JUSTICE TRIUMPHANT

How's this for an incredible find? Her name is Justice Howard, a former Canadian now living in California, and one of the biggest new models to come along in many a moon. Justice is one of those girls who decided she'd like to model for GENT, sent in some photos on her own and made an immediate impression on our editor...and who wouldn't be impressed with this great looking blonde beauty who stands a mere 5'4" tall but boasts a pair of incomparable 44-inch tits, a 28-inch waist and 38-inch hips. A voluptuous 139 pounds, she's everything a man who loves a real woman could ask for. She has good looks, a flawless pink form, and ah, her cherry-tipped bazooms are "whopper class."

This small sampling of our big discovery are photos which Justice had taken by a local photographer. We're hoping that we can get Justice to one of GENT's contributing photographers and bring you a big layout, shot the way you like 'em with lots of bra shots and those classic titty photos for which we're famous. This is one model who is too good to lose, so keep your fingers crossed. She certainly has the potential for being a "biggie," and has expressed a desire to become a regular. So far, we don't have a lot of background information on Justice, but we'll try to get all the scoop for you next time. Justice looks like she could do almost anything from exotic dancing to movies but it's just possible she is one of those beauties who has been leading a rather quiet life, unaware that she had a veritable treasure under her blouse.

DRUSILLA

Drusilla Payne, an English model, is a prime example of what they mean by an English complexion. She has an absolutely flawless body that doesn't look like she has ever been out in the sun... a veritable vista of mouth-watering pink from her beautifully shaped tits with teeny bud-like nipples right down to her creamy thighs. Dru is a marginal D-cupper with a 37-25-36 body.

A former secretary, Drusilla appeared in last July's issue doing a teasing "secretary strip" show for us and she's one erotic looking lady with or without clothes. One of the appealing things about Dru is that she really looks like a quite prim and proper young lady...just the type a lot of us regard as a real challenge. It's easy to bed a gal who is sort of easy but a real lady takes a little more time and effort. Dru says that she probably likes men about as well as the next girl but that she does appreciate being treated with some class. She enjoys modeling because she confesses that exhibitionism is a part of her personality, but just because she takes her clothes off for the camera doesn't mean she's an easy lay.

LAURA & Company

Since her debut in 1982, Laura Sands has become one of our most popular and frequently photographed models, but our readers never seem to tire of this timeless beauty's appearances. Tremendously versatile, Laura always has something new to offer when she poses and this time she has invited a friend.

GENT has closely followed Laura's career in our pages. Shortly after her first appearance, we found out she was pregnant and subsequently featured her just before the blessed event, with a swollen tummy that almost (but not quite) overwhelmed those magnificent 41-inch knockers which had swollen to a size 44. A petite girl, she is only 5'2" tall, but she's a veritable bundle of dynamite. These shots were taken when she was about four months along and obviously still enjoying herself with a guy who seems to be having a hard time keeping cool. Laura has since had her baby, is doing very well, but has had to curb her modeling due to the rigors of motherhood. We don't know if this guy is the father of her baby or just a lucky model who had a chance to pose with one of the finest pair of big suckables in the business and he certainly wastes no time giving them the attention that they deserve.

There's no question that Laura has earned a permanent place in the D-cup Hall of Fame. Her growth as a model in two years has been tremendous. We've seen Laura from a shy beginner to a very self-assured, versatile and sensuous professional who is willing to do anything to please our readers. She has worked hard for stardom and certainly deserves it. Our last feature on Laura was a girl/girl set where she cavorted unashamedly with another female model (who looked downright underdeveloped beside Laura's mind-bogglers) and she has also made a film (which is available from our Film Library—write for details) and here she is showing us that she is really as sexy as she appears when she is alone with just the camera. We can only envy the lucky guy and also admire him for his restraint in not turning this photo session into a triple-X rated scenario. It takes a pretty cool dude not to blow his serenity after a session with such an incredibly seductive vixen as Laura is. She's one sexy lady!

