as we're concerned, that's why Florida has Disney World, South Beach and orange groves. Taxing a man's lap dance is just, well...unconstitutional!

Felecia (above) and Ginger were just two of the scorching performers who burned up Atlanta's Palomino Club.

Club Owner Busted

Earlier this year, Ludwig Fainber, the owner of Porky's Strip Club in Miami, was indicted as the middleman in various drug schemes, including a misguided attempt to buy a Russian submarine. The vessel was allegedly to be used by Colombian drug lords to ship cocaine to California. All's we can say is: what a boob!

Unlike the owner of Porky's, this manager of Lipstick in Dallas knows how to be a "middleman"—in this case, for the dance team Cookie Connection.

More Tipping Woes

If exotic dance fans think they've got it bad in Florida (see "No New Taxes—At Least Not On Lap Dancers"), they should be glad they don't live in California where a proposed legislative bill would make tipping nude dancers...illegal! That's right, showing your favorite stripper your appreciation with a little green could land you both in jail if bill AB726 passes. The adult industry has been spurred into action, though, led by the vigorous lobbying of Xplor Media representatives Tim Lake and Dirty Dave Cummings. Stay tuned.

International Flavor We Know You Wanna Tastel

In El Paso, TX, the recent Miss Nude International Pageant was a whirlwind of fierce but friendly competition among the dancers. The contest was held at the Naked Harem and featured nothing but show-stoppers from beginning to end. Miss Nude Universe McKenna Mills was there to coronate the new Miss Nude International, the incomparable Catherine D'Lish. Also taking home coveted titles were Kandi Coxx (Miss Nude Blonde Runner-Up), Sierra Shame (Miss Nude Brunette), Risque (Miss International Table Dancer), Jordan Michaels (Hottest Newcomer and Miss Nude International Petite), Samantha St. James (Best Buns) and Sinnamon (Best Legs and Most Sensuous).

Catherine D'Lish (below) cuts a tasty Miss Nude International figure while Tera Heart and Jade St. Clair appear ready to take nibbles out of each other.
