Mouthwatering
Proportions

Here's the ever-great Deborah playing in the shower with her new vibrating shower head, watering her fantastic melons and obviously having a great time. We're always delighted to see Debbie appear in GENT because each time, it's something entirely different. She's one of the most versatile models we know of, and one of the prettiest with a flawless body (42-24-36) and breasts of creamy white with luscious beige-colored nipples and areolae of mouth watering proportions. And, in case you haven't noticed, Deborah has incredible green bedroom eyes.

"A flawless body, 42-inch breasts and areolae of mouth-watering proportions!"

Deborah's last appearance was this past December and our classy lass had gotten herself up like a camp follower in a pair of army boots, petticoat and shocking red stockings. She says she loves doing different kinds of posing sessions. "It sort of adds a little spice and variety to my work." She likes getting dolled up in leather and playing the part of a sadistic dominatrix, or getting up in period garb, baby-doll nighties or whatever. And whatever she does, it's spectacular.

Ask Uschi

DEAR USCHI:

Jesus, I just heard a hot rumor going around that Bo Derek once made a porno movie, and that it's going to be released pretty soon.

And that she did it when she was a minor, too.

Is there any truth to that? What can you tell me? Please answer fast because I'm dying to know if I'm going to see a film of her actually fucking, instead of just talking about it like in "10."

— R.M., Detroit, Mich.

BY USCHI DIGARD

Dear R.M.:

That rumor is also going around town here. According to the scuttlebutt, it's a film that John Derek, her husband now, directed a few years back in Greece. At the time, Bo was 16, and allegedly made her film debut in it.

Why wasn't it released before?

Well, according to the story, Derek ran out of money and the lab held the footage until the bill could be paid. Derek allegedly never came up with the money — but a shrewd money-man reportedly did recently.

Thus, much against Derek's wishes, the movie, if there really is one, will be in the theaters by summer.

DEAR BIG TITS:

Do love potions really work? They have some advertised in some of the men's magazines, as love drops, and they say you could have all the pussy a guy could want to eat — even if the girl didn't want it to be done to her — but this stuff will get her hot and turned on and turn her into a sex-crazed animal!

They're little red devil persuaders, and a guy just has to put a pinch in her food or drink, says the ads, and then get ready for instant lovemaking.

The reason I want to know if this stuff is really legit, is because I know the coldest bitch God ever created, and I want to get her and get her good, the conceited cunt!

So? Tell me!

— Anxious Artie, Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Artie:

GENT published an article on love potions in the November 1980 issue. But if you can't find that, just remember this sage advice — "Candy is dandy ... but liquor is quicker!"

And faster than both is a mink coat.

DEAR USCHI:

Is it true that some medications that doctors give patients are bad for trying to have intercourse?

— O.T., Spokane, Wash.

Dear O.:

Indeed. For example, some drugs that help alleviate high blood pressure and other circulatory or heart problems can also diminish the sex drive.

Worse still, according to doctors, these medications can even make some male patients impotent.

Thus, to regain that old urge, a lower dosage has to be prescribed or a substitute drug found.

Ask Uschi

DEAR MISS DIGARD:

I just bought a fish bowl. I'm going to put it over my head. Then I'm going to have my girlfriend, naked, squat down over it and...

Well, you know what I'm going to have her do.

Is this dangerous?

— The Explorer,
Baltimore, Maryland

Dear Explorer:

No! Only messy.

DEAR MIGHTY MOUNDS:

I'm into Giant Jugs!!!

One of the wiseass motherfuckers that I work with at the foundry who knows I freak out on huge boobs told me he heard on the TV news that chicks can now make their melons mammoth just by getting some hypnosis.

That sounds like bullshit to me. Is that cocksucker putting me on?

— Barney B., Gary, Ind.

Dear Barney:

Now would a fellow worker do that to you?

Maybe. But not in this case. He told the truth, at least about hearing such a report. As to the actual merits, well they haven't been totally proven yet.

Here's what he probably heard:

Dr. Frank Lodato, a New Jersey psychologist, claims he has used hypnosis to help approximately 75 women increase their bust size in the last three years.

"All have shown some type of increase," he said, "from one to as much as four-and-a-half inches."

Lodato, whose treatment costs $350, consists of several weekly private visits, involving hypnosis, and some cassettes to be played at home. His theory is that hypnotic suggestions enable a woman to increase the flow of blood and hormones to her breasts and enlarge nearby glands.

When the same experiments were tried with 100 women at the New York Institute of Hypnotherapy, the results were inconclusive.

The next question, of course, is could such a technique be used by a man — to enlarge any area he might want bigger?

I mentioned this to a male friend of mine, and he wound up spending so much time under hypnosis, thinking about — instead of using — his tool, that it shrunk!

DEAR JUICY ONE:

Last year I was on a two-and-a-half-week vacation to Copenhagen, Denmark, and while I was there I met a really gorgeous looking hooker. I just fell head over heels in love with her.

I have always realized that B-girls and Hookers are not the type of women a man should get involved with, but this girl I am writing about is the sexiest chick I have ever met anywhere!

She is big, beautiful, busty and has the cutest Danish accent you have ever heard. We also have the same likes and dislikes about many things.

Several months ago I flew back to Denmark again to see this girl and I had discussed the subject of bringing her back to the States and eventually tying the knot with her.

She seems to be willing, but not overanxious. Now the question I would like to ask you is that if and when I finally decide to marry this beautiful siren, what would the Immigration and Naturalization people have to say about her promiscuous past?

The girl has never been arrested or put in jail for anything, but I am sure the Dept. of Immigration will probably do some snooping on her history along the line.

So I would like to have some advice from you on what to probably expect, or what to do.

— Danish Pastry Lover,
Cleveland, Ohio

Relax, Lover:

She's got no record — so you've got no problem. It's as simple as that. So enjoy, enjoy.

