Knockers & Nipples

EDITORIAL

VOLUME 1 NUMBER 12

Who can afford really high-priced sex? Who wants really kinky professional sex?

Political leaders and corporation heads, that's who!—according to a paper presented to the American Psychiatric Association and reported nation-wide by the Associated Press.

This scientific survey of a select group of very expensive prostitutes indicates that 60% of their clients—and especially their “repeat customers”—are congressmen, federal and state judges, governors, state legislators, mayors, city councilmen and district attorneys.

Naturally, the girls won't name names.

There's honor among whores.

But what is there among these client-customers of theirs?

One thing is the double-standard that is surfacing more and more in public life: the big shots who tell the rest of us how to live—and who, themselves, break the laws they are sworn to enforce.

The other thing is that these guys can afford to pay for their kicks—and it isn't cheap. The girls get $50 an hour or $750 a week—plus expenses.

So the joy-boys pay for their kicks—and buy their protective silence—with tax dollars paid in by us . . . the ones who get told what to do by them.

Now think about it. The choice of pleasures that you make, the things you choose to do in the privacy of your own dwelling—these things, if discovered, are held up to scorn, to contempt and to castigation (and sometimes even harsher penalties) by guys who buy expensive hookers. If ever it was a case of the big pot calling the little kettle black, this is it!

Let the politicians know that you won't interfere with the kicks they get from being tied up and whipped by prostitutes, if they won't stick their noses into the privacy of your home and the pursuit of happiness you are guaranteed under the Constitution they are sworn to uphold.

And do it today!