Remembering Vicki Harris

Here's a longing look back in time at one of GENT's most spectacular models, the exuberant, incredible, adorable Vicki Harris. Vicki was discovered back in 1979 by our Chicago based photographer James Hamilton, and over the ensuing couple of years, she was featured at least a half-dozen times. One of our favorite features was Vicki playing a losing game of strip poker, letting us lust after her as she slowly exposed her beautiful 44-28-38 figure.

Alas, Vicki has stuffed her great 44s back into her bra and has retired to California, much to our sad regret.

Just as Vicki was headed for the D-cupper Hall of Fame, she inexplicably stuffed her magnificent 44s back into her bra and left for California and retirement from the modeling biz. Since then we've had numerous queries as to what happened to Vicki. We luckily had some material from this past feature so here's Vicki, the blonde bombshell, tauntingly teasing us with a strip poker sequence that makes us wish we were there with a handful of aces. Vicki was a very versatile model who always gave us something different in every feature. Her supply of exotic lingerie seemed endless as did her constant smile, sexy come-and-get-it look, and that indefinable something.

BARBARA: Impressive!

We have some gorgeous new D-cuppers making their debuts this month, and beautiful Barbara Alton, in the centerfold slot, leads the team with knockers that are incredible.

She's only 5'1" tall, weighs a mere 100 pounds and her measurements are 39-24-34, which means she's almost half as big around the bust as she is tall. That's impressive! We don't know where Barbara has been hiding her talents until now, but it didn't take long after her arrival in California for our eagle-eyed scouts to find her and set her on the modeling trail. Undoubtedly Barbara will be heavily photographed over the next few weeks and months because a model like this is a rare find. She's a combination of that cute, petite type of girl that drives a lot of fatherly types crazy, and a pair of jugs on a slender little body like this makes them even more outstanding. Barbara is also appearing in our sister magazine Cavalier this month... different hair style, same girl.

In our slender-oriented society, girls like Barbara sometimes have a hard time adjusting to having gigantic bosoms, and she's no exception. She says she developed quite early and was subjected to a lot of kibbitzing as a young girl which made her self-conscious. After all, it probably wasn't easy having the biggest boobs in Cleveland. But she has adjusted, and the fact that she's now willing to share her treasures shows how far she has come. We predict that Barbara will have no trouble at all rising to the top of the field.

Her perfectly formed breasts have very dark areolae, a telltale sign that she might be pregnant. Is she? Only time will tell whether our guess is right.

Our resident breast experts have commented that Barbara has unusually dark areolae which is usually a sign of pregnancy, plus her navel is slightly protruding. Is she? Only time will tell and if that's the case, we can all hope perhaps she'll grace our pages as a pregnant mother-to-be. For now we can sit back and fully appreciate her beautifully formed breasts, the nipples placed perfectly atop those creamy delights and be grateful that Barbara has joined the ranks of our bevy of bountiful beauties.

SPOTLIGHT ON ELAINE

Here's the famous and much-maligned star of the super-plumpers, Elaine, who always elicits a lot of comment both pro and con from our readers. She was one of the first fatties in GENT and set a trend which has gone on since her debut over five years ago. There's no question that our features starring real biggies like Elaine get a lot of attention. We've had bigger gals than Elaine grace our pages, but she still emerges as the most discussed one of all. At well over 200 pounds, she's a lotta woman!

Gent

“When I read or hear cracks about my size, I just laugh and think of the fact that I have a date every night.”

Elaine's measurements are 58-38-48 and she stands 5'5" tall which means that there's one helluva lotta bulk packed on that short a frame. Elaine says that she has never let comments on her size bother her. "All I do is think about the fact that I never have had to go one evening without a date that I didn't want to, and I realize that there are a lot more men who like women my size than don't," she says. She's also a very gutsy gal who did a great belly dance on TV's "$1.98 Beauty Contest."

Gent

Elaine has her bras custom-made of a soft stretch fabric because, although her tits are huge, they are sensitive...particularly her nipples. She takes great pride in her appearance and refuses to wear shapeless clothes like many big women do. "I dress to be noticed," she says, and there's no question that she creates a stir wherever she goes. Despite (and maybe because of) her bulk, there's something very sensuous about Elaine. She looks like the kind of big mama who'd give a guy the kind of time he wouldn't forget. Her big, sensuous lips look like they were made for loving and her body is a chubby-chaser's dream, and her stuffed mailbox proves she's popular.