DEAR MISS DIGARD:

I understand that NBC-TV is going to air a very spicy movie of the week soon called "Star Maker." Isn't it supposed to be based on a real life Hollywood guy?

— T.F., Cedar Rapids, Iowa

Dear T.:

Bingo! Just about the time you're reading this, the tele-movie will be shown to the nation. And, as rumor has it, any similarity between John Derek and the lead in the scorcher is purely intentional.

DEAR USCHI:

What the hell is wrong with women? I swear, most of the bitches today are dumber than morons. And I'm not kidding.

No, I'm not a male chauvinist pig — I love fucking too much to be that — but that's the problem. I love to fuck. But the women today, as liberated as they are, most of them ain't got no brains.

It's like this. I meet them. I bang them. And they get knocked up!

What the hell's wrong with them? They're supposed to be taking some kind of birth control pill or gizmo or something. But these stupid sows don't.

Shit, I've had to shell out for seven abortions in just the last 10 months. And the broads weren't lying or faking it either, because I took them to my own doctor.

He says I give him so much action that he's thinking of giving me a group discount.

Yeah, I know what you're thinking. Why isn't this chump wearing a rubber? Well, rubbers kill the feeling, and the chicks don't like them anyway.

So I got to know something. What's the latest in birth control stuff for men? I mean I can't go on like this. If I do, I'll have to take out a bank loan.

— Super Stud, Phoenix, Arizona

Dear Super:

Help is on the way. It's just a question of time. As you may already know, a male contraceptive developed in the U.S. called Win-18446 resulted in severe side effects if the subject drank even a small amount of alcohol. Among other things, their eyes turned pink.

But, luckily, a much better solution is on the horizon — the Eastern horizon. The Chinese are currently concluding a 10-year study on 9,000 men who have been taking doses of a drug called Gossipol. It is made from cottonseed oil and makes men completely sterile.

Subjects are given between 15 and

Ask Uschi

20 milligrams of Gossipol every day for about 75 to 80 days until they become totally infertile. They are then given maintenance doses of 50 milligrams once a week. Side effects are minor.

And you don't even get hungry two hours later. Just horny.

DEAR USCHI:

I'm very frustrated and I've asked lots of different people about a problem I have and none of them have a real good answer, so I'm turning to you.

I've been dating lots of girls over the years and all of them have large breasts to which I'm more than attracted. But about six months ago I met a real beautiful lady. She's 5'7" and 125 lbs. and measures 41D-26-38, and has long blonde hair.

We dated almost three months and I thought she was like any other girl, but she isn't. She's 23-years-old, and one night after taking her to dinner and dancing we went back to her apartment and we had a couple of drinks, then she asked me to do something I'd been wanting to do since we started dating. And that was to suck her tits.

Believe me, I was more than glad to oblige. But when I started sucking, I got a real surprise.

I got a mouth full of milk!

I guess the shock made me a little bewildered because she asked me what was wrong and she said she had wanted me to suck them so she could release some of the pressure in her tits, and I've been sucking ever since.

She says she's never been married or had any children, so I'm asking you if she's never had a child like she says she's never had — how can she produce milk?

Is it natural? Or is she some sort of freak?

I'm thinking of asking her to move in, but first I'd like your answer on the subject of tits full of milk.

— Suction Sid, Pittsburg, Pa.

Dear S.S.:

Aw, shuddup! And just keep sucking!

DEAR USCHI:

Is it true that science has discovered with brain tests and things like that that men are naturally better than women at specialties like mathematics?

— Computer Man, San Jose, Ca.

Dear Computer:

Supposedly. But I sure know a lot of ladies who excel at numbers — especially 69.

DEAR MISS DIGARD:

I think I will go to hell. I'm sure I'll burn in eternal fires when I die.

My name is Chuck, I'm 18-years-old, I've been going with Kathie for about three or four months now, although we've known each other for about five years.

Kathie lives with her divorced mother. I've made it with Kathie a few times, but it's not something we do all the time.

A few weeks ago, at night, I went over to see Kathie, but she was gone. Her Mom, though, was home. She asked me if I'd like to come in and have a Coke, because she saw how disappointed I was that her daughter wasn't around.

After I finished a second Coke and she finished a second cocktail she turned off all the living room lights except for one table lamp, then she turned off the TV and what she did next almost knocked me off my chair.

She said, "Do you think I'm pretty?" I said, "Sure."

Then she started to unbutton her dress while I watched. She took off all her clothes except for her panties.

She began playing with her tits. "Do you like them?" she said. "You can have them."

No need to say that I was about to cream my pants, so I took them off and then she and I went at it on the living room rug and she kept saying mothers need sex, too, "Fuck me! Fuck me!"

After I came, she made me put my face between her legs and lick her pussy.

If you ever saw Kathie's mother, you wouldn't believe she'd ever do anything like that. She's not sexy or beautiful, but she is a very attractive 38-year-old blonde with a nice body — not a typical mother. The best way to describe her is to imagine a picture of Dr. Joyce Brothers, whom she resembles in some ways.

Kathie is nice to park with after a date, but she never did the things her mother did and I'd sure love to screw her again.

I've seen her a few times since then, at the store and once when at home when Kathie was out, but she never said anything, as though it never happened.

Uschi, that mother was a real turn-on, and I'd like to make it with her again. Do you think I should make the first move? Or should I wait and see if she will let me have it again?

— Nervous and Itchy, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Nervous:

Because of the unusual circumstances — the differences in your ages, and the fact you're also doing her daughter — the smart thing for you would be to wait for another invitation. You don't have to be pushy. Just be patient. You'll get another shot.

After all, a good hostess always invites her guest to have a second helping.

