MELISSA DEBLING

Born February 21st 1989 in England, Melissa Debling slowly became one of the most popular figures of glamour modelling. Overshadowed by many other girls, it's after opening her official website that Melissa became what she is right now. She also signed with Nuts which is probably her best career choice in my opinion because it increased her popularity so much, she's now one of the most requested models among forums, websites and fans. She started posing in 2010 as a New Nuts girl but signed with Zoo and was featured on many covershoots with Madison Welch.

In my opinion, I see into Melissa a

“new Michelle Marsh” because she's all natural... and blonde! But I doubt she'll do better than the legendary bombshell babe. But we never know... Actually something is sure : she honors Michelle and I think it seriously. I didn't like her in her first days because she was... underexposed... totally overshadowed. But now, she's stealing the show! She's a wonderful little woman. She can be damn cute when she's smiling and so sexy when she bites her lower lip... which became her signature move. And what to say about her wonderful... nearly-perfect breasts... and her nice bum... Such epic curves on this babe. She also has that x-factor than some other blondes don't have.

CHELSEA CHARMS

Chelsea Charms (born March 7, 1976) is the stage name of an American big-bust model, internet model, and stripper.

Charms has appeared in adult magazines specializing in large breast models.

During a television interview on the set of «This Morning», in May 2011, Charms told the hosts of the show that her bust size is currently «...164XXX, with each implant weighing 26 pounds.» She has since reported that their continued growth has increased the weight of each breast to 30 pounds each as of summer 2012. She denies that the size of her breasts cause her any back pain, and states that she does exercise to strengthen her back.

Charms has had breast augmentation surgery three times. The first augmentation enlarged her to an DD cup, the second to an HH. Both were saline bags. The third surgery implanted the polypropylene string, which has been since been abandoned as a common procedure in the United States and the European Union because of the potentially unlimited growth side effect, but has been used in breast enhancement surgery procedures in South America. More specifically, in some cases of breast augmentation via the polypropylene method, the breasts may grow at different paces and usually at sometimes dangerously accelerated rates. In her case, they have grown in unison, but their growth rate has steadily slowed over the years. The initial string content was equivalent to 2500cc. Her doctor estimates the growth has increased the size of each breast to over 15,000cc as of October 2011.

Charms was a subject for British artist Marc Quinn's body of work on people who manipulate their bodies

She got her break when she was spotted at The Clothes Show, when she was 17. She was later discovered by Seren Gibson and her Student Strip!

She used to dance ballet, tap, disco, hip hop, modern and theatre craft - now she dances whenever and wherever she hears a good song. She attends the University of Chester studying sports science. She is known for her roles in playing the Wii fit topless and several other videos for Zoo Magazine. She has been featured in NUTS, ZOO and FRONT magazines, the Daily Star and Daily Star Sunday, M! (a Danish magazine), People magazine, Australian ZOO, Playboy and Casino RIP. She posed as Nude for photo in several top men's magazine's cover page. Her Zodiac sign is Sagittarius. Her interests are in Shopping, walking the dog, going to the pub, clubbing, pole dancing, running, staying in with a takeaway and a good film.

HOLLY PEERS

Born July 30, 1987 in England, Holly Peers is one of the most famous additions to the glamour family. After her first shoot for Nuts Magazine, she became one of the most requested models. She's probably the "best newbie" so far and she also appears in Loaded and Page 3 too. She began posing in December 2009 and is loved mostly for her near-perfect figure and her large natural breasts. She signed with Nuts after a nice entry in January 2010 and became a favourite among the fans of Page 3 any other magazines like Front.

In my opinion, she's one of the hottest models, the best of the current era. She's incredibly adorable with that cute smile, not forgetting her lovely bright eyes and pretty hot with those fantastic breasts. She's definitely a true bombshell babe! Just like many of her fans, I became somehow... addict to her after her first Nuts photoshoot. I wasn't focusing on her boobs only but her face. She has that pretty cute side I rarely see. The fact I'm seeing her pics since the very beginning of her modelling career is something I'm proud to share on this blog. She's the ONLY model I'm following since her very first photoshoot. So if I had to be honest, she's really the one I'm the most addicted too. I'm NOT aware if the REAL Holly has seen the blog.