Joyce hasn't done as much modeling as we'd all like because she's a very busy gal with her eyes focused on breaking into the entertainment business. As talented (almost) as she is beautiful, she has already appeared in a number of musical productions including opera and comedy. She has a beautiful voice and obviously enough lung-power to be heard in the last row of any theater. At latest report she's dating a Hollywood stunt man (and probably showing him a few tricks of her own). We envy any guy who gets a chance to play with Joyce.

At last report, Joyce was dating a Hollywood stunt man. Imagine being lucky enough to be able to play with Joyce in person and have her show you a few of her tricks.

Built in the classic GENT tradition, Joyce stands 5'5" tall, weighs 128 pounds and her statistics are 41½-27-36½. She's one of those women who doesn't need extra weight to keep her bust measurement at a maximum. With her kind of figure, it's doubtful that Joyce will ever be a fatty and in our opinion, that would be gilding the lily a bit since there's everything there to keep any breast man ecstatically happy, forever.

PATTY: A FULL-BODIED DREAMGIRL

Knowing a good thing when we see it, we were sure we had struck gold when we first featured Patty in our September 1983 issue. Sure enough, our Vegas dancer received rave reviews with readers waxing ecstatic over every part of her magnificent body, from her firm and fabulous 45-inch double-D knockers to her voluptuous tummy nestled below an impressive 32-inch waist and her solid but hefty 38-inch hips. Patty was first discovered dancing topless at a Vegas nightclub where she says she was "just having fun" but now she's pursuing a modeling career.

Patty is already beginning to show the results of her hard work and determination to become a top model. She has had her hair styled, has a new makeup job and her posing is becoming more relaxed as she becomes more at ease in front of a camera. Patty's long, shapely legs belie the fact that she's only 5'4" tall (and weighs 135 pounds) but her height even adds emphasis to the size of her bust which is already impressive. It isn't always the size of a women's breasts that put them into the "A" class, it's their shape, contour, heft and texture. These giant creampuffs pass every criteria. They are amazingly firm, showing no sign of sagging and her perpetually erect, cherry-sized nipples are classics.

"I can't believe how much my life has changed in a few months, from a college girl, to topless dancing and now modeling. It's all very exciting!"

Patty says she can't believe how much her life has changed in the past few months. "I went to Vegas to sort of have a last fling after I graduated from college. Then, just for the heck of it, I did some topless dancing, and now, here I am modeling!" She says that she's afraid she'd find the business world a little dull after all of this. But, as she says, it's nice to know she has two careers if one falls through.

JILL: The Girl Next-Door

Believe it or not, Jill was living next-door to one of our California photogs for months before he became aware of the fact. It just goes to show you what you might be missing if you don't take the time to look. Needless to say, Jill didn't remain anonymous for very long. Our photographer took one look at her 39-24-36 figure and gorgeous smile and had her in the studio and bareassed in no time.

Jill made her GENT debut as our covergirl and new discovery back in August, 1983, and although our readers have been howling for more, it took awhile for her to decide to model again. In our opinion the wait was worth it. Here she is, cavorting in a California swimming pool with those beauties just floating on the water, looking absolutely delicious. How many of us guys would give our week's paycheck to have a delightful nymph like Jill living a few doors away? Imagine the kind of pool parties you could have with just the two of you, a bottle of champagne, some warm suntan oil, a towel or two and some nice music on the stereo. It's enough to arouse even the most jaded of us. Another of Jill's assets (if you can tear your eyes away from those boobs) is her pretty smile.

Jill obviously likes to sunbathe nude, which we imagine drives the guys in her neighborhood into a veritable frothy frenzy.

Jill is 5'7" tall and weighs 132 pounds...a tall, slender type who obviously takes meticulous care of herself. Her overall tan, especially on her breasts, indicates that she likes to sunbathe nude...another fact that whips up some pretty frothy fantasies. We'll bet there's a lotta fence-peeking around Jill's house which she probably doesn't mind too much. With a body like hers, she certainly should be proud to show it.