DEAR USCHI:

What am I going to do? I've got a situation that's driving me loony. This girl I go with is DYNAMITE! Great face! Fabulous figure! Incredible in bed! An absolute sexual freak. Anything — and I do mean anything — goes!!!

What's driving me up the wall, though, is when she's giving me head, and I'm giving her head. She gives head like no one else, eating my balls and everything. And for me, her snatch tastes like sweet nectar.

But she farts a lot. And right in my face.

She says she can't help it. But what should I do? I love her twat, but I'm tired of getting my eyebrows blown off.

— Hector the Erector, El Paso, Texas

Dear Hector:

Shove a cork in it.

Introducing THE BAZOOM GIRL JENNIE LEE

Queen of the Educated Torso

One of America's most famous strippers, the great Jennie Lee began to build her career 30 years ago. Though time has changed a few of her contours, she's still a helluva tease!

SHE WAS BILLED as "The Girl With 44 And A Whole Lot More," but I'm a lot bigger than that today, says Ms. Lee. Her first break came in Kansas City, before she had even graduated from high school where she was a classmate of TV's now famous Ed Asner. "A girlfriend of mine saw an ad in a local paper for chorus girls and it said 'No Experience Necessary,' so we thought we'd give it a try," she says. "We auditioned — and we were hired! I danced in the chorus of a burlesque show, my first job ever."

JENNIE

"It wasn't taking my clothes off that made me famous," Jennie Lee says, "it was how I took 'em off." And Jennie is now teaching novice strippers the secrets of her art at her own school in San Pedro, California. There, Jennie claims, she can take an ordinary housewife and turn her into a torrid seductress in a few short weeks. "Of course, not many of them can learn my famous trick which is called 'reverse-spin' tasse twirling. I put pasties on tassels on my nipples, twirl them as I walk the stage, reverse them and twirl each in a different direction." No wonder she was headlined as "The Queen Of The Educated Torso!" Her students include dancers serious about becoming headline burlesque artists, housewives in the school for fun, wanting something to show their husbands at night, and even some male go-go dancers who want to improve their acts for the ladies.

There have been a lot of discarded G-strings and tassels since the voluptuous Jennie Lee posed for her first nude photo at the tender age of 19, left. "I'll never forget the first time I was told I had to strip completely on the stage," she smiles. "I was absolutely terrified! At the end of my act, I pulled off my G-string, threw it at the audience and ran and hid in a closet backstage for hours."

Most of Jennie's co-stars have retired, but not the "Bazoom" girl. She still gets requests to appear at benefits and to give shows around the country by many people who remember when Jennie Lee was the top headliner in the country. She played the circuit from Minsky's in New Jersey to the Folies in L.A. and had two prolonged tours to foreign capitals in Europe and the Far East.

Muscle CONTROL

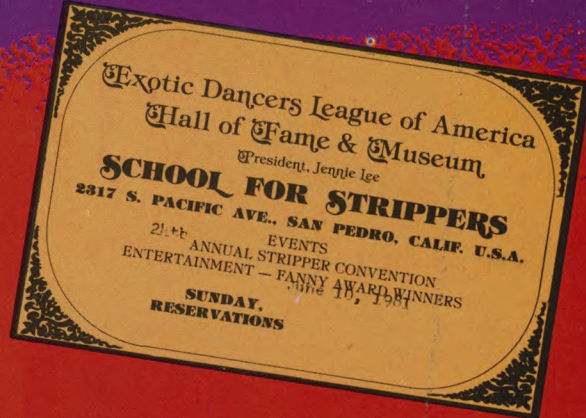

JENNIE LEE, A STRIPEUSE WITH MUSCLE CONTROL, IS THE SERVICEMAN'S FAVORITE

BBLONDE, curvaceous Jennie Lee has been electrifying audiences all over this country, in Canada, Cuba, and Mexico with her strip-tease performances. What makes Jennie so unusual is her magnificent muscle control, which enables her to make her entire body dance, as well as her legs. Known as the "Bazoom Girl," Jennie's pinup pictures are greatly in demand by servicemen. In the strip-tease business since she was out of high school, she has achieved such artistry that her act has been featured in two movies, Night at the Moulin Rouge and The French Follies. Born in Kansas City on October 23, Jennie is now five feet nine inches tall and weighs 140 pounds. She is 42-23-40.

"Although topless barroom dancing, male nude dancers, and even porn movies have their place," Miss Lee says, "there's still room for striptease. It's one of the bricks of our culture." To that end, she's now working on her own Las Vegas comeback.

In her heyday, lovely Jennie Lee was the toast of every town on the burlesque circuit. Her torso control was amazing. She could twirl the tassels on the nipples of her big 44s in two directions at once. And when she did a cartwheel and went down into a full split, her audiences tore the house down!

SHERRY: Plump & Pretty

For our legion of chubby-lovers, here is our second plumper in as many months — the ultimate in chubby loveliness, Sherry Newman. We demand that our fat girls be pretty though, and Sherry certainly meets that criteria. At 5'4" and measuring 42-34-44 she also meets the demand for a lotta flesh on her bones. Sherry says that she diets (which some of us think is a shame) but that once in awhile, the food bug bites and she goes on a binge. "I've had days when I put away a whole pie and a half-gallon of ice cream in one sitting," she says, smiling. We know a few guys might think that's gross, but for a chubby-chaser, she's a dream girl!

Sherry says she's always been a big girl, "because I've always loved to eat. I'm Italian on my mother's side, you see." We asked her to tell us what her dream meal would be if a guy took her out and told her the sky was the limit. "Well," she said, "first I hope the guy has a lot of money in his pocket and I hope he likes to eat, too."