Holly is also very appreciated on forums. As a member of Phun.org, I've seen her popularity and it's really intense. Okay, I feel responsible but that's only for the best of our pretty gal. In 2010, as a New Entry to Phun Hot 100, she ended 45th which is not bad. In 2011, she simply made a huge jump by stealing the 17th spot! Best thing is that her Page 3 pictures and Nuts photoshoots became even better so we can expect a very nice year for 2012!

is an English glamour model, born in Manchester, England. She began modelling in December 2009 for The Sun's Page Three (where she is known as Hollie Peers). She continues to model for Page Three and also regularly appears in magazines such as Nuts and Loaded.

KELLY BROOK

Kelly Brook (born Kelly Ann Parsons; 23 November 1979) is an English model, actress, entrepreneur, and television presenter.

Brook was born and brought up in Rochester, Kent, England. She is the daughter of Sandra, a cook, and Kenneth Parsons, a scaffolder. She has a younger brother, Damian, and an older half-sister, Sasha. Kenneth died aged 57 in Rochester from lung cancer on 26 November 2007, during Brook's time on Strictly Come Dancing.

Brook attended the Thomas Aveling

School in Warren Wood, Rochester. She then studied at the Italia Conti Academy of Theatre Arts in London for three years before becoming a professional model.

Brook's modelling career began at 16 after winning a beauty competition, in which she was entered by her mother. She later worked on a range of advertising campaigns, including for Foster's Lager, Renault Mégane, Walker's crisps, Piz Buin and Bravissimo, a company that specialises in bras and lingerie for large-breasted women. Her figure eventually caught the eye of the editorial team of the Daily Star tabloid, which began featuring her as a Page Three girl.

Brook's picture soon began appearing in other lads' mags such as GQ, Loaded and FHM. In April of the same year, a poll over 5,000 women for Grazia magazine considered her to have the best British female body. She also topped the 'FHM 100 Sexiest Women in the World' list in 2005, which was said to have polled 15 million people. Appearing in this list every year since 1998, she ranked No.34 in 2008, No.67 in 2009 and No.7 in 2010. She was the cover star of FHM's World Cup 2010 special issue, and was on the cover of the magazine in April 2011.

In February 2007, it was announced that Brook had signed a contract, reported to be worth around £1m, to represent Unilever's Lynx bodyspray, known as «Axe» in the US and in continental Europe. She has appeared on billboards, in newspapers and on-line as part of their advertising campaign. She has also appeared in commercials for Sky + and T Mobile and modelled for Reebok.

In 2010, she was chosen as the «new face and body» of lingerie maker Ultimo's advertising campaign. In September 2010, Brook appeared in the American edition of Playboy magazine. In October 2010, Kelly Brook appeared live at Clapham Picture House to surprise cinemagoers as part of a promotion for Carlsberg and Sky 3D. In November 2010, Brook presented an award at MTV's EMA's in Madrid.

Brook produces her own line of swimwear with New Look, which she herself has modelled.

In 1997, aged eighteen, Brook started presenting youth television programmes on MTV, Granada Television and the Trouble TV channel. Brook had a breakthrough into mainstream presenting in January 1999, when she was chosen to replace Denise van Outen as the female half of The Big Breakfast hosting team, alongside Johnny Vaughan. She left the show in July 1999. In 2005, she hosted the reality television programme Celebrity Love Island for ITV.

In 2007, Brook participated in the celebrity dancing competition Strictly Come Dancing on BBC1, with dance partner was Brendan Cole. During the TV series, her father Kenneth Parsons died from cancer,^[4] and although she initially decided to continue dancing in his memory, she withdrew from the competition in week nine.

She also competed in the Strictly Come Dancing Christmas Special 2008, dancing the Jive with Brian Fortuna, Brendan Cole having to compete with his later partner Lisa Snowdon. Brook and Fortuna were put into fourth place, but with the studio audience's vote they came second to Jill Halfpenny and Darren Bennett. In 2008, Brook took Jennifer Ellison's place as one of the three judges on the second series of the reality TV programme Dirty Dancing: The Time of Your Life, broadcast between September and November 2008.

In January 2009, she joined the third series of Britain's Got Talent as a fourth judge, but was subsequently axed from the programme after less than a week on the panel, the producers having decided that the four-judge format was «too complicated». Brook was billed as a guest judge in the episode in which she appeared, taped in Manchester and aired on 16 May. In October 2009, Brook claimed that Britain's Got Talent hosts Ant & Dec had been the cause of her removal as the fourth judge. She claimed that she was asked to leave the show after she upset the pair.