“I’d start out my dream meal with lots of hors d’oeuvres,” Sherry says. “Cheeses, pates, caviar, salami, etc., on thick slices of Italian bread. Then snails swimming in butter with pasta on the side. A big bowl of minestrone soup would follow, then breaded shrimp, more pasta, chicken cacciatore on noodles and after that a big thick slice of roast with potatoes and lots of bread and butter. Then on to dessert . . .” We left Sherry still describing her favorite meal with a dreamy look in her eyes. It would be hard to find a sexier gal at any weight.

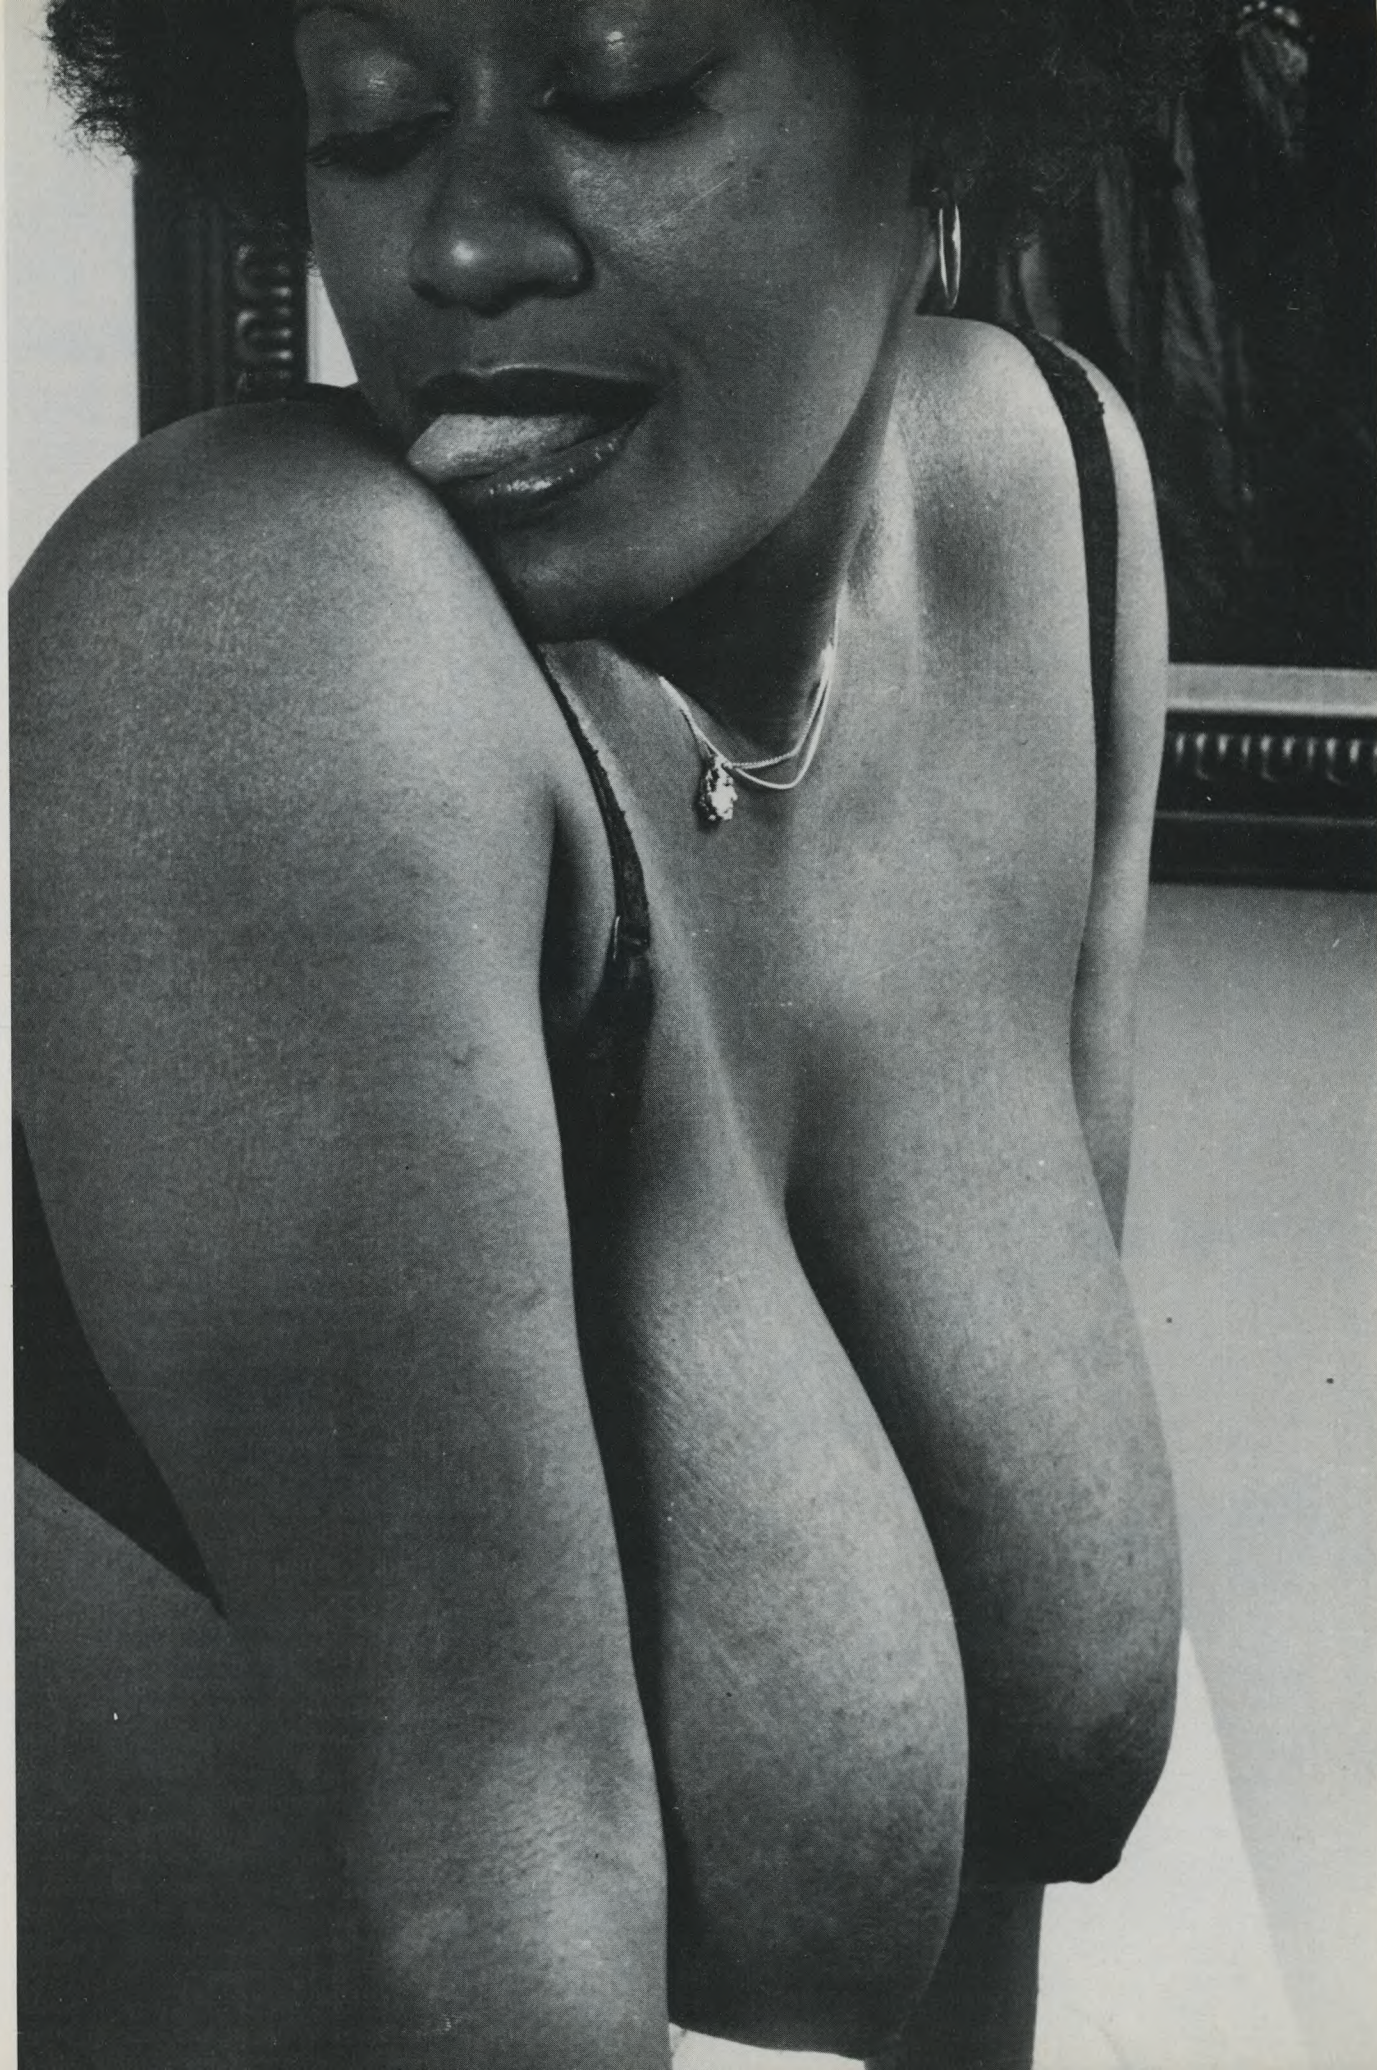

Mellow Melinda

If you don't think some gals in their 30's are real turn-ons, take a second look at Melinda Brown who has been modeling since her late teens—and is more popular than ever. She's a sassy, southern gal with an awesome 46-inch bustline, a 32-inch waist and 40-inch hips stacked onto a 5'6" figure. She weighs a loveable 149 pounds—quite a lot of loving—and that's what Melinda says she does best. "I'm basically a very loving, homebody type which is why I haven't done a lot of modeling in the past few years. Once I get into a relationship, I don't really have much time to take care of anything but my man. I give him my full-time."

“I decided about five years ago to get out of the modeling business,” Melinda tells us, “because, frankly, I didn’t think there was much demand for a model once she hit a certain age. But I get so many calls from photographers wanting to shoot me that you might say I’m back by popular demand!” We agree—a lot of GENT’s readers write to ask for pictures of older gals, and so we’re happy to present Melinda. Over 30 and great!

YUM YUM & SHELLY

Here's one of your all-time big favorites, the 46-DD star, Yum Yum Yankowitz and her friend and new comer to GENT, Shelly Byron. It's been too long since the fabulous Yum Yum graced our pages and when she brought along Shelly and we got a glom of her great face, body and especially those beautiful 43-inch breasts, we just knew we had to convince the girls to pose together. The always amiable Yum Yum said sure ... "anything for GENT."

Yum Yum got her name because that's what guys say when they see her.

It's obvious that Yum Yum and Shelly have a lot in common. They met about a year ago and have been fast friends ever since. "We love going out to clubs or the beach together, wearing real tight blouses or small bikini tops, and just knocking the guys' eyes out!" Yum Yum says. As you can see, the two of them together is enough to make a D-Cup lover's heart stop! Since the girls know each other so well, they were very uninhibited about posing.

Shelly and Yum Yum love to go out to clubs together, and watch the heads turn.