In 1997, she appeared in a Pulp video Help the Aged with Huck Whitney of the band the Flaming Stars, in a slow dance sequence. Brook made her full screen debut with a minor role in the film Sorted. Shortly thereafter, she appeared in the film Ripper. She played the girlfriend of Clark Kent/Superman's nemesis Lex Luthor in four episodes of the American science fiction drama Smallville during the show's first season (2001–02). She has also completed assignments as a film actress in Canada and made a short appearance as Lyle's girlfriend in the 2003 film The Italian Job.

Her first starring role was in School for Seduction, a 2004 film – she received positive reviews for her role, «Seduction offers a few twists on the rapidly degenerating format, not the least of which is the comely Brook in the lead role.» In 2004, she played character Nikki Morris in the video game Need for Speed Underground 2, alongside Brooke Burke. In 2005, she appeared in the Philippe Vidal film House of 9, a thriller about nine seemingly unconnected strangers captured and locked in a house together. The people are forced to compete against one another, in order to survive. In 2005 she starred opposite Billy Zane in Survival Island, where she and her husband (portrayed by Zane) are stranded on an island with an attractive younger man, Juan Pablo Di Pace, who makes the husband insanely jealous and the men constantly fight each other. She tries to remain faithful to Zane's character, but when the younger man rapes her, she offers only token resistance, and they eventually become lovers.

Also in 2006, she starred in a Marple drama on ITV and appeared as herself throughout the second series of Moving Wallpaper, also for ITV, in 2009. She acted in the science fiction thriller Shadow Play, directed by Nick Simon.

Brook had a leading role in the horror comedy remake Piranha 3D. The film received a worldwide theatrical release on 20 August 2010. Piranha 3D grossed $83,188,163 on a budget of $24,000,000. Kelly also played as herself in the British comedy movie Keith Lemon: The Film. In the film she was to marry the entrepreneur Keith Lemon (portrayed by Leigh Francis) and divorce him taking all of his newly acquired riches. This doesn't go to plan as due to an issue with a product in the film where people uncontrollably gurn, including Kelly Brook.

In December 2000, she played exotic dancer Anya in the play «Eye Contact» at the Riverside Studios in Hammersmith. In October 2008, she returned to the west end as Jeannie, in Neil LaBute's Fat Pig at London's Comedy Theatre. Her performances have had mixed reviews, the Daily Mail said «Kelly Brook has a pencil waist and rabbit-thigh legs, but she is not a great interpreter of a role». In November 2009, she began playing Celia in Calen- dar Girls at the Noel Coward Theatre, a role previously played by Jerry Hall.

Brook was in a seven-year relationship with actor Jason Statham, until 2004. Brook met American actor Billy Zane while filming thriller Survival Island in Greece in 2004. Brook and Zane were engaged to be married in the summer of 2008 and acquired a house in Kent, but Brook postponed the wedding upon the death of her father in November 2007. The couple split in April 2008 and briefly got back together before ending their relationship in August 2008. Brook had been dating Thom Evans since December 2010. On 16 March 2011, she announced via her Twitter account that she and Evans were expecting a baby girl. On 9 May 2011, Brook suffered a miscarriage. On 1 February 2013, Brook announced through Twitter that she and Evans had split. According to the Daily Mirror, Brook has been dating Danny Cipriani again, although on 12 April 2013 episode of Celebrity Juice, when asked if Cipriani was her boyfriend, she replied that they were just good friends.

Brook is an animal lover and posed nude with her body painted in scales for the «Whose Skin Are You In?» campaign by PETA

SHEYLA HERSHEY

Heyla Hershey (born Marinalva Almeida; 19 December 1979) is a Brazilian-born housewife living in Houston, Texas since the late 2000s. She is known for her extremely large breast implants. Her natural breast size is reported to be a B-cup. In May 2008, after 8 operations, she had a recorded bra size of 34FFF. By the end of January 2009, after having another operation in her native Brazil, she was reported to be a size 38KKK.

Hershey has shown interest in various aspects of entertainment and has her own record label in Brazil. She began singing for a Philippine pop band and dancing in the Far East in 2005. After several months, Hershey returned to Brazil. She attended acting classes and began starring in soap operas and comedy shows. The Brazilian edition of Guinness World Records book gave her the title of having the largest augmented breasts in Brazil.

On July 14, 2010, Hershey was reported to be suffering from a staph infection in both breasts following her most recent breast surgery session.

Although her implants have been removed, the speculation by her doctors was that the infection would also necessitate breast removal.