“We’re as normal as blueberry pie,” Shelly says, “but a lot of guys get a kick out of seeing two girls act real sisterly, so to speak.” And that’s what they did throughout the session. They both have a stream of boyfriends and neither of them want to settle down just yet. “Why should we limit ourselves to just one guy each?” Yum Yum says, “when we can make dozens of guys’ dreams come true?” They are certainly a dream come true for us, and for you, right? Yum Yum’s complete measurements are 46-29-39 and Shelly is 43-26-39.

Everything You Always Wanted To Know About USCHI DIGARD

Part II of the most in-depth interview ever granted by the Queen of the D-Cups.

When we left our favorite sex symbol last month, she was talking about the qualities and merits of various races as lovers. We pick up our conversation with Uschi right where she left off...

BY BRUCE ARTHUR

USCHI: German males are a bit stiffer, and stricter. Although in bed they can be quite far out, too! Not all Germans need boots and whips.

GENT: I love those things, and I'm not even German.

USCHI: (laughing heartily): I think as a general rule I admire Americans as a nationality, because of the guts they have, the tenacity, and the drive. More so than any European! I think American men — and I'm not saying this because I live in this country — but I really admire them a lot.

GENT: Do you find any anatomical difference, by nationality?

USCHI: Yeah, Europeans, they smell a lot more. They don't use as much deodorant. And also they don't brush their teeth as much. The Americans are more hygiene conscious.

GENT: Well, let's talk strictly about the anatomy. I understand that the Japanese male is not as endowed as the average Caucasian.

USCHI: I've never known a Japanese.

GENT: Should we get you one? Or maybe two...

USCHI: (laughing): No, I suspect what you say could be true, so I'd rather not try. Anyway, size really doesn't matter so much. It's how you use it. Not how big it is.

GENT: Do you like women? I mean sexually.

USCHI: Ummnnn, I've had delightful threesomes and foursomes in my life, but I don't think I could be satisfied with just a woman. I'm not a lesbian, but when I see a woman with a nice shape, ummn, sometimes I have the urge that I'd like to go and grab a little.

GENT: I'm not a lesbian either, but I get that same urge.

USCHI: (laughing): I'll bet.

GENT: What do you mean grab a little?

USCHI: I mean touch women.

GENT: Where?

USCHI: Anywhere that's appealing. Buns. Or breasts. I like to kiss a woman, but I couldn't be satisfied with just a woman. I wouldn't make it as a lesbian, I'm afraid.

GENT: I think I would.

USCHI: Make it as a lesbian?

GENT: Oh, yeah! I love to touch, and taste women. In fact, I'd be a terrific lesbian. In my next life, I think that's what I'll be.

USCHI: You're going to be a lesbian. (She laughs) I think you'd find something missing.

GENT: Yeah. From me. Probably about six-and-a-half inches. Next question: You've posed with many women, for both stills and movies. And often with Candy Samples for example. Is this just a job? Or do you have some sexual attraction for females?

USCHI: When I pose with women, or men, it's really just a job. It's never gone any further. I've never done any hardcore. And you're so concerned with camera angles and lighting and doing everything right, it's totally work. I like Candy, she's a friend, but we never had anything sexual going together. People say when they see our pictures, that we have a good karma going, it looks good, and maybe that's because we like each other. As women. But we don't hang

"I like Candy
(Samples), she's a friend, but we never had anything sexual out, we don't party, we don't make love to each other.

GENT: Well, that's three out of three. And you've just broken a lot of hearts, destroyed a lot of fantasies, and ruptured innumerable erections.

USCHI: Many people think that I'm a lesbian, and maybe they think that because I have done so much work with women. That's funny because it's easier to do layouts with women than with men because you can be more discreet.

GENT: A hardon doesn't get in the way.

USCHI: Right! And so I prefer to pose with ladies rather than with guys. And that's all there is to it.

GENT: You've been an incredibly popular model and film star for some time now, over 10 years. As harsh as this may sound, some time in the future nature will take its toll. In other words, there's a time when a nude modeling career is over. What are your plans when that time comes for you?

"I'm easing out of (modeling) right now. I have my other career going, which is translating."

USCHI: Oh, I'm easing out of it already now. I have my other career going, which is translating — which I've always had — and I'll be concentrating mostly on that. Modeling for me, really, has always been a sideline. I never meant it to become as big as it has, and if I never did another modeling job from today on it would be just as well with me. But as long as I get some good offers, and they shoot me the way I want, why not? But I'm planning to continue easing out of it.

GENT: There was a book written a few years ago which named you as probably "the most photographed" model of all time. And the statement was made that undoubtedly, in the world, during any given hour, there are at least 200 men masturbating to your pictures. Does that figure impress you? Or do you have any thoughts on that at all?

USCHI: Well, I believe I have been publicized more than any other model. But how come I'm not rich, though?

GENT: Very good point. Are you sure you're not?

USCHI: Nope, I'm not. But if I've been published that much I should be, shouldn't I? Something is wrong there. (She laughs heartily.)

GENT: Do you want to go into that a little deeper?

USCHI: (still laughing): No. I just wish I was richer, that's all. That's the breaks. The model just never makes the money.

GENT: Ah, we were talking about the fact you've inspired so many ejaculations. You know, the stimulation thing.

USCHI: Oh, the stimulation thing. Yes, I think that's very flattering. And I'm delighted. I think I'm doing a service. See, if I can help someone out, inspire him, maybe even make his sex life with his old lady a little bit better, or a guy that is frustrated and might go and exhibit himself to little girls, if instead he has a little wank over my pictures — well, that's great!

GENT: Has a little what over your pictures?

USCHI: A little wank.

GENT: Oh, wank!

USCHI: Right! It's a cuddly word for masturbation.

GENT: To what do you attribute your long success, and your lasting beauty?

USCHI: Healthy, clean living. I exercise. I play tennis every day. I started weightlifting. I ride bicycles. I never diet, but I eat healthy foods.

GENT: What are your secrets for staying so firm, and beautiful?

USCHI: Really no secrets. Just working at it. Willpower, and keeping fit.

GENT: What other things are you involved in besides modeling, and translating. We know that you've helped produce films for Russ Meyer, and have done some acting. But what do you do in your free time? What are your hobbies?

USCHI: Tennis, as I've mentioned. That's a way of life for me. I play tennis everyday. I love to play chess. I used to hustle chess.

GENT: Really?

USCHI: Uh-huh!

GENT: You sly devil.

USCHI: (laughing): Yeah, at Venice Beach. I made a little bit of money. I'm also reading an awful lot.

GENT: Anything good?

USCHI: I like science fiction. I'm also involved with Eastern philosophies. They've helped change my life. I used to worry terribly about things. And ever since I started reading the books and going to the lectures I stopped worrying altogether.

GENT: Aw, come on. You worry?

USCHI: Yeah, it's true. I used to worry a lot. Oh, of course, some things still can bother me. But in comparison to the way I used to fret — I used to think about what I could worry about next, if I didn't have anything to worry about. And, comparatively, I don't worry now.

GENT: We know you're especially intelligent, but is it true that you really speak eight languages?

USCHI: Yes. Uh-huh, I do. In fact, I have teaching degrees in four of them. And I get by in eight very well. And can converse in even more.

GENT: Rattle them off.

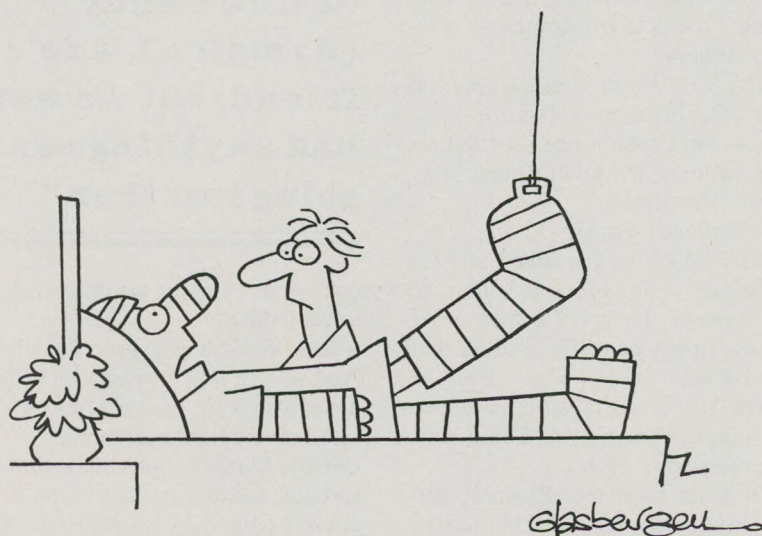

USCHI: All the basic European languages: German, French, Italian, Spanish, Swedish, Swiss — which most people don't consider a language, but I do because it is — Portuguese, Danish.

GENT: How would you describe your lifestyle? Is money important to you? Do you want to be rich? Very rich?

USCHI: I never thought money would be important to me, but it is. I'd like to be able to live really comfortably, have a really nice home—

GENT: Take your friends to dinner?

USCHI: Take my friends to dinner! And to buy anything that I want. Yeah,

"How did I know she was a weightlifter?
When she said she loved a 'good pump,' I thought ..."

money is important. More important than it used to be. And I'd like to be able to make enough that I can live comfortably — ever after.

“I never thought money would be important to me, but it is...”

GENT: In your opinion, besides yourself, who do you consider the top female model, in the country, now? And why?

USCHI: I think there are a couple of girls now that, well, both of them could have been really big. But their mental attitude didn't make it. One of them is — oh, God, I can't think of her name now — you know who I mean, a pretty girl. She was in Penthouse. She's an exotic beauty, with big breasts, beautiful face—

GENT: What color hair?

USCHI: Black. And she could be tops.

GENT: Oh, wait a minute. I know — Joyce Mandell?

USCHI: Joyce Mandell! I think she could have made it to the top. But her mind got in the way.

GENT: In what way?

USCHI: Too prima donna-ish. If she would have come down to earth a little more, she could have made it big. Oh, maybe she didn't want to... But I think she could have made it big.

GENT: I do, too. But the personality—

USCHI: Got in the way.

GENT: On a scale of 10, it was a minus three.

USCHI: I wouldn't be that harsh. I've always gotten along with her very well, but I've used her work-wise and that's where the problems started. She was a bit eccentric. Difficult to handle.

GENT: Demands? Or late?

USCHI: Yeah. Demands. And changing her mind. I think she's a nice lady, but she didn't handle herself right, and that's why she didn't make it. She should have.

GENT: Who else? Anyone else?

USCHI: (laughing): A girl that you knew quite well. A girl who was engaged to a musician.

GENT: Oh, wait a minute — Laura Lynwood!

USCHI: She could have made it. Big.

GENT: Oh, sure! But she didn't want it. She just modeled for a summer for a lark. Then she left town, and went back to the Midwest.

USCHI: Over the years, we see so many come into the business, and you just know some of them have the potential to really become big — and then they disappear! Over the last few years, there have been two or three who have had the potential, then they disappeared. Roberta, too, had the stuff, but she left the country.

GENT: Ah, yes, Roberta Pedon. I was lucky enough to be the first to shoot her, and she was a delight. But she likes to travel the world. A delightful young lady, but no ambition, a hippie, live-hand-to-mouth lifestyle.

USCHI: She was stunning!

GENT: Now, among the men you've worked with. Who's the favorite?