On July 27, 2010, reports surfaced that after complications during her July 5 surgery, she was «doing fine», and is «presently recuperating», and that surgery went on without further complications. She is married to Derek Hershey, an Electrical Engineer, whom she wed on September 29, 2007 in Las Vegas. In 2009, Sheyla Hershey gave birth to a daughter, Victoria Nicole Hershey. The couple also has a son Victor Hugo Hershey, born in 2008. The family shuttles between residences in Houston and Vila Velha, Brazil.

On September 15, 2010, Sheyla Hershey had her breast implants and most of her own breast tissue removed. According to her latest blog on her official website, she stated that still had not lost her official «title» as the woman with «The World's Biggest Enhanced Breasts», and hoped to be able to perhaps have her breasts re-enlarged within the next «few months».

Suicide attempt rumors and new breast enlargement

On February 16, 2011, it was reported that Hershey was in a coma after taking a lethal dose of prescription pills the day before, in reportedly her second alleged suicide attempt in a 2-month period, just days before a scheduled breast surgery to re-enhance her bustline back to size 38KKK. After Hershey recovered from the coma, in an interview with British tabloid newspaper The Sun, Hershey is stated as having said that she was allegedly distraught over feeling «so ugly» without her world record implants, but was still considering having a breast re-enhancement surgery done on her by plastic surgeons in Mexico. On February 20, 2011, it was reported by Hershey on her official website, that not only that the reports and rumors were false, but that she also had a bad reaction to the medication that she had been taking, and that she was fine at home recuperating from treatment for the reaction to the medication.

In September 2011, Hershey had another breast surgery to reconstruct her breasts, also adding 2500 cc of saline implants, gradually filling them to 4300 cc by November 2011, and planned to increase with additional injections to 5500 cc in 2012, for a goal size she describes as 38MMM. In addition, early 2012 rumors have it that she still wanted to increase her breast size to an even larger size.

She has made cameo appearances on NBC's Last Comic Standing, Comic-Con TV specials and was profiled on the National Geographic Channel's documentary series Taboo[13] and TLC's My Strange Addiction. On her episode of the latter, her doctor diagnosed her with body dysmorphic disorder.

SOPHIE HOWARD

Sophie Howard (born 24 February 1983) is an English glamour model from Southport, England. She appeared regularly on Page Three and in men's magazines, such as Maxim, Nuts, and Loaded. In August 2005, Howard was voted 73rd in the FHM UK «100 Sexiest Women» poll. In the 2006 poll, she rose to 68th place

Sophie Amanda Howard, was born and raised in Southport, England to Steve and Tina Howard. She has often cited a main influence on her upbringing as brothers Keith and Mark, whom she grew up with in Southport, later moving to Ellesmere Port. She attended Christ the King Catholic High school and was in the Salvation Army until she was 16. At 17, she became a stripper, a «rubbish» one:

I'd go on the stage, dance around a bit, get my tits out, then get off. Well, with lapdancing, you had to put in three minutes, but if the guy was a bit minging, you made it last one-and-a-half. If they were hot, you'd do it all night! ... At that time of your life you need to start trying out new things and see where it takes you. You never know, maybe one day I'll go back to the uniform. Thinking about it, what I'm doing now is probably very blasphemous. Ah, He'll forgive me anyway!

Howard studied English at Edge Hill University. During this time, she signed to the IMM modelling agency, and appeared in the magazine.

Howard subsequently signed a contract with Loaded, resulting in a relationship advice column and a regular feature called «Sophie's Choice». As of 2006, Howard was signed to Nuts magazine for about 18 months. In 2006, Sophie's management of IMM also signed an exclusive 12-month deal—for 2007—with Dennis publishing for Sophie to frequently feature in Maxim and Bizarre.

In 2009 Howard returned to Edge Hill University, to study for a degree in mental health nursing. She retired from modelling in December 2011, to allow her to focus solely on her studies before returning to modelling in March 2013.

BB Gunns has appeared in: Penthouse, Cheri, Stag, Leg Action, Hustler Busty Beauties, Score.

She has starred in relatively few (mainly softcore) videos and also made an appearance in the movie, Big Money Hustlas, which also featured brief scenes by porn stars Kayla Kleeve and XXXena.

Like many busty feature entertainers, BB Gunns has made her mark around the web. In the old days, like many she made an appearance on the Jenny Jones Show. Although very private this girl continues to make jaws drop with her stunning shape.