USCHI: There's no favorite. In fact, I haven't worked with that many men. I've just modeled with the same ones over and over again because they were reliable and they were around. I've worked with John Holmes a lot, when he would do softies. And I think he's a sweetheart. I've known him for over 10 years, and he's more like a brother to me than anything else. I like him. John is easily the most consistent and dependable. A lot of them enter the business, but they come and go.

GENT: Because they can't get it up any longer. Are there some men you didn't like working with?

USCHI: No, I usually would know ahead of time, by reputation, and also the people that book me know me and like me so they wouldn't put me working with anyone that I might have a problem with. In all the time that I've worked, I've never had any hassle, any problem of not getting paid, or gotten a bad deal or anything. I've always been treated fair and square. And I think the reason for that is you get treated the way you want to be treated. And ladies that get into trouble sometimes ask for it.

GENT: If you could be any woman in history, or any woman around today, who would you like to be?

USCHI: I wouldn't want to be anybody else. I admire women who were in history, tremendously. But I'm happy with my lot.

GENT: Keep a secret?

USCHI: Sure.

GENT: We're happy with you just the way you are, too. Very happy, indeed!

USCHI: Why, thank you very much. And I'd like to say “thanks,” too, to all my fans who've been so enthusiastic about me over the years. They've brought me a lot of happiness. Merci. G

KELI:
Just For You

Whenever sensational Keli Stewart appears in GENT, our readers respond with great enthusiasm. And no wonder . . . Keli is not only one of our most gorgeous D-cuppers, with a 40-27-38 figure, but she also has a sensual, seductive and yet fun quality that makes a guy feel warm all over. She says that she likes to pretend, during a modeling session, that the camera is actually a hot-blooded fan of hers, staring right at her with lust in his eyes and sex on his mind. And the fantasy gets her going. For this session, Keli was asked to verbalize her fantasies as she posed. Here goes — this is what Keli is telling you: “You and I have been out for the evening. We’ve had filet mignon and champagne in a fabulous French restaurant and we’ve been holding hands and dancing real close all evening. You’ve felt my hot body pressed against yours and I know how excited you are. . .”

To fuel your fantasies, Keli does a slow strip in readiness for a hot night. And it's all for you, man, all for you...

“We arrive at my apartment. I mix you a drink and tell you to get comfortable while I do the same. The lights are low and there is soft music on the stereo. Then, slowly, just for you, I begin to teasingly remove my clothes. Uh, uh, don't touch ... just watch me move. First the evening gown comes off as I move around the room. Then you follow me into the bedroom. Watch me take off my bra ... move around, breasts swaying ... then the panties ... you are hot ... I can tell ... and now ... come on lover...”

DENISE: In Big Demand

When we get ahold of a good thing, we hate to let go. That's why we are delighted to welcome one of GENT's favorite D-plussers, Denise Deland, back to our pages. She was our centerfold in April of last year and appeared again this April in a twosome with her good friend Mae Carroll. Now she's back in a solo set, doing what she does best which is showing off her fabulous 46-inchers. Denise says that she's busier than ever these days posing for photographers. "I had started modeling as a part-time thing," she tells us, "and I was just going to do it to make extra money while I was going to school. But I've gone into posing full-time now simply due to a big demand for me."

We're glad Denise is not still living out in the mountains. She has a pretty impressive pair of mountains all her own, we'd say.

A native of Detroit, Denise left home about three years ago and went to Idaho. A lover of the great outdoors, she worked for a time as a forest ranger, lived in a cabin in the woods and saved her money. She did her first modeling job in the mountains of Idaho where she was spotted by a vacationing photographer. Her first pictures were such a hit, she decided to go to Los Angeles, return to school and, as she said, model part-time. Well, now that Denise has had a taste of city living and fame as a D-Copper, she may stay in town.

Gent

"The woods are wonderful and I love the wild animals and trees, but," says Denise, "a girl can get kinda lonesome all by herself. I'm sure there will be times when I want to get away and go camping, but I guess right now I'm bitten by the publicity bug and get such a thrill out of seeing my pictures in magazines like GENT, that I'll stick with this career awhile." We are glad to hear that. It would be a waste to have Denise out in the mountains with no one to admire her.

What's New With Kitten?

A lot has happened since we featured the ever-delectable Kitten Natividad in last February's issue. One of the most exciting things is that Kitten's a columnist now for GENT's sister magazine, Cavalier. And something else which you may notice is that Kitten's pussy has grown a new batch of hair. February's photos show Kitten shaved (she said her boyfriend at that time did it) but whether this signals that her love affair is now over, we can't say. For interested newcomers to GENT, the sizzling Mexican star boasts a 43E bustline and weighs a mere 123 pounds. Even on a big girl, her bust measurement would be impressive. She is only 5'3" tall but every fantastic inch of her is, well, fantastic! Besides her smoldering beauty, Kitten is also very intelligent, clever, and she loves sex. As a matter of fact, you just might describe her as a glutton when it comes to fucking.

Gent

As Kitten says, "I don't know what there is left to do ... I've done it all!" We don't believe it. Everytime Kitten appears in our magazine, she's into something new and exciting.

Kitten has never been shy about speaking out about what she likes. We quote from her interview in last January and February's GENT: "I don't like to be having sex and worrying about what I'm going to have for dinner. I'm there to have as many orgasms as I can get. I love men! I've had about two thousand, once 18 at one time! I don't expect men to be marathon fuckers but sometimes I do like to get it on with a young, 17-year-old guy because they usually are marathon fuckers." Since reaching the status of super-stardom (through her club act, movies and personal appearances), Kitten hasn't tamed down her dialogue at all. Her incredible honesty and stupendous beauty combine to make her one of the truly big stars in the D-Cup firmament.
